An Animal Story For Little Folks

The Discontented Lion

An old lion named Leo, who had lived in a circus tent for many years, grew very tired of the life he led and said: "Here I am caged up, with only half enough to eat, and all these strange people staring at me, and the men who run this show make all of the money and have a good time too. I'm tired of it and intend to escape at the very first opportunity, find a partner and go into business for myself."

So one morning when the animal keeper opened the barred door to feed the lion old Leo gave one spring,

HE WAS FAR OUT IN THE COUNTRY, knocked over the keeper and did not stop running until he was far out in the country, tired, thirsty and hungry. The next morning he started out to look for partners, but as soon as any of the other animals saw him they would run away in terror, never giving Leo the opportunity to tell of his wonderful plans.

After wandering about for several days without being able to find anything to eat he determined to go back to the circus, but when he reached the town the circus had left, and, as every one was afraid of Leo, some men formed a company, armed themselves and shot him on sight.

Asthma Suffers Should Know This

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 207 West Third St. Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have saved years of suffering." Woods & Orme.

How Diptheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diptheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diptheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given, it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diptheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by Woods & Orme, The Leading Drug Store in Western Kentucky.

Dear Sir:—Will say in regard to advertisement placed in your paper several weeks ago by M. C. O'Hara, that I am still at O'Hara, Ky., (commonly known as Cedar Bluff, Ky.) and intend staying here for a number of years. I am at present doing the practice for the employees of the F. W. Katterjohn Construction Company under contract, also most the practice in the surrounding country, and will also state that the practice in the surrounding country will not justify the service of another doctor.

Yours most respectfully,
Dr. J. R. JONES.

"The Old Blue Bear and the Rabbit."

An unpublished poem by Eugene Field is a rare literary treat for both old and young. The wonderful sympathy and love for his children shows strongly in these verses from the poem published in the December number of the Women's Home Companion for the first time:

A big blue Bear came up one day
And to the Rabbit's ma said he:
I've come to take your child away
To roam the fields and woods with me.

Then Rabbit's mama said, "Oh no,
You big blue Bear, you shall not take
My little Rabbit wandering so
Unless you've lots of jelly-cake."

The Bear replied, you need not fear
To let the Rabbit go with me,
For I have lots of goodies here—
As you yourself can plainly see."

And saying thus, the old blue Bear
Back from his bag the cover threw,
And mamma saw the goodies there—
The jelly-cake and candy, too.

HOGWALLOW ITEMS.

Poke Easley is cleaning off the ground in his horse lot for the construction of a pond. He will put a heavy rock foundation to it as he intends to raise some large fish next season.

A deep frost fell here this week and made the earth look very fuzzy. Tobe Moseley's rooster was caught out in it but Tobe upon the approach of the frost had presence of mind enough to hoist an umbrella over him.

Sap Spradlen has learned something else during the past few days and will have to get a larger hat.

Fit Smith is fast getting well again. On his road to recovery he will stop off at Tickville for a few days.

Possom time is here. At the big meeting Saturday the deputy constable was instructed to tie lanterns on all the possoms on Musket Ridge so that it will be no trouble to find them.

After Raz Barlow taken, Miss Gonola Henstep out driving in his car some horse hairs were seen on his coat. This looked quite suspicious as Raz drove a mule.

The sun set one hour ahead of time. Jim Flinders watch the other evening and several of our citizens were caught out in the dark without lanterns.

Fletcher Henstep has broke the record in successfully raising the smallest pumpkin. It is fully developed, having the rich, yellow color and ridges in it and is not quite as large as a buckshot. He is justly proud of it and as soon as it was full grown he hitched up his yoke of steers and hurried it to the postoffice; a corner of the room was cleared and it was put on exhibition.

The wife of Joe what's-his-name living in hollowing distance of Rye Straw is fixing to entertain with an owl social tonight in honor of her husband who has been dead for the past year.

Sid Hooks, Ellick Hellwanger and Raz Barlow took a small jag of Moonlight Reel Saturday night and took possession of a dance at the home of Luke Mathews, who lives in shooting distance of the Rye Straw grave yard. The constable was shot through the hat and had to be carried home. The Excelsior Fiddling band got excited and left the house without finishing the tune they were playing, and will play the remainder of it at beginning of the next dance.

Bat Smith is busy turning out some licker for the Christmas festivities. It will be flavored with the rippling waters of Gander Creek and will be so strong that it will warp the letters on the jug.

FREE ADVICE TO LOVERS.

No, Laura, hoops are not worn any more except on barrels.

Kind Editor Batts: I am 23 years of age and have a girl who contends that she does not love me, yet I believe she does. What would you do about it? Q. S. N.

Well, you should not attempt to marry while you are 23, that being an ill-fated numeral. You might put her to a test, however, by attempting suicide. Go to the nearest reliable drug store and purchase a pint of carbolic acid diluted with nitroglycerine and drink it on her front doorstep. If she weeps at the funeral she loved you.

Dear Editor of Hogwallow: I have had nothing to eat for six days, and have had a intense longing for something. Can you tell me what it is? After giving your case much thought perhaps you are hungry.

My finance promised to meet me at the corner in the shadow of the telephone pole last night at 7:18 o'clock. I waited until sunrise but she never showed up. Now why? Earnest Earnest.

Dear Ernest: We do not know as we haven't had a chance to see her since then.

Dear Editor I have a serious case. I met a young woman a day or two ago, since which time she has treated me coolly. This has terribly upset me and I cannot sleep at night as something keeps worrying me. An immediate answer is my wish. M.

Investigate the bed closely and if you find that it is not bugs or mosquitoes you are in love.
