Notice of Delegate Convention.

The Populist County Central committee met at the court house Saturday, September 7, 1895, and called a county convention to nominate county officers to meet at the court house in Wa-Keeney at 1 p. m. on Saturday, September 28, 1895.

The several precincts to be represented as follows:

It was recommended that the several precincts hold their caucuses on Saturday, September 21, at usual places. It was also ordered that the precincts in the First and Third Commissioner districts at same caucus select their proper number of delegates, as above, to attend the commissioner district convention to nominate candidates for commissioner. The First district commissioner convention to meet at Ogallah on October 5, and the Third district commissioner convention at Banner October 5.

S. L. SHORTHILL, Chairman. BEN. C. RICH, Secretary.

This week we nail to the mast-head the name of the nominees of the Republican party of Trego county and there they will remain until after the people speak at the November election. Is is a good ticket, collectively and individually. The nomination was fairly conducted and the nominees are the choice of the majority of the party. These reasons are sufficient to entitle our ticket to the support of every true Republican.

BICYCLES cannot run without wheels, boats without steam, engines without coal or newspapers without cash. Our subscribers are all good, but what good does a man's good do him when it don't do any good? He thinks every body has paid except him, and so it won't matter. And meantime the editor is carrying about three-fourths of the subscription list from two to four years, wears old clothes and is growled at for not getting out a "live" paper! How can the man with a lot of "dead" subscribers? Say, neighbor, are you one of 'em?—Ex.

If the truth is in the story from Topeka about the Populist administration of the Blind asylum, the pile of infamy at the door of Populism is heaped higher. It is said that the broom factory established fourteen years ago by Superintendent Miller has been allowed to lapse into idleness. This factory paid regular wages to the pupils, purchased their clothing and turned annually into the state treasury $2,500 profits. There were brooms to the value of $2,600 on hand when the Populists took hold of the institution. These have gone, nobody knows where, for in the ledger where the account should stand, six pages have been torn out. The people of Kansas must be nauseated with the scandals that have been revealed, but it is a public duty to face the music and go to the root of all the rottenness in public affairs.—Leavenworth Times.

ENDING with last Saturday night western Kansas experienced the hottest weather ever known at that season of the year. Our old-timers all agree upon this statement and yet it wasn't so very bad after all. It was true that the mercury reached a pretty high altitude during the middle of the day, but the heat was tempered with a fine breeze and at no time was the air sultry. There were no sunstrokes nor fatalities of any kind resulting from the weather. As compared with other localities, western Kansas was a health resort. In the East schools were suspended, judges adjourned court and many kinds of business were temporarily closed on account of the hot weather. Following the heated term was a cold wave from the northwest which reached here last Saturday evening. It was not a bad storm in this locality. A few had fires the following morning, but more were comfortable without them. A light frost Monday morning was the climax of the storm here. The entire state of Colorado was covered with snow, eight inches covering the ground at Denver and fourteen inches at Boulder. In Wyoming the snow was two feet deep and several perished. Even Nebraska was covered with snow. The comparisons are only made to emphasize a fact well known to our citizens, but sometimes temporarily lost sight of. We have the finest climate in the world in western Kansas. Neither too hot nor yet too cold. It is just about right and averaging the year, one month with another, it will equal if not excel any other locality in the United States. It is always bracing and health-giving. Never sultry in summer and the thermometer seldom falls below zero in winter. We think a few remarks, on the never failing topic of the weather, timely right now when so much fault is being found in other localities. Surely our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places in western Kansas and we ought to appreciate it even more than we do.

The crime of crimes in any nation is treason. Anarchy is so closely allied to treason that a distinction or a difference is scarcely perceptible. We have often wondered why the strong arm of the law has not been invoked to suppress anarchy and stamp out those miserable traitors and conspirators which infest most of our principal cities and whose sole aim seems to be to teach the doctrine of the red flag and incite rebellion to our government and our free institutions. We continue to wonder at the leniency of those who have charge of our nation's honor, although an incident occurred in Chicago the other day which will send a thrill of joy and exultation to the heart of every loyal citizen, because it demonstrated that anarchy and the red flag will no longer be tolerated in at least one of our chief cities.

"Charles Wilfred Mowbray, the Englishman, who came to Chicago for the purpose of teaching his doctrine of no government, was stopped in the middle of a speech at Belmont park by the police. He was so badly frightened that after a few words of explanation, in which he said that he did not mean to teach violence, he hurriedly left the platform and made his escape in the crowd."

