SULZER SEES BRYAN.

New York Congressman Afterwards Discusses Political Situation.

Omaha, Neb., June 30.—A special to the World Herald from Lincoln, Neb., says:
 Congressman William A. Sulzer, of New York, and Fred Feigl, editor of the Tammany Times, have arrived in Lincoln, to visit Mr. W. J. Bryan. After a conference with the latter, Mr. Sulzer said:
 "Regarding my candidacy for the vice presidency, I am in the hands of my friends. I have been a candidate for the vice presidency, in the sense of soliciting support for the nomination. In congress, however, and out of congress, my friends have been kind enough to urge my eligibility for the nomination. But I want it understood that in no way will I allow my personal ambitions to stand in the way of the cause for which we are all contending. What I do want, what my friends want, and what the New York delegation will insist on, is that a man be nominated for vice president who was a loyal and sincere supporter not only of the cause, but of the Chicago platform in 1896. We want a man who will command the respect and confidence of the people, and who will strengthen the feeling of such men whom the convention may deem fitter for the nomination than myself and my friends will actively and gladly support."
 Questioned regarding the position the New York delegation would probably take on the platform Mr. Sulzer responded:
 "We will be for the unequivocal reaffirmation of the Chicago platform. Personally I am in favor of the special re-affirmation of the plank favoring free coinage of silver at the present ratio and the majority of the delegation is in favor of it. We will oppose any trimming or equivocation. The great Democratic party can take no backward step."
 "It has been erroneously reported," concluded Mr. Sulzer, "that Mr. Croker and ex-Senator Murphy will come to Lincoln before going to Kansas City. They leave New York tonight and will proceed direct to Kansas City where I will meet them Sunday morning."
 Mr. Feigl, editor of the Tammany Times, the official organ of Tammany, spoke enthusiastically of the prospects for Democratic victory in New York this fall.
 "It will be hard to find more than a handful of laboring men in New York city," he said, "who will not vote for Bryan. They have learned to love, honor and confide in your great Nebraska leader. Among the poor people of our city Mr. Bryan is loved as no public man was ever loved before. The opposition of the millionaire classes to him is as great, it is true, as it was in '96, and on Wall street he has no friends. They not only hate him, but they hate him. But the kid gloved millionaire casts no larger ballot than does the man with the dinner pail, and there are more men who carry dinner pails than possess a million dollars."
 "Roosevelt's nomination will not strengthen the Republican party in New York," continued Mr. Feigl, "it will weaken it. His opera bouffe method of campaigning in costume, with brass bands, cowboys and rough riders in his train does not commend itself to the good taste nor win the respect of our people. We came within 18,000 votes of beating him for governor, and the Democracy of New York, united, virile and aggressive, is far stronger today than it was two years ago."
 Regarding Mr. Sulzer's candidacy, Mr. Feigl said:
 "Mr. Sulzer is a wonderful campaigner. He is honest, sincere and a fighter, and he commands the respect and confidence of the common people. If New York presents any name to the convention it will be his, and she will vote for him as a unit. From outside New York Mr. Sulzer now has over 200 letters from delegates to the convention pledging themselves to his support."
 "Whether it be Mr. Sulzer or some other man our delegation will insist that the nominee for the vice presidency be a man who was true to Mr. Bryan and the Chicago platform. And we will favor particularly the free silver plank. The metallism is daily gaining adherents in New York. I personally know hundreds of men who were for the gold standard in '96 and are for the double standard today."
 "And further, there are in New York thousands upon thousands of men who voted for McKinley who are opposed to imperialism. Their hearts beat with loyalty and love for the republic which the fathers founded, and they are bitterly indignant at the attempt of the Republican party to place this free country in the imperial, land grabbing, man-enslaving column."

MORE TIME FOR NEELY.
 Case Is Again Put Off This Time Till July 23.

New York, June 30.—A writ of extradition for Charles F. W. Neely, charged with embezzling many thousands of dollars from the postal department of Cuba, was moved for by United States District Attorney Burnett before Judge LaCombe, in the circuit court. The motion was made in accordance with the provisions of the special extradition act passed by congress in the closing hours of the last session. Gen. Burnett was assisted by an assistant United States district attorney, while John D. Lindsey appeared for Neely.
 Neely, who has been in Ludlow Street jail ever since his second arrest, in default of $50,000 bail, was taken to the court room, to be arraigned on July 23 next to give Mr. Lindsey time to prepare his brief and submit it and also to enable the government to secure more evidence. Mr. Lindsey opposed the motion on the ground that the act of June 6 was unconstitutional.
 Gen. Burnett argued that if the government could surrender a prisoner to a foreign country under international comity without any special act, it could do so all the more by having this act. The chief point in question was whether the evidence submitted with the indictment was sufficient or not.
 Denver, Pueblo, Colorado Springs, and Return $19.00 via Santa Fe.
 Tickets on sale June 21, July 7, 8, 9, 10, 15 and Aug. 18. Stoppers allowed between Pueblo and Denver enabling one to stop at Colorado Springs. Final limit of ticket October 31st. See T. L. King, agent, for particulars.
 The Union Pacific have arranged for extra equipment on all trains for Kansas City July 4th and special train will leave Kansas City for Salina at 11 p. m. in addition to usual evening trains.

DOUBTERS.
 Can Be Changed by Knowledge.
 If there is any doubt about making brain power by the use of certain food, the doubter should make the following experiment.
 Helen Frances Huntington of Gainesville, Ga., says: "Just a word of commendation concerning Grape-Nuts which I have found to be the most wholesome, nourishing and appetizing food that has ever come to my knowledge."
 "I am not a dyspeptic, but being constantly engaged in severe brain work I found that I did not thrive on ordinary diet; even a moderate dinner dulled my brain so as to be practically incapable of critical work. I tried meat-juice, peptonoids, the two meal system of light breakfast and no supper which brought on nervous depletion and sleeplessness, so I resorted to one and another of the various health-foods which all seemed alike tasteless and valueless as brain food, until quite by chance, I had a dish of Grape-Nuts food served as dessert. I liked it so well that I began to use it and active rest time, in cooperation seems to effect the sweet nutty flavor of the food as in the case of certain fine-flavored fruits.
 The result in my case was simply astonishing. I had no desire whatever for sweet pastries, meats or in fact any thing else; and my brain was as clear and active as time, in cooperation seems to effect the sweet nutty flavor of the food as in the case of certain fine-flavored fruits.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
 ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.
 Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap." Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they not inferior?
 Is it economy to spoil your digestion to save a few pennies?
 Alum is used in some baking powders because it is cheap. It costs but a few cents a pound whereas the chief ingredient in a pure powder costs thirty. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.
