DEMOCRATIC control of the next Senate seems now to be assured, though the margin will be narrow. It is a condition that need not be regretted. Entire responsibility for the conduct of the government will be upon the party in power and there will be no excuse for a failure to fulfill the promises that have been so loudly made. It cannot get behind an opposition Senate, for example, in the troublesome tariff matter, but will have to carry the full load. Being "in" instead of "out" has its drawbacks. The exercise of power is not always as easy and agreeable as it is to indulge in the protest and criticism of the minority opposition.

The democrats are now feeling comfortable about the political complexion of the U. S. Senate after March 4th. The election of John R. Shields, democrat, in Tennessee insures them forty-eight members of the new body, not taking into account Delaware, where there is a tie-up. It is the hope of the democrats eventually to elect in Delaware and get at least one Senator in Illinois, which would give them fifty. The progressive democrats are disappointed because Tennessee did not elect a man of positive progressive principles. Judge Shields is regarded as a conservative, but his friends say he may be counted on to support Wilson's policies.

The following news is from the facilities of Enoch Graham, the brilliant paragrapher of the Lexington Herald: "Hein Gould, at the age of 44, seemed in life, broadened by experience, exalted by service to her fellowmen and sympathy for the weak and the weary; with millions in her keeping and the yet greater wealth of a noble heart in her bosom, embarks in matrimony's untrod bark with the acclaim of untold thousands that every sail be blessed by the soft breeze that ever blew and every hour of the voyage be jeweled with a thousand joys."

SENATOR BOURNE, author of the Parcels Post bill, is authority for the statement that during the first fifteen days of the existence of the law (one day being a holiday, two Sundays and twelve working days), the people of the United States saved upward of half a million of dollars in using the Parcels Post service. Senator Bourne gives the figures to prove his statement.

ACCORDING to the latest reports, the suffrage parade in Washington March 24 is the newest thing to a spectator or social event that the National Capital will be able to offer, now that the inauguration ball is off the program; and there is a lot of difference between a ball and a suffrage parade.

SENATOR TYLMAN, of South Carolina, calls Gov. Blease, of his State, a "low type of man" and "the equal of Aaron Burr in hawking the people." But why should a great man like Mr. Tilmann give even a thought to such a man as Blease is daily proving himself?

The high cost of liver has knocked out two Indianapolis saloons. "Why didn't the proprietors think of substituting portebone?"

Some office seekers are likely to catch cold if President-elect Wilson continues his open-door policy in the selection of men for jobs.

WASHINGTON society is agog over the fact that Vice-President-elect and Mrs. Marshall will have a four-room suite at the Shoreham rather than occupy a magnificent home as most of the Vice-Presidents have done. Word has also gone out that they will not feature in the social realm, and that Mr. Marshall will live within his income. Hereafter the Vice-Presidents have seemingly deemed it necessary to spend most of their means as well as their time in wine and dining the social set of the Nation's capital. We are glad that Mr. Marshall will prove an honorable exception.

The automobile industry grows by leaps and bounds. In 1909 there were 67 manufacturers of them in the country. Now there are over 800, employing over 300,000 people and paying them $30,000,000 a year. The output is nearly a half million machines. The number of cars now in use is stated at 2,000,000, with a total value of $1,000,000,000. This is an average of one car for every 30 people in the United States. At this rate, Richmond people are entitled to 300 automobiles, but there are probably less than thirty owned here. We are short and probably we are the better off because of it.

The arrest of her husband by an Indianapolis woman because he took their 12-year-old son to the woodshed and trounced him for smoking cigarettes, also presumably for disobedience, for of course he had been forbidden to smoke, is carrying maternal solicitude to an extreme. Whipping may or may not have been what the youngster needed, but it does not take much of a prophet to predict that his mother's course will have a more demoralizing effect on him than a half dozen "lickings."

THERE was nothing in the party platform about the simplification of the social side of the administration at Washington, but it is, for all that, a reform that looks mighty good to the plain people of the country, who, in the past, have been made extremely weary by some official antics.

SENATOR OWEN, of Oklahoma, has issued a circular letter in which he says he will make no recommendations until every citizen has had an opportunity to make application and the record is made up.

