

That Jolly Old Face

That open, hearty, beaming countenance of the old "Xmas Angel" and "General Provider" is the surest sign of the arrival of the festive season, and accompanying plethora of good things. You will find our store has a "Christmassy" look, and that a Christmassy air pervades every part of it. We have just as much cheer to offer you as Old Santa, too, but in a different line. We are offering bargains at unheard of prices

Under the caption "Citizenship vs. Party Regularity," the Elizabethtown News says:

Judge Benton delivered another charge to the Clark county grand jury at Winchester which abounded in courage, patriotism and good sense. He again scored corrupt practices in elections and took occasion to reply to some who are criticizing his radical course. Saying that it had been charged by some that he was not a good Democrat, Judge Benton cited the National Democratic platform, the State Democratic platform and the Clark County Democratic committee each had gone on record as favoring clean elections. The Judge then struck the keynote when he said "That if for matter ever comes to a question of being a good Democrat or being a good citizen I shall choose good citizenship." This is the kind of courage that wins, and it is from the kind of a man that is a force on the bench. Doubtless the corrupt politicians, hiding under the cloak of party regularity, thought they could check Judge Benton's efforts at clean elections by casting aspersions upon his democracy, but these unthoughtful individuals are now fully answered and for all time to come. The one hundred years of existence of the Democratic party is enough evidence of the fact that it stands committed to the purity of the ballot. Judge Benton challenged no party principle or equivocates no party loyalty in his effort to reform the ballot. If it wasn't for his type of men in the Democratic party, there would be a general disintegration of the party. But if the test ever should come between loyalty to party and loyalty to citizenship, there are thousands like Judge Benton who would properly forsake the party and leave their citizenship unsullied. It is a knowledge of this fact that sustains the party and makes it a force in the nation. It is the men who will not follow the party in disgrace and shame that keep the party out of disgrace and shame.

The first issue of the Wilmore Enterprise has reached this office and is a very creditable paper. Mr. J. L. Sowers, formerly editor of the Valley View Argon, is associated with Messrs. Fitzhugh and May in the publication of the Enterprise, which will appear weekly in an eight-page form. The initial number is filled with spic editorials, together with all the local happenings of Wilmore and vicinity. Mr. Sowers is a splendid newspaper man and if the citizens of that little city will rally to his support, the success of the Enterprise is assured.

The Postoffice Department Friday detailed a corps of inspectors to make a whirlwind trip through Kentucky to investigate charges that have been filed against 125 4th-class postmasters. It instructed its secret agents to perform this task within a fortnight and to submit their reports to Washington as soon as possible.
