The case of Katherine Power vs. Maria A. Snow, and the heirs of Maria A. Snow was appealed from the district court of this county to the supreme court of the state on March 20, 1906. It is a case in which the title of section 11, township 12, south of range 23, and situate about 2 miles east of Wa-Keeney, in this county, is in dispute.

Mrs. A. S. Peacock went to St. Margaret hospital Sunday night, and had an operation performed by Dr. J. W. Perkins on Tuesday morning for the removal of a tumor. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Ellermeier, who returned Wednesday night, reporting the patient as doing quite well that afternoon. Mrs. O. F. Steddom, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, a sister of Mrs. Peacock, is with her and will remain a few days.

German Lutheran service and Sunday school at Sunday morning at 10:30 and 11:30 o'clock, respectively. All Germans are invited to come. I will teach German school for all children that want to learn the elements of the German language on Saturday from 9:00 to 10:30 a. m., and from 1 to 2:30 p. m. Through the courtesy of the local school board the school may from now on be held at the public school building. G. M. Bunge.

Union evangelistic services are in progress at the court house, having commenced Wednesday evening by Evangelist Lovic P. Law and wife assisted by the pastors of the town. Mr. Law is a person of great personal magnetism and is certainly a leader among the people and it is hoped that through his efforts much good may be accomplished in town. Mrs. Law is a good singer as is also her husband and she assists him in the services very much. The attendance has been large and much interest thus far is manifested in the meetings. Good singing is one of the features of the service.

Mrs. G. W. Kellum had unusual success with an incubator hatching of two broods of chicks. The first 98 out of 105 came off and the second 95 out of 110. Let anybody beat this record if they can. Anyone wishing to purchase an incubator should see G. W. Kellum.

Last Thursday Mrs. G. I. Verbeck entertained all the ladies who attend the Presbyterian Aid society, it only lacking a few days of being her wedding anniversary she took this means of remembering her friends. Delicious pineapple water ice, two kinds of cake and bonbons were served. All present enjoyed this pleasant affair and all the friends of Mrs. Verbeck hope she may live to see many happy returns of the day.

Ex-Representative Alvin Law's father, of Graham county, died last Tuesday. Rev. Scott of this city went over to the Law school house on Thursday to hold the funeral service. We understand Mr. Law was an aged man and had been failing for some time. He was well liked being a kind and pleasant man to get along with. Miss Irma Law and her brother who attend school went home to be present at the funeral.

Everybody Knows Them

THERE'S NO UNCERTAINTY about the character of our farming implements. Everybody knows them and the names they bear. They come from factories whose reputation would not permit them to turn out inferior IMPLEMENTS FOR FARMERS. Have you everything you ought to have in this line? Drop in some evening and see if we can't show you something new.

A. B. JONES.
