STOLEN, TAKEN OR CARRIED AWAY.

Some person took the Missouri Roster from the register headquarters this morning, and consequently many from that state were disappointed, and could not look up old comrades. Whoever made this error will please return the roster at once.

C. W. Daniels lost a fine rug off his wagon. It was picked up by some Galena parties. Will they kindly return the rug?

WEDNESDAY.

The ex-Prisoners of War held their annual meeting at the auditorium this morning, and at the close of their session music by the Baxter band opened the exercises of the day.

The annual meeting of the officers of the Inter-State Reunion Association was then held and was notable from the large number of stockholders in attendance. The address of Judge C. A. McNeill in placing the old board of directors of the Inter-State Reunion Association in nomination was noteworthy in every particular. He reviewed the history of the association from its first conception twenty-five years ago to the present time, when its visitors were counted only by tens until now by the thousands. The judge has ever been a patriotic visitor, and the officers of the association appreciate his kind words and loyal sentiment.

The platform was then turned over to the W. R. C. and W. C. T. U., with Mrs. Scovell of Galena, presiding. A cordial welcome was extended the visitors by the Baxter Corps through their representative, Mrs. Bryan.

Miss Mary E. Dobbs, president of 3rd district W. C. T. U. was chief speaker, and her remarks were well chosen, and fully appreciated.

An old confederate said: "We used to think God was on our side. We had Lee and Jackson, and Wheeler and Jube Early; we also had that divine institution African slavery, also Dixie and the Bonnie Blue Flag, and after Bull Run we were sure God was with us. Our preachers said we were right and everything seemed to be in our favor, but towards the close, as things went the other way, we had our doubts, and now after looking over this grand reunion of grand old men with the beautiful weather and your magnificent grounds and happy people, I realize that I must have been mistaken. I must have been on the wrong side of the Union, and is STILL WITH YOU."

Among those from Columbus today were, A. S. McNay, superintendent of water works; Mayor W. T. Forkner, Marshal Edw'd Wellington, J. C. Broadley and wife, Editor Mitchell and family of the Advocate; Editor Lowery and wife of Modern Light; Atty. S. L. Walker, J. C. Broadley and wife.

If there is one comrade, or more, here who took part in the Quantrell Massacre, Comrade Arnold would be pleased to meet them. Remember that belonging to a company does not entitle a comrade to claim or go so far as to say he took part and was one who in his own estimation and imagination, did so much. There is not another survivor of the massacre on the reunion grounds. Frank Arnold, Co. I, 3rd Wis. Cav.

WIGGS' BLOOD PURIFIER

From Reunion Daily.

Department Commander, Coney came in Friday at 5:00 p. m. and held a camp fire in the evening. By the time the Captain arrived the reunion was virtually over and there was little left but empty tents, the W. C. T. U., and watermelon rinds. Captain Coney was offered big Thursday, when sixty thousand people were in camp, and he could have had a grand audience of old soldiers, but for some reason he failed to appear, however, he had quite a number of stragglers, camp followers and old maids who never leave the ground till the last dog is dead, and he could see by the remains that we had a glorious time.

Governor Hoch made a positive engagement to speak on Thursday and did not even notify the officers of his failure to come. We did not look for a visit from the governor. He is speaking today to a little crowd at Ossawatimie, when he could have met 60,000 people in Camp Logan.

PRIZE FIGHT.

There was a prize fight near the Camp yesterday. Two gentlemen from the territory named Staton and Martin had a controversy about a girl, and agreed to settle it under the Marquis of Queensbury rules. They selected Bill Johnson as referee and retired to the woods south of Camp, stripped to the skin and went at it.

In the first round Martin landed on Staton's jaw with a severe left under-cut and Staton followed with a beautiful lick on Martin's nose drawing first blood and covering the empire with gore.

In the second round Staton hammered his opponent to the ropes drawing claret with every lick. The umpire called time, giving this round to Staton.

Third round. This was hard fought by both men, and a good deal of scientific skill was displayed and rich blood flowed freely. Staton finally landed a terrific knock-out blow on the jaw and failing to come to the front when time was called the umpire gave the fight and the girl to Staton. The umpire made the boys shake hands and make up under a threat that he would lick both of them.

Many old comrades bid farewell this morning and left for their homes, with the solemn remark, "God be With Us 'Till We Meet Again." The adjutant, J. M. McNay, says there has not been a direct complaint made to him during the reunion. This is truly remarkable and commendable on the part of comrades and citizens. It would appear that the greatest kicker has lately located in a "New State" and the lesser ones remain at home. Look for the best associate with the purest and you will never have any complaints when you visit Camp Logan.

