TOPEKA SOCIETY.

Miss Winifred Wagner Wedded to Mr. E. J. Bennett.

Ceremony Followed by Elaborate Reception at Bennett Home.

MISS LELAND MARRIED

Miss Anna Murphy Becomes Mrs. L. D. Blanford.

Items of Social and Personal Nature.

Miss Winifred Welles Wagner and Mr. Erasmus Junior Bennett were married Wednesday evening at 7:30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wagner at 435 Tyler street. The full ring ceremony was performed by Dr. J. D. Counterpane. Owing to the serious condition of Mr. Wagner's health, only members of the two families were present at the ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception, perfect in every detail, was held at the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bennett, on Buchanan street. Miss Wagner has taught music for several years, and a very pretty idea was that of receiving her pupils informally from eight until eight thirty, and from nine until eleven, several hundred other friends were received.

The Bennett home is so beautiful on the interior that it scarcely needs any decoration, but for this occasion it was transformed into a perfect bower with quantities of palms, cut flowers of all descriptions and ferns. The broad veranda surrounding the house on two sides was cosily furnished for the occasion.

The guests arrived they were introduced by Mr. Frank Bennett and Mr. John Waters to the receiving party, which was composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bennett, L. L. Wagner and Mrs. E. J. Junior Bennett. They stood in the east end of the parlor, with a wall of palms as an effective background. The other receptionists in the parlor consisted of Mrs. J. D. Counterpane and Miss Margaret Goodrich. Little Miss Mary Dallas Gage and Master Merrill Gage also assisted in the hall.

Long stemmed American Beauty roses graced the hall, and in the cosy recesses of the parlor the music was served during the evening by Miss Grace Welch and Miss Margaret Goodrich. Little Miss Mary Dallas Gage and Master Merrill Gage also assisted in the hall.

The dining room, which is one of the prettiest apartments in the house, was decorated with white and pink. The walls were banked with palms, with a fringe of beautiful sword ferns graced the top. The sideboard was massed with various and beautiful flowers. The table surface of the table was a square of Eatenburg on which rested a mirror, reflecting a high cut glass vase of bride roses. The corners of the table were draped with the broad white satin ribbons which ended in graceful bows.

Assisting through the rooms were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Dr. and Mrs. George Esterly, Miss Charlotte Page of Denver, Mrs. C. E. Crane, Mrs. J. W. Low, Mr. Will Wadsworth, Mr. Frank Dechen of Chicago, Mr. Fred McGiffin, Mr. E. R. Bennett and Mr. Lester Bennett.

In effect the bride's gown was as simple as it is possible for satin and point lace to be, but in reality it was one of the most elegant gowns ever worn by a Topeka bride. It was of cream white satin duchesse; around the bottom of the skirt, which was made with a pronounced dip, was an accordion pleated ruffle of white tulle and white mousseline de sole ruche. A tunic overskirt of exquisite point lace reached to the founce. The bodice was pointed in front and the neck and sleeves and yoke were of finely tucked mousseline de sole. The bolero in front, and inverted revers in the back, as well as the finish at the neck and bottom of the sleeves were of point lace. A broad scarf of white liberty silk, the floating ends edged with deep fringe, started from the right bolero and passed over the left shoulder with a rhine stone buckle. The only ornament was a whole pearl and amethyst pendant, gift of the bride. The point lace had been in the Wagner family for years, and was a gift to the bride from her mother as well as the fan she carried; it was also the bride's veil, and the white mousseline de sole ruche. She carried bride roses.

Mrs. E. Bennett wore a handsome costume of gray and white satin striped chaille; the yoke and collar were of violet silk and the color was further brought out by a touch of black velvet. The yoke was partially veiled in white lace at the foot of the yoke was a berth of point lace. The collar was caught with a diamond pin. The lace on the train of the gown was used on her wedding dress.

Mrs. Wagner wore a charming gown of white silk mull, with black polka dots and trimmed in black.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will be at home to their friends at 435 Tyler street after August 1. The young people received a great many elegant presents, among which were a piano and several quite large sums of money from relatives.

Finley-Leland.

A very pretty home wedding Wednesday evening was that of Miss Mildred L. Leland, daughter of Mr. Cyrus Leland, Jr., and Mr. Harold L. Finley, which took place at 9:30 at the residence on Quincy street.

