

SOCIETY NOTES

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are giving a tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. F. Pine.

The Embroidery club met with Mrs. Cady last Friday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. Langhead and Mrs. Earl Young. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Bush in two weeks.

Mrs. J. T. Elder was the hostess for the S. S. club last Friday afternoon. The invited guests were Mesdames Watkins, Coe, Painter, English, Schall, Bascom, Davies, French, Matthews, Claude Wilkinson, Ralph Eastman and Miss Nell Wheeler. The next meeting will be on the second of April with Mrs. Gluck.

The Music club met with Mrs. Erhard Monday afternoon, March 22d for a study of Robert Schumann. Mrs. Hellwarth played: [a] "Why" [b] "Scherzina"; Mrs. Gardner sang "When Gazing in Thine Eyes". Mrs. Bowen read a biography of Schumann with twenty questions on his life answered by the different members of the club. Mrs. Barkley sang "The Walnut Tree", Mrs. Thompson played "Romance", Miss Milton sang [a] "The Lotus Flower" [b] "Thou art Lovely as a Flower". Mrs. Pine played "Nocturne", Mrs. Hubbard sang "Messages", Mrs. Erhard played "Slumber Song", Mrs. Young played "Whims" and Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Hubbard and Mrs. Bowen sang "The Gypsies". The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Thompson and the study of the music of Schumann will be continued.

A pretty Japanese party was given by Mrs. Walter Pine Wednesday afternoon at her home on Central avenue. The rooms were decorated with tiny Japanese parasols, fans, butterflies and lanterns. The upper hall, where tea and wafers were served by Mrs. Simpson, was converted into a flowery bower by the use of bright chrysanthemums, cherry blossoms and butterflies. The guests were given cards which were in handsome designs in water colors and pen work, from which they were to guess the answers to a "Floral Love Tale." Mrs. Erhard was the winner in this contest, and received the prize, a potted fern. Mrs. Hubbard, gowned in a rich kimono, and wearing chrysanthemums and fans in her hair told fortunes in the Japanese way, which was attractive and interesting as are all Japanese customs. A four course luncheon was served from small tables, decorated with ferns and very dark red carnations. The serving was done by the Misses Ruth Smith, Louis Balfour and Nell Beaubien, who wore the native Japanese costume. Mrs. Pine was also assisted by Mrs. States Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Hubbard.