There was 10,000 children in camp Thursday. They were so thick on Bluff street a woman rushed out of her tent, picked up a red-headed, freckled-faced kid and without examination spanked him soundly. It turned out to be the wrong kid and a wordy-war ensued between the two mothers.

W. M. Beth of Fulton, Kansas was on the grounds yesterday and met many old friends. He does not claim to be a survivor of the Baxter massacre, but did help to bury the poor unfortunates who fell at that time. Mr. Beth is the father of the Beth boys who are farming in the vicinity of Quapaw, south of Baxter, and is a pleasant gentleman to meet.

Ex-Senator Harris of Chicago says he will be here next year if he is elected Governor of Kansas. He was cordially invited but could not leave home this time. "We shall meet but we shall miss him."

Everybody says we must buy 40 acres more land. We need it every hour. There will be 100,000 people in Camp Logan in 1908. Don't forget this.

We need two more roads into Camp. The ones we have are packed with teams and at times it is almost impossible to get out or in. At least one more road should be opened up and also an automobile route.

The lawless element has not encountered very smooth sailing in this section of country, owing to the efficient police force.

Give us more reunion or give us death.

JOPLIN CARNIVAL.

The "Big Booster Carnival" open at Joplin next Monday and there will be dabs of red paint smeared over the entire city.

The Patterson & Brainerd Company will furnish the amusements going direct from Camp Logan to Joplin.

One of the features of the "Big Booster Carnival" will be "Hay Day" next Thursday when there will be a big farmers' parade. Thirty-five dollars in gold will be paid the farmers taking the largest number of women to Joplin on one wagon that day.

SLUGGED WITH A ROCK.

A man named Garrett from Tulsa, I. T., was hit on the head with a rock Monday night while endeavoring to quell a disturbance, and now lies in a precarious condition. The skull was fractured and brain oozed out. Dr. Boswell took charge of Garrett, and at present thinks his chances slim. The man who committed the assault is known, but as yet is at large.

John West of Spavinaw, I. T., is here with a party of Cherokees. John has a warm spot in the hearts of the Baxter sports, who visit his section of country every year hunting and fishing, and it is said John furnishes the most of the fresh meat.

One week in Camp Logan does an old soldier more real good than all the physic in a drug store. It puts new life in him, stirs up his liver and starts his blood to circulate. The songs, music and speeches of Camp Logan would almost bring a dead man to life.

WE PART

But we hope only for one year, and it is the wish of this paper that you may all enjoy a prosperous, healthy and happy twelve months and meet us at Camp Logan next year when we hope to renew that smile and continue it for years. Good bye comrades but not farewell.

BOY WANTED.

Marion Martin, who is said to be on the reunion ground is anxiously wanted by his mother, Mrs. J. A. Thurman of Denver City, Colorado. The mother is a cripple and is quite ill, and wants her son, and offers $25 for his address.

T. B. McElhiney left the latter part of the week for Oklahoma City to join his family, who has been there some time. They will make Oklahoma City their home.

G. F. Pond was taken quite seriously ill in Camp today and had to be hauled to the train to be taken to his home at Fort Scott, Kansas. His many friends hope he will soon recover.

A Coney Island man says the big Baxter reunion beats anything on earth except "Coney." We had our Coney today, the Department Commander of Kansas.

It will be impossible to give all the speakers a place on the platform this year but the officers of the association will do their best to place them.

Friday will be a big day this year, some of our best orators will speak on Friday. Don't leave the Camp till Friday night. A whole week in Camp Logan will do you good.

HIGH SCHOOL

OPENING CHANGED.

On account of Labor Day the date of enrollment will be changed to September 4th instead of September 3rd as announced in the catalogue. But some changes will be made this year in the manner of enrollment and it will be necessary for every new student to be present in the assembly room promptly at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Don't fail in this.

C. S. BOWMAN, Principal.

BANKS CLOSED.

Next Monday, September 3, being Labor Day both the Baxter banks will be closed. Do not forget this.

Senator Long said Camp Logan was the most magnificent park he ever saw.

Some of our stand men will make $500.00 clean money this year.

The crowd today was the largest ever known and is estimated at from 55,000 to 60,000.

Col. J. B. Cook of Chetopa was to be with us Tuesday but wires he is too ill to come.