As Miss Julia Leland, sister of the bride, soured Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bridal couple entered, attended by Miss Fannie Leland, another sister of the bride, and Mr. Chalmers Finley, brother of the groom. They stood in front of the bay window, in a simple parlor with a high bank of palms at their backs. They were met there by Father Harrigan who performed the full ring service. During the ceremony, Miss Julia Leland played the sweet strains of "Annie Laurie."

The color scheme throughout the room was pink and white, and a profusion of fragrant canations and long strands of smilax were used. Pink roses and carnations, supplemented with green were in the dining room, where a dainty luncheon was served.

The bride wore a pretty and becoming gown of pure white peau de soie, with garniture of Brussels net, satin ribbon and Alençon lace. The trained skirt was finished at the bottom with a deep flounce of the lace headed by a ruching of Brussels net. The bodice was tucked and had a bolero of the lace. She carried an armful of bride roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Fannie Leland, was gowned in pale blue mercerized mull, trimmed with valenciennes lace and satin ribbon. She carried pink roses.

The wedding was a quiet affair as only the relatives and a few of the more intimate friends were present. Mr. Finley graduated from Washburn college with the class of 1900, and is employed in the pension office. His bride is a charming young woman, loved by all who know her.

Blanford-Murphy.

A marriage which is of great interest to Topeka people was that of Miss Anna Murphy, and Rev. L. D. Blanford, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., which took place Wednesday evening, June 21, at the residence of the bride's parents, the residence of the bride's parents, the residence of the bride's parents.

The details of the wedding were as novel as they were charming. For a number of years Miss Murphy has made her home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Clauser on Polk street, and it was there that the reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Clauser, assisted by the young ladies of the Pactionian club, received the guests, while Mr. Ralph Clauser served as head usher. At 6 o'clock as the wedding march was played by Mr. Will Clauser, the bridesmaid and groom descended the stairs by twos and entered the parlor, forming a triangle at either side of the double door. Mr. Blanford and Miss Murphy entered by different doors and met under an arch of asparagus fern. They then left in the waiting carriage for the church where the ceremony was performed. Only the relatives were present at the ceremony; they were her father, Mr. Andrew Murphy of Linwood, her sister, Mrs. T. N. Beckley and Miss Murphy, the bridesmaid, and her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Murphy of Kansas City. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. P. Broad, pastor of the church.

When they returned to the house the Pactionian members again formed in triangles and after a short prayer, Rev. Mr. Broad introduced them to the assembled company.

During the absence of the bride party at the church an entertaining musical programme was given by the Pactionian club, which consisted of a violin solo by Miss Verna McLatchey, and vocal numbers by Miss Harriet Broad, Miss Mary Clauser and Mr. Clark G. Bailey, and several numbers by a stringed orchestra led by Mr. David Gossett.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanford went to Excelsior Springs after the reception, where they will remain a short time, after which they expect to make a tour of the northern lakes. Mrs. Blanford is a native Michigan and will continue her work with her husband who is the pastor of the Congregational church at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Miss Murphy has taught in the Topeka high school for a number of years and has endeavored herself to a large circle of friends.

The bride wore a pretty and becoming costume of sheer white batiste, trimmed with accordion pleated ruffles of fluffy white chiffon. She carried a single long stemmed bride rose.

The decorations were all in pink and white, the colors of the Pactionian club. The porch was screened in with panels of alternate pink and white bunting, and numerous rugs and easy chairs made an inviting retreat. In one corner was a punch bowl from which Mrs. Will Clauser and Miss Vera Clauser served.

The chandeliers through the rooms were wound with green and the globes shaded with pink. On the mantel in the front parlor were masses of pink and white sweet peas and in the second parlor were daisies.

The square dining table was covered with a dainty white cloth and at the corners were butterfly bows of white satin ribbon which held in place garlands of asparagus fern. On a center piece prettily embroidered in pink was a high glass vase of pink carnations.

A Charming Children's Party.

Mrs. D. J. Greenwald gave a charming children's party Wednesday afternoon at her home on Topeka avenue in honor of her little son Jack's fourth birthday. It was a lawn party and the space at the rear of the house was screened in with a wall of red, white and blue bunting about ten feet high and topped with American flags of all sizes. In the center was a huge rug and the place was a charming one for the children to play in.

