The Bankers' Meet at Stanford.

The Bankers of Groups 8 and 11, which means those of the Eighth and Eleventh districts, met in business session at Stanford Friday, some 125 or more strong, and spent the entire day in thrashing over matters concerning the banking business. It was a most representative body of men and nearly every bank in the districts was represented. Speeches were made by many of the gentlemen, including several of the Richmond bankers, who also took a prominent part in the deliberations of that body. The ladies of the Christian church agreed to furnish dinner and refreshments and royally did they do so. The noon meal was a most elaborate one, while the refreshments at the smoker were very delightful and were elegantly served. It was the intention of the entertainment committee to take the visitors on an automobile ride through the county, but the inclemency of the weather knocked out this part of the program. The smoker at the Opera House at night was a very enjoyable feature of the meeting. Mr. Kendrick Alcorn, a prominent young attorney, acted as the toastmaster and magnificently filled the bill. There were a number who responded to toasts, including our own Mr. R. E. Turley, who covered himself with glory. Other Richmond bankers present were Messrs. Waller Bennett, Samuel P. Deatherage and G. B. Turley.

The committee on resolutions, which was composed of Mr. Waller Bennett, of the Madison National Bank, this city, Joseph Bertram, of the Monticello Banking Co., Monticello, S. R. Lynd, Citizens National Bank, Louisville, Samuel H. Nichols, Boyle Bank & Trust Co., Danville, and W. P. Walton, of the Phoenix Third National, Lexington, presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

We recognize the need of immediate changes in our banking and currency systems and call upon our law makers to enact a law which will reduce the danger of panics to the minimum and put the currency system on a sounder and safer basis.

Other resolutions thanking the bankers of Stanford for their courteous treatment and delightful entertainment of them, the ladies of the Christian church who had charge of dinner and banquet, and Stanford people generally for doing so much for their delectation, were passed.

They also declare for a closer union between the mountains and the Blue-grass section and suggest that the 8th and the 11th groups meet together next time and select some central point, easy of access to the bankers of both of the groups.

Mr. J. A. Quisenberry, cashier of the Citizens' National Bank, of Danville, was elected president for the ensuing term.

Seeks Assistant Attorneyship

Judge J. J. Greenleaf, of Richmond, is another applicant for the place of Assistant United States Attorney for the Eastern district of Kentucky, and, it is said, he has a mighty good chance of landing the appointment, being strongly backed by influential friends. Judge Greenleaf, who presides over the police court of Richmond, is one of the best-known democrats in the Eighth district. He is well known in military circles, having been at one time a Major in the Kentucky State Guard. — Louisville Times.

I Want Your Wool.

Lady's Dress Found.

Three Small Farms at Auction

If you want to buy a nice, small farm the opportunity will be given you tomorrow, Wednesday, when the splendid farm of Tevis Rayburn, on the Lancaster pike, seven miles from the city, will be sold. See advertisement for further particulars.

Three After The Place.

Representative Lewis B. Herrington, of Madison county, is in Louisville to day on business. He stopped over in Frankfort yesterday to attend a meeting of the State Geographical Survey, of which he is a member. Mr. Herrington, although solicited by friends, declined to stand for re-election to the Legislature because he could not devote the time from his business. He says there is plenty of politics in Madison county now, and three mighty good democrats in the race to succeed him as Representative. — Louisville Times.

Made a Big Purchase.

Mr. Ben F. Hurst, of the Richmond Heating & Plumbing Co., went over to Winchester one day last week and purchased the stock of pipes and fittings carried by the Eagle Casting Co., which concern will handle that class of goods no longer. He sent part of it to Pineville, where he has the heating and plumbing contract on the big Continental Hotel, which is under construction. The rest he shipped to his place of business here. The Continental Hotel, which will cost $65,000, is to be one of the handsomest in the mountains and Mr. Hurst had a large bunch to bid against for the work here.

If you want Coffee of the finest cup flavor, try our Maxwell House Blend. It will please you. D. B. McKinney. 61-tf

"Rich" on Hon. W. B. Smith

Hon. William B. Smith, of Richmond, one of the multitude who is seeking the Danville Collectorship, has a rather unique record. He has voted for the Honorable Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan five times for President and stated this morning that he hoped to vote for him again. He is a great admirer of the Secretary of State. He asked if it would be possible to have an audience with the Secretary and he was told that with the record he had it would hardly be any trouble to get to see him. His record is as follows: He voted three times at the general polls and twice he was elector and cast his vote for the Secretary in the Electoral College. He was the only man who won out in the State of Kentucky during the stormy times of 1896, and he is very proud of this fact. Though he is eighty-one years of age, he is hale and hearty and looks like he will easily live to cast that sixth vote for Mr. Bryan. — "Rich" in Danville Advocate.

Another Bumper Crop Year Indicated

It is rare that we have two bumper crops in years immediately succeeding each other, but if the government May report is to be relied upon even last year's high record will be broken. The report just issued by the Department of Agriculture shows the largest winter wheat acreage ever known in this country to be in fine condition, with an estimated excess over last year's crop of more than one hundred million bushels. The rye crop is estimated at five million bushels in excess and the new high record for hay, which was established last year, will be beaten this year, with a stock on hand at this time double as large as it was a year ago.

Nature seems to be smiling its broadest smile upon us, and unless something untoward happens prosperity will continue and increase. The Republicans have all along been claiming the credit for the good crops. It seems that they are to continue even under Democratic rule. To move this bumper crop will take more money than can be supplied under present conditions. The strain last Fall was almost greater than the country could bear. Thus forewarned Congress should get busy and give the country a banking and currency system that can withstand such strains, and not permit the basic wealth of the country to become a menace, as it does under the present system. — W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald.

Antionette Stockton Hamilton Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Hamilton have been called upon to give up their baby — nine months old Antionette Stockton, Saturday. The end came suddenly and without warning. Little Antionette had never been strong, but was not considered dangerously ill when her father left the home for his store that morning. A short while after his arrival he was phoned that she was breathing her last. The shock was a terrific one to Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and in their great grief they have the unbounded sympathy of every heart in Richmond. May He Who tempers the wind to the storm lamb comfort them in their distress and give them strength in this dark hour. At 2:30 Sunday afternoon the little body was laid to rest in Richmond Cemetery. Dr. G. W. Crutchfield made timely remarks at the grave and an appropriate song was sung by Messrs. W. L. Arnold and Curtis Adams and Mrs. I. C. Ballard and Willie Traynor. The grave was hidden underneath beautiful flowers brought by loving friends.

Your Chance to Buy a Small Farm.

On tomorrow, Wednesday, on the premises, seven miles from this city on the Lancaster pike, Harris & Speakes, the Paris real estate men and auctioneers, will sell the farm of Tevis Rayburn, which can be divided into three small and very desirable farms. On another page a drawing of the farm is printed and a description of the land is given. If this does not explain the matter clearly to you, call on either L. M. Scrivner or H. C. James, who will take pleasure in giving you further details.

WHY

Has the Hustling Cash Store sold so many more goods so far this season than ever before?

Why have Hamilton Bros. at such an early date, had to search the markets for an almost new stock of spring merchandise?

Why do we buy these goods always at bottom prices?

BECAUSE

Because we sell for cash and can, of course, pay cash. And by paying spot cash we can get the lowest possible market price

Because we are satisfied with a reasonable profit and MAKE GOOD what we say about every article sold

Because we buy often and keep our stock fresh and new, and extend a courteous invitation and cordial welcome to each and every patron. Therefore