Police Inspector Schaack, who was a prominent figure in the troublesome times of 1886, made preparations to nip any kind of a radical demonstration before it had gone too far. He was present with a detail of police in citizens' clothes, and a block away 100 uniformed officers and three patrol wagons waited a signal to make a descent on the gathering.

Mowbray started in by abusing the police and the newspapers. Inspector Schaack bore this without interference, but when he began berating the stars and stripes, and hoping for the glorious day when the red emblem would be raised triumphantly aloft, the inspector gave the signal and Captain Schuetzler, who was on the platform, laid a heavy hand on the shoulder of the speaker. Mowbray had not expected this, and was plainly disconcerted. He stammered and looked dismayed, and attempted an explanation, but the big police captain quietly remarked: "You have got to stop that kind of talk," and that settled it.

There was a howl from the crowd at the interruption and several of the more radical attempted to climb the stairs leading to the platform. They were prevented from doing so by the police. Richard Braunschweig, a loud mouthed radical, who can scarcely speak a word of English, managed to get on the platform and attempted to shove Captain Schuetzler to one side. He was seized by two detectives.

Mrs. Lucy Parsons was present and after Mowbray's experience she remarked: "It don't surprise me any. Liberty is dead in Chicago. Any one can see that." To which the police replied: "Anarchy is dead in Chicago for all time."

The Dakota Hot Springs.

The Hot Springs of Arkansas have long been deservedly popular, for the reason that there has been no other place that has filled the requirements of both a health and a pleasure resort. This state of affairs have changed. The Hot Springs of South Dakota have, in recent years, been thrown open to the people, and because of their delightful situation and great curative qualities, are becoming more popular every day. Situated as this resort is, in the famous Black Hills, in the midst of beautiful mountain scenery, possessing that balsamic atmosphere which is in itself health giving, with waters that are pronounced by experts equal if not superior to those of any other mineral springs in the world, it will soon outrank any other resort.

You can buy more groceries for a dollar at Bestor's than any other place in town.

REIGN OF HIGH CARNIVAL.

St. Louis in a Blaze of Glory. Seven Weeks of Uninterrupted Gaiety.

The name of America's greatest carnival center—St. Louis—will be blazoned on the skies of gaiety from September 4th to October 19th, 1895. The eighteenth annual reign of carnival will pervade the city, and for seven weeks European capitals noted for their seasons of mystery and regal entertainment will gracefully bow to the superiority of the city on the banks of the Mississippi.

September 4th will mark the opening of the Twelfth Annual St. Louis Exposition. This splendid feature of St. Louis' carnival period will remain open until October 19th. In addition to Sousa's world-famed band, many new attractions will be offered. September 4th to 14th, the celebrated French Equilibrist, the Kins-Kers, will appear. September 15 to 25th, Caicedo, "the King of the Wire," and Louis Loriz, "the Man Monkey," by their unique entertainments will delight the fun-seeking public. September 30th to October 12th, Ivan Tschereff's celebrated educated mutes, the Russian dogs, are carded for a series of wonderful performances. October 13th to 19th, Price Kokin, the greatest Japanese juggler alive, will fill an engagement, while Buck Taylor and troupe of native Sioux Indians and Miss Cornelia Campbell Bedford, of New York, Demonstrator of Cooking, will appear every day during the Exposition season.

That mysterious personage, King Hotu, and his retinue will give a daylight parade September 28th. This is one of the most unique attractions of the carnival season in St. Louis, and is grotesquely staged. October 7th to 12th, the world-beater, the great St. Louis Fair, will be the chief attraction. On the evening of October 8th, His Majesty the Veiled Prophet and royal court will parade the principal thoroughfares of the city, followed by the famous ball, which is known throughout the land.

All the St. Louis theaters, during the season of high carnival, have billed most excellent attractions. Among the number might be mentioned "Tribby," "Lyceum Theater Company," Chas. Frohman's Stock Company, Hoyt's "A Black Sheep," DeWolf Hopper, etc.

The management of the Missouri Pacific Railway and Iron Mountain Route constantly having the interests of St. Louis in mind, will sell tickets from all points on the system to the carnival city and return at greatly reduced rates. For copy of the program giving the features of the carnival season in detail, address company's agents, or H. C. Townsend, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo.