On the front lawn was a large tent representing an Indian wigwag; it was hung with bows and arrows and all sorts of Indian trinkets. A long settee across one side was piled with gaily colored pillows, and in one corner lemonade was served from a large punch bowl during the afternoon.

The time was spent in playing all sorts of juvenile games, and a delightful close to the festivity was the serving of ice cream and cake, the guests seated at long tables. A hat was filled with all kinds of small sized fireworks, and each guest in turn was blindfolded and drew one from the hat, which was taken home as a souvenir. The fireworks left over were then fired off for the amusement of the little people. There were about thirty guests present and they ranged in size from the little tot just beginning to toddle up to the larger one twelve or thirteen years old.

Mrs. Greenwald was assisted by Mrs. Hester and Miss Hagar and Miss Katherine Mills.

DOWN TO DEATH.

Two Boys Lose Their Lives While Swimming.

There is great sorrow in the home of Edward P. Collins this morning for it seems almost certain that the son Eddie Collins, who is 14 years old and his cousin, Edward Fitzgerald, aged 22, are drowned.

The boys left home Wednesday telling Mrs. Collins that they were going to swim. They started out for the swimming hole known to the boys as Beaver Island, which is about one and a half miles above the Rock Island railroad bridge.

They did not return at noon and Mrs. Collins began to worry, but did not think it necessary to start a search until in the evening when Mr. Collins came home. By that time the police were satisfied that something was wrong and Mr. Collins, accompanied by Mr. T. F. Lannan started to go up the river bank. They first notified the police of the disappearance of the boys and found that they had heard nothing of them. Before they had reached the spot the clothing of Fitzgerald had been found, but nothing was found belonging to young Collins.

When the finding of the clothing was reported to the police, Sergeant Betts and Officer J. E. Lucas went to the place and began a search for the boys. The storm made the waves so high that it was almost impossible to row a boat and drag the books, but the party persisted in the search until midnight. This morning the search was renewed by Sergeant Donovan and a squad of men, Deputy Sheriff Lawson and many citizens. They worked all morning with poles and hooks for a great distance below the place where the boys were supposed to have gone in but were unable to find a single trace of the missing ones.

The fact that none of the clothing of young Collins has been found had led to many surmises as to how he was drowned. There is a deep hole a few feet from the bank and it is suggested that Fitzgerald got into this and young Collins in trying to help him from the bank was drawn into the water.

Eddie Collins is not a strong boy and could not swim, while Fitzgerald was a well built young man and a strong swimmer. His sinking can be accounted for in many ways as every one is aware that the water is very rough and as dangerous to the strong swimmer as to the weak one.

A POPULAR MISTAKE

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; that, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect digestion.

When nearly every person you meet is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when in fact, as Dr. Werther says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but it is a scientific combination of pure vegetable (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and blamuth. It is sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extracts and claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered.

They act on the food eaten, no dieting is necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results, because the stomach needs is a rest, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion.

After the close of the war he returned to Shawnee county and again took up the work on the farm. FOR WOMAN'S HEALTH

Earnest Letters from Women Relieved of Pain by Mrs. Pinkham.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Before I commenced to take your medicine I was in a terrible state, wishing myself dead a good many times. Every part of my body seemed to pain in some way. At time of menstruation my suffering was something terrible. I thought there was no cure for me, but after taking several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound all my bad feelings were gone. I am now well and enjoying good health. I shall always praise your medicine."—Mrs. AMOS FESCHLER, Box 236, Romeo, Mich.

Female Troubles Overcome

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I had female trouble, painful menses, and kidney complaint, also stomach trouble. About a year ago I happened to pick up a paper that contained an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I read how it had helped others, I thought it might help me, and decided to give it a trial. I did so, and as a result am now feeling perfectly well. I wish to thank you for the benefit your medicine has been to me."—Mrs. CLARA STREIBER, Diller, Neb.

No More Pain

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your Vegetable Compound has been of immense benefit to me. When my menses first appeared they were very irregular. They occurred too often and did not leave for a week or more. I always suffered at these times with terrible pains in my back and abdomen. Would be in bed for several days and would not be exactly rational at times. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and menses became regular and pains left me entirely."—Mrs. E. F. CUSTER, Bx 16, Wis.
