

IT is not alone the youngsters who are glad that Ivory Soap floats. Everybody who uses it values this quality next to Ivory's mildness and purity.

In the bathtub it means not only convenience but freedom from possible injury to have the soap always at hand and in sight instead of at the bottom of the tub where it may be stepped on.

And in toilet or laundry use the floating cake is a great economy because it reminds one to take it from the water instead of sinking out of sight and mind to waste away.

As the Editor Sees It.

Everybody expects the editor to see everything that occurs and to report it as he sees it. But how many of you like to have us see things that do not exist? How many of you like to have us report those things that should be but are not?

We would like, for instance, to see that spirit of unity and brotherly love among our business men that we speak of but seldom see. We would like to tell the good work they are doing for the community as a whole, of how they are all pulling together with a common end in view, of how their united labors are producing the most gratifying results in the advancement of the commercial interests of our community. We would like to, and we hope in time we may, for our business men are honorable, intelligent, energetic and persistent in their personal affairs, and only need a leader to make them equally so in the affairs of the municipality. We have hopes.

Then again, we would be overjoyed to see every man in this whole community consider seriously the subject of better streets and improved country roads. We are a long ways from perfection or even from desirable conditions in either, and so long as we remain passive in our attitude and dumb with our words we will continue just as we are, certainly no better and in time possibly worse. Every intelligent man, and especially the farmers, knows the inestimable value of improved road conditions and what it means to our commercial success. We would like to see a great movement on foot in which we might all join heart and soul. We would like to see it, but we don't.

Yes, we would even like to see a more healthy respect for and observance of the Sabbath day in this town. We would like to see every person, Christian and sinner, elbow to elbow, crowding in to our churches for the weekly services. We would like to see the farmer, and his wife, and his sons and daughters, and his hired men driving into town every Sunday to the services. We would like to see this, but again, alas, we don't.

We even would welcome the sight of our regiment of young lads working in the gardens, and mowing the yards, and keeping things neat and clean around the premises in their idle hours. We would like to see more of them devising honorable schemes for earning a few pennies and starting that tiny bank account. We would like to see them exhibit a spirit of thrift and energy and perseverance that would be even more than a credit to their parents. True, we see these commendable traits in many of our lads, but it is quite too often the case that we don't.

We would like to see some kind of general entertainment provided for our people during the summer months. It might be a concert, or a debate, or almost any kind of a public gathering where the people can come together and visit and chat for an hour or two each week and get better acquainted. We would like, but again we don't.

We would like to see every home in this community a subscriber to this paper, where every person can read of the vital interests of the community and its

This is the reverse side of the tin

THE Prince Albert tin, and in fact, every Prince Albert package, has a real message-to-you on its reverse side. You'll read:—Process Patented July 30th, 1907. That means that the United States Government has granted a patent on the process by which Prince Albert is made. And by which tongue bite and throat parch are cut out! Everywhere tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting you in tippy red bags, 5¢ tippy red tins, 10¢ handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors and in that clever crystal-glass humidor, with sponge-mustener too, that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition—always!

people. We would like to see every important item of news promptly phoned or mailed or told to us, that we may pass it along. We see much of this, it is true, but there is yet much that we should see and have, but do not.

Restored to Good Health.
"I was sick for four years with stomach trouble," writes Mrs Otto Gans, Zanesville, Ohio. "I lost weight and felt so weak that I almost gave up hope of being cured. A friend told me about Chamberlain's Tablets and since using two bottles of them I have been a well woman." Obtainable everywhere.

Shake Up Your Brains.

Shake up your brains, brother, shake them up lively. Somewhere in the dark recesses of your cranium is an idea that would be of great value to your home community.

Let the idea out and pass it along for examination and dissection and for possible use for the betterment of our people. Any man of normal intelligence is full of good ideas, but few people care to exploit them before the public. And yet the exploitation of ideas is just what we need for the improvement of local conditions.

Step forward and tell us what you know and what you think. Much of it may not be utilized, but there may yet appear the one great opportunity for which this community is waiting. Do it now and your action may spur your neighbors to such an extent that we may eventually get somewhere and do something.

Bilious Attacks.
When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

name, or are you known merely as your father's son?

Are you known by your own good qualities and by your own acts, or are you remembered simply because you bear the name of better people who conceived you and brought you into this world?

The young man who can look his elders straight in the eye and say "I am James Martin" already has opportunity at his feet, but the fellow who can say nothing better than that "he is Robert Martin's son" will still be groping in the darkness of the future after opportunity has vanished in the distance. Be something, do something, create a personality of your own, and the world will know you and respect you for what you are and not for what your parents were before you.

But continue content as "another man's son" and you will be accorded the respect and privileges only of "another man's son," and when death overtakes you your home paper will speak charitably of you as "another man's son."

Greatly Benefitted by Chamberlain's Liniment.

"I have used Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains, and the great benefit I have received justifies my recommending it in the highest terms," writes Mrs. Florence Slife, Wabash, Ind. "If you are troubled with rheumatic pains you will certainly be pleased with the prompt relief which Chamberlain's Liniment affords." Obtainable everywhere.

Cent a Word.

The cent a word advertising, which you can get in the News, is very effective. If you have a cow to sell, or a hog, or a horse, or anything else, or if you want to buy something; just use a short local in this paper. The price is a cent a word. Can you beat it?

Notice to Speeders.

Speeders are hereby notified that if they drive faster than 12 miles an hour inside the city limits will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
