Preaching At Concord.
Rev. P. Cassidy, of Lexington, will preach at Concord next Saturday night and at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. A full attendance of the membership is desired and an invitation is extended to the public generally.

Sale Postponed.
The lot sale of T. K. Hamilton on Saturday last was knocked into a cocked hat by the storm which occurred just at the time the sale was to begin. He declared the sale off for that day, but will have it on Saturday week, Aug. 9th.

Home-Grown Melons.
Home-grown watermelons were on the market this morning for the first time. Richmond people have been enjoying those shipped in from the South for several months, but they don't compare to those grown on Madison soil.

Struck by Lightning And Destroyed.

The general store of James Butler, at Coates, this county, was struck by lightning and burned Sunday. Most of the contents were consumed. The loss is between $3,000 and $4,000.

Rev. Brookshire Dead.
Rev. Clay Brookshire, aged 70, and a well-known preacher, died at Berea Friday and his remains were shipped to Glasgow for interment. He had spent a long and useful life in the Master's vineyard and many souls had been led to Christ by his sound, earnest preaching.

At The Alhambra.
The Home of Perfect Pictures—Tuesday, July 30th.—Leah Baird and Teft Johnson in "The Vampire of The Desert," a Vitagraph, two-reel feature, the story of a beautiful and bewitching sorceress. Her insatiable desire for conquest proves to be her undoing. A powerful and marvelous drama. 86-2t

Dunn-Mason.
William Hockaday Dunn, a prominent young farmer of the Duncan section of the county, and Miss Pearl Mason, an exceedingly pretty and popular young lady of the same neighborhood, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock today. They have many friends here and elsewhere who are showering congratulations and best wishes upon them and in this the Climax takes pleasure in joining.

Building in Burnamwood.
George H. Myers, who has built a number of houses in this city, has laid the foundation for a pretty home on the lot he bought in Burnamwood at the recent sale. He showed us yesterday the plans and specifications. It will not be very large, but what it lacks in size will be made up for in convenience and lightness. It will be two-story frame. Mr. P. M. Pope tells us that he will build on one of his lots this fall and D. A. McCard will more than likely erect a residence or two in that pretty part of the city.

I do not claim to be a better Democrat nor a better man than my opponents, but I claim that I will try as hard, if not harder than any of them to give a good, clean, sober administration as Sheriff of Madison county if you will honor me with the nomination and election. 81 2c Elmer Deatherage.

Here To Vote.

Mr. J. T. Berry is over from Lexington for a week or so and everybody is glad to see the splendid old gentleman in town again. Since he was here some two months ago he has suffered the loss of his good wife, with whom he lived most happily for over 58 years and who was a helpmeet in all the world means. He has also had a severe spell, but is about himself again. "I am here to vote," he said as he entered the Climax office yesterday. "Are you a Progressive," we asked. "No, indeed," was his response. "I have been voting the Democratic ticket for over 61 years and I propose to continue to do so long as I am permitted to remain here. Too old to change now, and I don't want to any way. The Democratic party is good enough for me," he continued. Mr. Berry has been assessing Richmond almost as long as he has been voting and he probably knows as much if not more about the financial condition of the good city than any other person here or hereabout.

A Fair Proposition From Mr. Collins.

I am making the race for the nomination for County Attorney not for my personal glory or honor nor for my personal benefit or gain, but solely in the interest of the Farmers of Madison county. If I did not know that I could be of great benefit to the farmers of this county I would not want the office of County Attorney. If I am elected I will, with the assistance of your Fiscal Court, put in this county an expert farmer, a man who can examine your soil and tell what crops it will produce best, how to cultivate your land and what kind of fertilizer to use on it. I believe that if the farmers knew just how to cultivate their land, their drought would not have any effect on your corn crop. If that is true, and I can convince any reasonable man that it is, an expert farmer would be worth $100,000 per year to this county in the crops alone. I believe that I can help to put farming on a scientific basis. You farmers pay the tax and are entitled to the best, why not have it? If you will give me your support and you feel at any time that I have not been worth more to you than any County Attorney you ever had, tell me so and I will very cheerfully return my salary to the county. I make this statement because, I am not working for the salary but for the purpose of trying to lift the farmers out of an old rut and make Madison county one of the best agricultural counties in Kentucky. Will you farmers help to do it, if so come out on the right side August 2. Yours truly, T. H. COLLINS.
