Charley Mann sold one of his farms last week for $450. The man that bought it at first thought he would pay half down. But when the time came to transfer the papers he found that he had money enough to pay it all. Then Charley had a kick coming; he didn't want the money, and when Charley didn't want anything he doesn't want it bad, so after a good deal of fussing the fellow gave Charley $50 to take the money. Things have come to a pretty pass when a man has to pay you to take money.—Sterling Bulletin.

There is always danger in using counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The original is a safe and certain cure for piles. It is a soothing and healing salve for sores and all skin diseases. Jones & Gibson.

A merchant down in Arkansas refused to advertise, "because" he says if he does, "somebody will be 'pesterin' me all the time to show 'em my goods.'" He is the same man who, when a customer came in and wanted a suit of clothes, asked him to come back some time "when I am standin' up." This may be a lie but there's a moral to it.—Hoxie Sentinel.

Frost Bites and Chilblains quickly cured by BANNER SALVE, the most healing remedy in the world. Jones & Gibson.

Editor Bryan has sent us his prospectus. If Editor Bryan wants our paper he'll have to subscribe for it. We ain't got no use for Editor Bryan. We've figured up what it cost us to back our judgment on Candidate Bryan. It cost us one squirrel dog that we had refused $25 for, one demijohn of bug juice, one oyster supper, one fat and 85 cents in cash.—Hickory Ridge Missourian.

Like bad dollars, all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are worthless. The original quickly cures piles, sores and all skin diseases. Jones & Gibson.

A gold mine may be the sharp find of a tenderfoot, but the assayer of the mint arrived by the other extremity.

Danger of Colds and La Grippe. The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be averted. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Jones & Gibson.

A Missouri editor apologizes to his readers for the lack of news in his paper as follows: "We expected to have a marriage and a death notice this week, but a violent storm prevented the wedding, and the doctor being sick himself the patient recovered, and we are accordingly cheated out of both items."

It is a mistake to try to bribe a judge unless you are sure of his price.

I cannot laugh and sing today I cannot dance and skip; My head seems full of brick and hay For I have got the grip.

—Walt Mason.

You Know What You Are Taking When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, No pay.

It is said by a modern Joseph that every man weighed in the balance is found wanting—everything he can get his hands on.—Gaylord Herald.

Jones & Gibson, the druggists, will refund you your money if you are not satisfied after using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness, constipation and headache. Price 25 cents. Samples free.

The gentlemen who is not equally a religionist in some form is not likely to remain one.

Lingering La Grippe Cough. G. Vacher, 157 Osgood St., Chicago, says: "My wife had a severe case of la grippe, and it left her with a very bad cough. She tried a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and it gave immediate relief. A 50c bottle cured her cough entirely. Price 25 and 50c. Jones & Gibson and Jas. C. Ellis, Collyer.

Probably the greatest rupture mankind feels is the death-sob on the battlefield.

Pneumonia Can be Prevented. This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of la grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained a world wide reputation for its cures of colds and grip. For sale by Jones & Gibson.

Truth marches onward with love in her hand, but a sword in her hand. Persons who cannot take ordinary pills find it a pleasure to take De Witt's Little Early Risers. They are the best liver pill ever made. Jones & Gibson.

"Nothing is more disgraceful than insincerity."

Piles of People testify to the merit of BANNER SALVE in curing piles. It is guaranteed. Jones & Gibson.

We all think the creator of the universe must have made a mistake when He put some of our neighbors on earth.

FATAL delays are caused by experimenting with cough and cold cures. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR will prevent a cold from resulting in PNEUMONIA. Jones & Gibson.

The Supreme Court on Joint Smashing.

The Kansas City Journal has received many communications from Kansas readers insisting that inasmuch as the liquor traffic is illegal in Kansas there are no property rights in saloon goods and furniture which any citizen is bound to respect. The hatchet work of Mrs. Nation and her associates is for this reason pronounced lawful and right. This is the theory that the joint-smashers themselves have proceeded on and they profess to have no fear but that the state courts will so declare when they come to trial. The trouble with all these people is that they have got their law from the chimney corner instead of from the law books. They certainly have not consulted the decisions rendered by the state supreme court.

Joint-smashing is not a new spectacle in Kansas, nor is its lawlessness or unlawfulness a new question in the Kansas courts. Only two years ago there was a case involving the very same points raised by the defenders of Mrs. Nation, and it received the attention of the highest court in the state. In Cloud county, at the January, 1889, term, of the district court, a case came to trial entitled "The State of Kansas, plaintiff, vs. Peter Hammerl, defendant." The history of this case is related by the Concordia Press, from which we quote as follows:

Hammerl kept a joint in Miltonvale, in this county. Some of the ladies of that place, forerunners of Mrs. Nation, formed a "Hatchet Brigade" and proceeded to the joint of Hammerl, as they testified, for the purpose of destroying the intoxicating liquors, the bottles and vessels in which kept, as well as the bar fixtures and other property used in keeping the joint and selling the liquor. The saloonkeeper, Hammerl, barred his door, and on the attempt of the brigade to break in he fired a loaded shotgun into the crowd, hitting one in the head and putting out an eye. He was tried and convicted on the ground, not that he had no right to defend his property, though a joint, but that he had no right to go farther or use more force than to him was reasonably necessary; that the force he used was, under the circumstances, unreasonable and unnecessary, and he, therefore, guilty of the offense charged.