How does it happen that until this late to name the offices they wish to "grab off"?

Listen! We are at the head of the Parade with our Good Goods.

We are going to keep at the head of the parade with our good merchandise. We long since determined to lead, by never putting a poor piece of goods in our store, and by selling the best obtainable in medium and high grade merchandise at reasonable, just prices. No one can ever lead us, because our methods can't be beat.

PARCELS Post by aeroplane has been instituted by the swearing in of an aviator for duty between Boston and New York. However, the postoffice department owns an aeroplane and it will probably be many years before the old method of mail delivery will be done away with even in small degree by the adoption of an airport. The aeroplane must prove its real worth to commerce before it will be adopted for carrying the mails. So far, in times of peace, an aid to sport and a freak to commerce.

A number of Garrard county friends came yesterday to attend the burial of Mr. Jas. B. Arnschlag, among them were Judge Walker, Dr. M. K. Denny, Messrs. S. C. Denny, J. N. Denny and Alex. K. Denny, the Messrs. Denny all being relatives of the deceased and the last two father and uncle respectively of Mr. A. R. Denny, of Keellogg & Co. of this city.

Mr. W. O. Park, formerly of this city, but now of Kansas City, Mo., sends in one dollar to renew his subscription to the Live Stock Exchange, of Kansas City, has been a reader of this paper since he left Madison county many years ago as he desires to keep up with the movements of his friends here.

Miss Mary Lynn Fox entertained the Normal School this week at Richmond. Miss Allie Hendren left Monday for the Normal School in Richmond. Miss Missa Misnera Cox and Bessie Brown left Monday to enter the Normal School in Richmond. Miss Ella Henry has returned from Richmond where she has been visiting friends and relatives. Or course the Shepard-Gould wedding was simple, with $300 worth of flowers, besides those that the bride supplied, an orchestra of forty pieces and seventy-five guests at an elaborate breakfast. It was simple, but most beautiful.

WHY not have the members of the electoral college attend the inauguration in a body and give the college vote just after the oath has been administered? Got to have something to live up to things in Washington that day.

THERE is always something doing for the moving picture men. Now, for instance, there's a prospect for war between Peru and Bolivia and even a prospect there, there ought to be a fair good film.

The great wall around China may be brought into service yet. There is a proposition to build a railway on its surface. The celestial is getting progressive.

SOUTH DAKOTA elected Thomas Sterling United States Senator from that State. Were he not a republican, he might be expected to live up to his name.

WHENEVER those amateur cabinet makers have a little spare time they put a few licks on the program of the special session of Congress that is to be.

THE packing of a New York church by striking choir singers is another of the peculiar features of our present stage of civilization.

Of course the striking New York waiters were careful not to return any of their tips.

Of interest to farmers.

The attention of the farmers of Madison county is again called to the first of a series of lectures Saturday afternoon, February 8, to be given this winter and spring, on subjects of interest to farmers, by the Farmers' Union. Prof. E. J. McKinney, of the State Agricultural College, at Lexington, will begin the series with an instructive talk on improved corn culture.

The time has long since passed when the farmer can afford the old methods of our fathers, which did very well on 300 land, but these days when good farming land is selling around $150, he is losing money who does not know the modern methods. One of the best ways to make the high-priced land pay its just per cent. of interest is to learn how to make it produce more and better corn.

Prof. Kinney's lecture on better corn is timely, as the corn planting season is upon us. The general public as well as the farmers of the county are invited to attend the lecture.

Are YOUR Kidneys Weak?

HOW TO TELL—Read the testimony and learn what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for others.

Then if your back aches, if sharp pains strike you when stooping or lifting; if you are lame in the morning, the too early; if you have dizzy spells and are nervous, despondent and inclined to worry over trifles; if the kidney secretions are highly colored and full of sediment; if passages are too frequent, scanty, painful or scalding; it is likely that your kidneys need quick relief.

Take a sample of the urine and let it stand for 24 hours. If a sandy, brick-dust like sediment settles to the bottom of the receptacle, there is evidence enough to satisfy the kindred.

THE LAW OF THE WEST

James Jennings and Miss Dena, Van Winkle, both of Berea, were united in marriage yesterday at the county clerk's office, Squire J. D. Dykes performing the ceremony.

