DR. LYMAN ARBOTT, of New York, editor of the Outlook from Oyster Bay, has been summarily fired from the job of vice-president of the American Peace Society. The learned divine rubbed the Society's face the wrong way by signing the appeal of the Navy League for large naval appropriations. Apparently the members of the Society see no relation existing between a big navy and peace.

The death rate is reported to be going down, but the question is when will it vanish altogether? Mortality statistics for 1911 show the death rate to have been 14.2 per thousand of population. Surely if the rate can be reduced to 14.2 from 64 in fifty years, it is only a matter of time before we can outdo the grim old fellow of the planet altogether. We hope so, anyway.

LORAIN, O., has a butterlick saloon where large, cooling schooners of rich buttermilk is served at 5 cents each. That beverage may suit the Backeyes all right, but down in Kentucky where they take a little ice and sugar in "hiern" such an establishment would last no longer than Pat stayed in the army.

The Lexington Herald is arguing its self unknown by speaking of the editor of the Danville Messenger as "Lewis Richardson," when everybody knows, or should know, that it is Louis Landrum. But then a fellow is expected to make such blunders in a town as well as the blue-grass capital is.

The editor of the Lancaster Record made a trip to Paint Lick and was tickled to death with the delightful little place. Had he come on to Richmond, the best little city in Kentucky, there is no telling what he would have "writ" about the place and her people.

LONDON has a merry-go-round and Editor Stephenson, not the Echo, is delighted. The great and elevating play, Jesse James, will be rendered there tonight, when no doubt the editor's joy will know no bounds. Takes mighty little to make some of the rural roosters glad.

FOUR THOUSAND and seventy-two bills were introduced in the New York Legislature, which closed a few days ago. Of these Governor Sulzer has approved 442 and vetoed 15.

The Republicans can best serve their country at this time by stepping aside and letting their democratic opponents get through with the tariff.

WAKE UP! WE'RE AWAKE

RESOLVED THAT WE HAVE PREPARED FOR THIS SEASONS REQUIREMENTS. OUR NEW THINGS ARE UP WITH THE SEASON AND THE TIMES WE WANT TO BE THE FIRST TO SPRING ALL THE NEW THINGS

BEFORE ANYTHING HAS A CHANCE TO GET OUT OF DATE WE REDUCE THE PRICE AND THROW IT OFF OUR SHELVES. WE WANT TO BE UP TO DATE IN EVERYTHING. IF THERE IS ANYTHING NEW IN THE MARKET WE TRY TO HAVE IT FOR OUR PATRONS. A GREAT NEW YORK MERCHANT WAS RECENTLY QUOTED AS SAYING "HONESTY HAS NEVER GONE OUT OF FASHION AND NEVER WILL." HONESTY IS ONE THING THAT IS ALWAYS UP TO DATE AND WE DO NOT WANT TO BE OUT OF DATE. OUR STOCK AND PRICES WILL PROVE THAT.

L. Middleton states if they will try simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-Iska, the German appendicitis remedy, they will be surprised at the QUICK benefit. A SINGLE DOSE stops these troubles INSTANTLY.

Devotion.
 If you were old, then I would give my youth,
 That I might crown with you life's twilight song;

 That I might sit with you in silence long.

If you were poor, then I would give my wealth,
 That I might tread a lowly road with you;
 If you were sad, then I would give my joy,

If you were blind, then I would give my sight,
 That I might lead you into darkness might be driven;
 If you were dead, then I would give my life,

 one simple thumb-pressure fills it in 4 seconds!

—and it will not leak in the pocket or when writing—that's the "meat" of the story of Conklin's Self-Filling Fountain Pen

Here's the proposition—the Conklin Pen fills itself by dipping it in any inkwell and simply pressing the "Crescent-Filler" with your thumb—without unscrewing any parts, without any inky "dropper filler." It's a wonder pen!

RECENT encouragements are proving convincing of his sweeping victory, supported by a determined army, composed of all professions. If he was wronged before, he must be righted now! His past official record clearly defines him as one of the most satisfactory commonwealth representatives known to Kentucky courts.

The conditions that resulted in his defeat four years ago were such as to warrant his success in the present contest, and yet he proved to be one of the most effective supporters for all the nominees.