On the trial the state claimed, as Mrs. Nation does, and as some of the Topeka lawyers seem to, that the ladies and their friends had the right to go to the joint and forcibly destroy it and the property used in carrying it on, and that the defendant had no right to prevent or defend, at least to some extent as other property.

The instructions asked by the state at the request of the county attorney, Mr. Culver, and his associate, Mr. Harkness, was as follows: "The jury is instructed that all places in this state where intoxicating liquors are manufactured, sold, bartered or given away contrary to law are public nuisances, and the law will not protect the same, and the keeper thereof cannot be justified in using a deadly weapon in defense against a person, or assemblage of persons, who are threatening or attempting to forcibly destroy the same. Therefore, in this case, if the jury find that the defendant was a keeper of such a public nuisance, and that at the time the door to his place was broken by Cora Squires and others, he knew, or had reasonable grounds to believe, that the only purpose of the persons so breaking in said door was to destroy the liquors by him so unlawfully kept in said place for sale, and to break and destroy the vessels in which the liquor was contained, and that they did not intend to do him any personal or bodily injury, then in such case the defendant had no legal right to use a deadly weapon to prevent said persons from entering said place."

This instruction of court refused to give, and instead gave the following: "In this case, the fact, if fact it is, that the defendant was a jointkeeper and his habitation a joint, if it was, and his property therein, liquor and fixtures used in disposing the same, if such is the case, can make no difference. The mere fact that some are engaged in unlawful business does not give others any lawful right to destroy the property or injure the person of those so engaged, without intervention of law."

This case was taken to the supreme court and the decision affirmed by that court, October, 1899. From the above it appears that Miss Cora Squires and other ladies of Miltonvale, and not Mrs. Nation, were the original discoverers of the "Hatchet Brigade" remedy for joints, and the question as to the rights of jointists to life and property is well settled and not in any sense new and undetermined.

How to Cure the Grip. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by Jones & Gibson.

Some who have not been actors long are still long actors.

La Grippe Quickly Cured. "In the winter of 1898 and 1899 I was taken down with a severe attack of what is called La Grippe" says F. L. Hewett, a prominent druggist of Winfield, Ill. "The only medicine I used was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It broke up the cold and stopped the coughing like magic, and I have never since been troubled with Grippe." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon to break up a severe cold and ward off any threatened attack of pneumonia. It is pleasant to take, too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations in use for these ailments. For sale by Jones & Gibson.

Empty purses are always open. Millions of people are familiar with DeWitt's Little Early Risers and those who use them find them to be famous little pills. Never gripe. Jones & Gibson.

The Best Prescription For Malaria Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—No pay.

Personal attachment is beautiful to contemplate, except when it relates to a trunk.

La grippe coughs often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have passed the danger point. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR affords positive protection and security from these coughs. Jones & Gibson and Jas. C. Ellis, Collyer.

The happiness of many a man's wife depends on the way he trims his beard.

A powerful engine cannot be run with a weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human machine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure should be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. Jones & Gibson.

An Oklahoma editor gives vent to his exuberance of feeling in the following strain: "How dear to my heart is the steady subscriber who pays in advance at the birth of the year, who lays down his money and does it quite gladly, and casts 'round the office a halo of cheer. He never says 'stop it' or 'I'm getting more sheets than I read,' but always says 'send it, my friend likes it, in fact we all think it a real household need.' How welcome he is when he steps in the sanctum. How he makes my heart throb! How he makes my heart dance! I outwardly thank him; I inwardly bless him the steady subscriber who pays in advance."

For the weakness and prostration following grippe there is nothing so prompt and effective as One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation is highly endorsed as unfailing remedy for all throat and lung troubles and its early use prevents consumption. It was made to cure quickly. Jones & Gibson.

Morton Albaugh, of the Kingman Leader-Courier, says he has had some small part in two political campaigns and is convinced that the country newspaper is the whole thing in politics. Much talk has been had, he says, about subsidizing the press, but it has never been charged that money has been used to subsidize the country newspapers. They stood, he says, for principle instead of the county printing. He thought every newspaper should line up for the party candidates, no matter what the personal preferences of the editor after a fair convention had been held. He took strong grounds against personalities in politics, which he acknowledged was the greatest industry—the one enlisting the greatest number of people—in Kansas.

Recent experiments show that all classes of food may be completely digested by a preparation called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which absolutely digests what you eat. As it is the only combination of all the natural digestants ever devised the demand for it has become enormous. It has never failed to cure the very worst cases of indigestion and it always gives instant relief. Jones & Gibson.
