Foley Kidney Pills do not contain habit forming drugs and are tonic in acting, quick in results. They will help any case of kidney trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. "From Sheep to Weaver."

The picture film, "From Sheep to Weaver," shown at the opera house Saturday night at the instance of J. S. Stanford, proprietor of The Royal, was greatly enjoyed. It showed, as its name indicates, every phase of the wool from the time it is cut from the sheep until it is made into some of the splendid clothes Mr. Stanford sells.

To The Voters of Madison County.

On account of the disease which has caused the death of a number of horses in Richmond, I have deemed it best, not to go into the country to see the voters, fearing that I might be instrumental in spreading it. I make this public that my friends and the voters of the county generally may know why I have not been among them. As soon as the disease is stopped or runs its course, I hope to be with them again. Thanking them for their assurance of support and asking that they do in my behalf whatever they can, I am at their command and with best wishes,
Very truly,
A. D. MILLER.

Commencement Week at Eastern Normal.

This is commencement week at Eastern Normal and there is something of interest going on each day. Sunday evening in the Chapel Dr. H. N. Quisenberry preached a splendid commencement sermon which was listened to by a very large crowd. Yesterday was class and field day, when an interested crowd took advantage of the occasion. Mr. Crawford won the broad jump as well as the standing high jump. Ad Thomas won the running broad jump with Mr. Stevenson second. Prof. Keith the shot put, with Ben Bryant second and Mr. Crawford was victor in the hammer throw, while Miss Scoville won in the girls' potato race and Miss Dorothy Flemming came second. Prof. Johnson carried off the laurels in chinning the bar. In the all up relay, the juniors defeated the seniors, the juniors beat the sophomores at ball and in turn the seniors defeated the juniors.

Last night the High school Junior and Senior reception was given and it proved most enjoyable. This morning presentation of Elementary certificates was made and this evening the commencement play will be given in the auditorium. Following is the program for balance of the week:

Successful Term Ended.

The commencement exercises of Caldwell High School Friday evening marked the ending of another successful year at that well known and popular institution of learning. The large auditorium was packed to the guards when the seventeen graduates received their diplomas, which were awarded by Prof. M. L. Caneer, who made a timely talk in doing so. The address to the graduates was made by Prof. T. J. Coates, present State Supervisor of Rural Schools but who was superintendent of Caldwell High School for several years. His remarks were in accord with his usual utterances—interesting and full of good thought. During the evening the High School orchestra dispensed delightful music. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with rare flowers and palms and the scene was as pretty as it was inspiring. The graduates received a great many presents, one fortunate young lady being remembered by nearly a hundred of her friends. Following are the graduates: G. C. Bradley, Hugh Gibson Culton, James Samuel Daley, Edgar Shirley Gunn, Leuben Pearlman, Elizabeth Miller Blanton, Josephine Elie Chenuit, Ross Dobrowsky, Harry Wood Hugueley, Sarah Julia Jones, Mary Lewis Martin, Anna Geneva McCarthy, Jane Vivian Rice, Stella Burman Taylor, Mary Josephine Terrill, Ellen Walker, Ruby Powell Willoughby.

Dr. John Cook Here.

Dr. John Cook, the well-known Stanford veterinarian, is here vaccinating horses as a preventive of the disease that has caused the death of some six or eight of them here. Dr. Cook has been very successful in the treatment of horses and stands well as a veterinarian in his home town. He says the disease that has been called black tongue is nothing more nor less than catarrhal fever.

Tilford Jones' Picture.

The Louisville Times Saturday contained a very good picture of Tilford Jones, who managed the ball team here last year and who is now playing the dual role of outfielding and coaching for the Columbus, Ohio, team and running for the republican nomination for sheriff in Laurel county. He is said to be making good on the ball field and reports come that he stands a good show of getting the republican nomination for the office of high sheriff of his home county. Jones is an enthusiastic ball player and is proving himself a pretty fair politician.

Odd Fellows Hold Impressive Memorial Services.

The Memorial Services by the Odd Fellows at the Grand Opera House Sunday afternoon were both impressive and pretty. The large building was well filled with Odd Fellows and others who enjoyed the interesting program to the fullest. The opera house orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Al Poeling, discoursed soul-stirring music and Miss Maude Wilson rendered a vocal solo in a very charming manner. The address of the occasion was delivered by Hon. J. Curtis Renfro, of Louisville. He told of the many good features of the great order of Odd Fellows, the good its members are doing and believed as many do, that the world is made far better by the uplift and general work of fraternal orders. Mr. Renfro is a fine speaker and his efforts were greatly appreciated and enjoyed. After the ceremonies were concluded the 100 or more Odd Fellows present and many of their guests of the afternoon marched to the cemetery to the step of good music made by the Richmond Brass Band and laid flowers on the graves of their departed brothers. Mr. Renfro made a brief talk there. Mr. John M. Noland made a happy speech in introducing Mr. Renfro at the opera house and Mr. C. C. Wallace was master of ceremonies. Hon. L. B. Herrington, who was on the program for an address, was unable to fill his engagement.

Robert Fletcher Loses Little Child.

Oldham & Lackey sent a coffin to Red House yesterday for the two-year-old child of Robert Fletcher. We were unable to get the particulars of its death.

Good Show at Opera House.

In street parlance, that is a crack-jack show Manager Baxter has on at the opera house. "The District Leader" is an exceedingly interesting story and it is well told in word and song by the members of the company presenting it. There are some pretty girls and several excellent voices in the chorus and the work of most of the members of the company is highly creditable. The District Leader will be produced again tonight and besides, two reels of pictures will be shown. The prices are 10, 20 and 30 cents; a bargain indeed.