Thursday afternoon at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. C. C. Marshall, of the Baptist church, Mr. J. Scott Pa. ka, of Red House, to Miss Lela B. Deane, of Waverly. They will reside at the home of Mr. Parker, near Red House, where Lela is a prosperous farmer.

On Monday, the 27th, in the parlors of the Seebach Hotel, Louisville, by Elder C. K. Marshall, of this city, Mr. R. Walter Cornelius and Miss Minerva Waggoner, both of Chicago. Miss Waggoner is a grandchild of Elder Marshall and the young people chose to run down to Louisville in order that the bride's grandfather might meet them and there perform the ceremony. Mr. Cornelius has held for some years a responsible position with a large wholesale steel and iron house in Chicago.

Mr. Shelby Hamilton, of this city, and Miss Ella Lang, of Dover, were married at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Wednesday afternoon last. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hamilton, a brother of the groom. The wedding was a quiet one, only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. After the ceremony, the happy couple left for a short visit to the bride's parents, at Dover, and will return to Richmond tomorrow night at 10 o'clock, to their friends in the Douglas & Simmons flats. The groom is one of Richmond's most popular young business men, being connected with the well-known firm of Hamilton Bros. The bride, who is a very attractive young lady, attended the Normal School, this city, two years ago and made many friends here, and will receive a cordial welcome to our city. The best wishes for a long and happy married life are extended Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton by a host of friends in this city and county.

Sunday's Courier-Journal has the following notice of the marriage in that city Saturday of Miss Elizabeth Taylor, daughter of Dr. T. J. Taylor, of this city:

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of this city, and Mr. Ellis Pettit Cox, of Owensboro, was quietly solemnized Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Headley, in Garvin Place.

Rev. Dr. W. Francis Irwin, pastor of the Fourth-avenue Presbyterian church, officiated. There were no attendants, the ceremony being performed in the presence of only the two immediate families.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Dr. Thomas James Taylor, of Richmond, wore a tailored gown of dark blue poplin cloth, with a hat trimmed in white bird of paradise. Her carriage bouquet was of lavender orchids and lilies of the valley.

The house was arranged with spring flowers and potted foliage.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cox left for a two weeks' wedding trip in the South, and upon their return will make their home in Owensboro with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Cox.

The Greek Dances in the entertainment for the Pottier A. Clay Infirmary will be given by one of the most attractive young women in the Blue-grass. Through a former county girl she is a granddaughter of Madison, her forebears for generations having lived here.

Notice in Regard to Price of Gas

On and after January 1, 1913, the price of gas will be as follows:

For the first 5,000 cubic feet, $1.50 per 1,000 cubic feet, less discount of 25 cents per 1,000 if paid on or before the fifteenth of the succeeding month.

For all gas used each month above 5,000 cubic feet, $1.00 per 1,000 cubic feet.

The reason for this is two-fold:

First, the Company has to furnish, maintain and read a meter for every consumer, and the absolute cost of doing this is the same whatever the amount of gas used. But the relative cost is less in proportion as the amount of gas used is greater. The Company can therefore afford to sell a greater amount of gas at a less rate than a small amount.

Second, the Company hopes that this reduction in price will lead to a greater use of gas for both domestic and commercial purposes. If it does these, this reduction will probably be followed at some future date by a still further reduction.

Gas arcs for commercial lighting will be furnished free by the Company and maintained at cost.

Gas stoves, heaters and fixtures will be sold at cost by the Company, 5.00 down and 1.00 per month. The saving to the consumer by this arrangement may be seen by the following comparison:

Detroit Ranges, No. 1812, catalog price $25.00 - Our Price $18.00
Gas Water Heaters, No. 9, catalog price $15.00 - - - - - Our Price $10.00
Reflex Gas Inverted Burners, catalog price $2.50 - - - - - Our Price $ 1.50
Bath Room Gas Heaters, catalog price $5.00 - - - - - Our Price $ 2.50

The Company cannot afford to furnish and maintain a gas meter for less than 12.00 a year. Hence consumers must pay this amount for gas per year, whether used or not, otherwise the gas will be shut off and the meter removed.