Quite a number of confederates are camping with us and they are just as pleased as anybody.

A war widow took 20 shares of stock in the association Wednesday. Now what do you think of that?

Comrade Taylor of Pittsburg took twenty shares of stock in Camp Logan for his grandchildren.

Charley Smith, the privilege man lost twenty-five pounds the first two days. He only puts in nineteen hours a day.

O. S. Casad, the president of the Pittsburg reunion will tell you how he saved the Union at one of our camp fires.

The Misses Nettie and Grace Doty are looking after the registering department, and are the right persons in the right place.

The sanitary conditions will be greatly improved next year. We shall have plenty of nice clean closets.

Miss Laura Guston, who has charge of the telephone exchange at Camp Logan is giving the best of satisfaction.

Nearly 200 privileges have been sold and all are making big money. Southeastern Kansas is full of money this year.

About every town in the northeast corner of the Indian Territory from Talequah to Quapaw is represented in Camp Logan.

Gov. E. W. Hoch failed to appear today, but C. W. Daniels entertained the crowd in the amphitheatre with one of his rip-roaring speeches and all seemed satisfied—many thinking it was the governor himself.

A high-toned gentleman remarked last year that Camp Logan was hardly a fit place for a nice family. This year he brought his family of nine and is going to stay all the week. Now what do you think of that?

Old Joe Carter of Columbus is with us. He was one of the main guys at our first reunion and led the Rebel forces in the sham battle twenty-five years ago. He still wears the scars.

Nearly all the mines of the Joplin district and the Baxter district are closed this week to attend the Big Reunion.

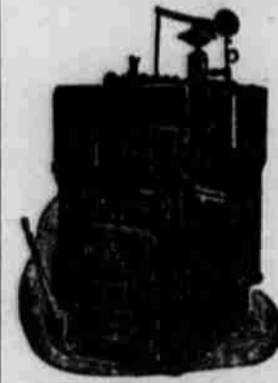

Capt. J. S. Price, seventy-ninth Illinois is taking care of the orators this year in good shape. He is the boss hotel man and a fine caterer.

Ex-Governor Crawford 2d Kansas Cavalry was in Camp Wednesday and was wonderfully pleased with the arrangement. The Governor was not satisfied when the war closed but went out and fought the Indians for a year or two just for recreation. He has a fine farm just east of the Camp.

The Camp Logan visitors were estimated at 80,000 yesterday.

S. C. Westcott of Galena, candidate for representative is in Camp meeting his many friends.

Arkansas is well represented in Camp headed by Captain Riggs of the first Arkansas critter cavalry.

Miami sent a big crowd. They were about all here except Bill Labadie and McNaughton.

Department Commander Pat Coney will be with us this evening. Everybody should hear Pat.

N. A. Roberts of Nevada, Mo., a well known representative of the Kansas City Paper House, visited Camp Logan this week.

Chief John Early of the Ottawa was brought a fine lot of warriors into Camp Thursday.

If we buy more land over 2000 families from adjoining cities will camp here next year.

Major William Blundell, our canoneer is a most faithful comrade.

The Frisco has promised more trains next year, and the boys won't have to ride in "Jim Crow" cars.

E. A. Ellis of Crestline, state deputy grand master of I. O. O. F. was among the vast throng assembled here yesterday.

There will be hundreds of people remain in Camp Logan over Sunday. From ten days to two weeks will be required after this year.

Dell Gill got into the "Giggle Giggle" show through mistake and before he could get out he lost about 30 pounds. He is giggling yet.

We hope lemons will be cheaper next year so we can have some real lemonade with a small piece of lemon in it.

Please allow us to suggest that Camp Logan visitors next year leave their doggoned-dogs at home. They are a nuisance in camp.

Quite a number of arrests have been made, but mostly were from drunkenness and disorderly conduct, caused from a poor quality of booze.

Capt. Hubbard our worthy quartermaster says we feed our distinguished guests on straw tickets. See him for particulars.

Who is that fine looking young man riding a plug horse through the Camp? That is Mr. Chas. E. Collins, the general manager of the big reunion, and he is darn sight better than he looks. He was offered $5,000.00 a year to take charge of Forepaugh's circus but he stands by the big reunion. The W. C. T. U. people swear by him.

D. A. Price of Baxter Springs and H. Thompson of Illinois are busily engaged in talking over boyhood days. Both men enlisted at Ridge Farm, Illinois, the former in the twenty-eighth Ill. Vol. and the latter in the seventy-third.
