The Fall of Lucifer II

The God "Roosevelt the Righteous," beheld from his gilded throne, at his militant residence, Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., what he mistook for fraud and treachery being perpetrated on the "Chosen People of the United States Government" U.S. A., the beloved of his kingdom, "the Quapaw Indians." Swift as a bolt of lightning, this Righteous God demanded the attendance of his most trusted Archangel, the avenging spirit who says he led to the path of righteousness and virtue the great lumber interests and railroad corporations in his own realm of Minnehaha, in the great commonwealth of Minnesota. Amidst roaring volumes of mighty smoke and fire, out of which came the explosions conveying the commands of the mighty God to his most virtuous Archangel, to go forthwith to the land of his most cherished subjects, in the country of the Quapaws, and to assemble the chiefs and the warriors of that famous tribe, to instruct them to prepare their implements of war, to don their war paint and feathers, that an onslaught should be made on the pale faces, who had been supporting them for the past five years and spending millions of money on their lands to the end that the chosen people might ride in their carriages and have fine homes and plenty to eat and wear—a condition which they had never hoped to attain and never would if left to the benighted care and effort of the mistaken God or his most beneficent Indian Department of his Dominion.

That He, the Mighty Personal Representative of the All Powerful God, "Roosevelt the Righteous," would lead the mighty column of the braves and warriors of the Quapaws, and would by the mighty power of the whole Dominion of his commander crush the pale face as he advanced. With flaming sword in hand, and having a stenographer near by he would advertise to the world his great mission, to make the Indians repudiate their contracts, violate their sacred obligations, which is producing them their livelihood, and ruin the men who have in good faith, and honestly put their money into the developing of the mines on the Quapaws' lands. Raise them from starvation and want to comfort and affluence.

His stenographers worked overtime preparing suits to harass the men who are devoting their lives to the opening up and developing of the Indians' lands. The papers are kept full of what this mighty messenger is doing for the "Chosen People," the great amount of land he is protecting for them; and the number of suits he has started and the great many he is going to start, all to protect the Quapaws, the heirs and orphans from the grasping propensities of the white man. Blackening the fair name of this reservation, by attacking everything and everybody; driving the investors from it, as no one wants to invest money in a district, where the mighty hand of this government is crushing the development by its misguided policy. Not Justice or right! But Might!

Behold! a year ago this spirit descended on the Quapaws. He spake thus to his chosen people: "I come to free you from your enemies; I can stay but a short time; make haste; all with whom you have had any dealings are rogues and thieves, but behold an honest and righteous man has come amongst you; a square dealer of the Roosevelt type, now you will see things change."

Alas! things have changed, the mighty has fallen; yes, fallen below the depth of those he so glibly called thieves. The real cause for this distorted vision of the Righteous God has been made bare, and has shown the cloven foot of the God and his Archangel.

Sent to protect the Quapaws, the widows and the orphans, he has proceeded to procure their lands for below the actual value or even the selling price which could be obtained for such lands, were a fair and clear chance to secure same ever given the public. Under cover, and with the information of the Indian Department, which is kept from the public, he bought by secret sale, the allotment of Charles Blue-jacket, deceased, through the officials of the Department of the Interior, he being an employee of the Department of Justice, and in this reservation for the purpose of protecting the Indians and assisting them to get the best from their lands and leases, and he, through the secret information of the Indian Department, succeeded in obtaining a deed for the Charles Blue Jacket allotment of 200 acres for the sum of $5000, a ridiculously low price, when it is understood that the land is mineralized and has one prospect operating on it, being the Lincolnville Mine, also many drill holes showing immense deposits of rich zinc and lead ores; Also the Eleventh Hour Mines are opened on this land.

The owner of the Lincolnville Mines, says they would be willing to pay $100 per acre for his land, which only goes to show the depths to which this Archangel has fallen in so short a time, while his Righteous God is killing lions in Africa.

How much longer will this Great Government of the People(?) stand for this kind of malicious persecution, in order to furnish private snaps for such employees of the Governmental Department.

BLUE MOUND.

Fine weather for corn husking and other farm work.... Mrs. R. O. Thomas returned last week from a month's visit to relatives in Indiana.... Doc Chubb and John Thomas and family spent the day Saturday on Neosho, gathering nuts.... A merry crowd of boys went nutting and camping last week: John and Charley Paxton, Ward Darnell, and Will Stoskopf. The most trouble they report is getting lost in the woods. Prairie boys do not know how to travel in the woods.... Doc Chubb and Jim Amos attended the big A. H. T. A. doings at Pittsburg last Tuesday and Wednesday. Report a big crowd and an interesting time.... The A. H. T. A. organized a lodge at Blue Mound school house last Monday night, started with 19 members.... Col. Gregg of Joplin was in this community on business last week and took dinner with C. C. Sparlin.... Alva Chubb, wife and children visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stoskopf, over Sunday.... Mesdames John and Leonard Stoskopf were shopping in Columbus last Friday.... Geo. Beale, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Beale for a couple of weeks, returned to his claim on Monday near Plains, Kansas.... Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson, their parents and sisters were Columbus visitors on Sunday, and Monday they were visiting the mines near Miami and Hattonville.... Mr. Gill has been on the sick list for a few days.... Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stoskopf and daughter spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Lowe.... Miss Hall spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.... The Misses Bernice and Grace Thomas and some Columbus friends went to Neosho nutting and camping for a couple of days last week.... Mrs. R. Pigg and daughter have purchased a new piano.... Mr. Glines has purchased a piano for his daughters.... Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swalley are getting their home ready to move into soon.... Sunday School and League were fairly well attended

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

Ayer's
We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol
from our medicines
We urge you to consult your doctor

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.
