How to Detect the Alum Baking Powder

"Which are the alum baking powders; how can I avoid them unless they are named?" asks a housekeeper.

Here is one way: take the can of a low-priced powder in your hand and read the ingredient clause upon the back label. The law requires that if the powder contains alum, that fact must be there stated. If you find one of the ingredients named alum, or sulphate of aluminum, you have found an alum baking powder.

There is another and a better way. You don't have to know the names of the alum powders. Use Royal Baking Powder only; that assures you a cream of tartar powder, and the purest and most healthful baking powder beyond question.

"JOSEPH AND HIS BRETHREN"
At The Lexington Opera House.

By far the biggest thing which comes to Lexington will be the splendid pageant drama, "Joseph and His Brethren" at the Lexington Opera House for three nights, April 13, 14 and 15, with matinee Wednesday 15th.

This marvelous production is the third and greatest of the colossal Liebler Company's spectacles from the Century Theatre, New York, the companion play to "The Garden of Allah" and "The Daughter of Heaven."

"Joseph and His Brethren" is universally conceded to be the most magnificent theatrical show given in America. In London it is now being done by an English company headed by Sir Beer-bohm Tree and Miss Maxine Elliott, but next week Lexington gets the original New York production with its world of scenery and effects and the same superb cast of principals which played the piece there all last winter. There are four acts, eleven massive scenes, and a small army of two hundred and fifty people concerned in the play. Brandon Tynan plays Jacob; that splendid stage veteran, James O'Neill, Joseph; and the most beautiful woman on the American stage, Pauline Frederick, the role of Potiphar's wife. Other notable actors in the cast are W. T. Carleton, Henry Harmon, Charles D. Herman, Rosina Henley, dramatist E. E. Rose's clever daughter, Ruth Rose, and five score more of the favorites who delighted New York audiences for six months.

The story is told in the sonorous classical English of the Bible itself. The author is Louis N. Parker, the most famous playwright of the present day, who has given the contemporary stage John Drew's "Rosemary," George Arliss' "Disraeli," "Pomander Walk," "Drake," etc. The scenery is beyond all description. So massive, beautiful and intricate is it that a force of one hundred men are necessary for its handling. There are herds of camels, oxen, asses, goats, horses and sheep. There is a ballet corps of twenty-four dancers in the wonderful palace scene in Pharaoh's court. In a word, "Joseph and His Brethren" is the last word in stagecraft and spectacular drama. During its engagement here the evening performance will begin at 8 o'clock sharp, and the matinees at 2 p. m. Seats may be ordered by mail if remittance is enclosed, together with a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Prices 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. CHAS. SCOTT, Manager.

An Alarm Clock Servant

A resident of California has rigged up an alarm clock so that it calls him at the proper time in the morning, lights a lamp in his bedroom so he can see to dress and at the same time starts breakfast.

When the alarm clock sounds its early morning call, it throws a switch located at the back of the clock cabinet connecting four electric circuits. One of these circuits lights a small lamp which effectively illuminates the bedroom. To the other circuits are connected toaster, coffee percolator and electric grill. Coffee and water are put in the percolator the night before, and the bread arranged in the toaster and the bacon placed on the grill. By the time the owner is dressed breakfast is ready.

Your Hair Needs Parisian Sage
It Quickly Removes Dandruff

Just because your hair is full of dandruff, thin, streaky, dull and never will do up to look pretty, do not despair. Beautiful hair, thick, fluffy, lustrous and absolutely free from dandruff is only a matter of care.

Parisian Sage frequently applied will work wonders. Just one application stops itching head, removes dandruff and all excessive oil. It goes right to the hair roots and furnishes the nourishment needed—the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life.

Parisian Sage not only saves the hair, but stimulates it to grow long and heavy. Get a 50 cent bottle from H. L. Perry's Drug Store at once. There is no other "Just as good."

Hon. R. Tate Irvine for Congress.

Hon. R. Tate Irvine, a student some years ago at Central University, this city, now a leading attorney of Big Stone Gap, Va., has been nominated for Congress to succeed the present incumbent, Hon. C. Bascomb Slem, Republican. Mr. Irvine has many friends here who wish him success, and believe he can be elected despite the fact that his district is strongly Republican. Mr. Irvine is a fine lawyer and a man of commanding personality, as well as high-toned gentleman.

Lancaster Merchant Assigns.

H. T. Logan, of Lancaster, filed a deed of assignment last week for the benefit of his creditors, naming the Garrard Bank & Trust Company as assignee. He conducted a men's furnishings and shoe store. Bad collections are given as the cause of the assignment. Mr. Logan served for two years as Mayor of Lancaster, retiring on January 1.

SEEN IN THE SOUTH.
New Day Dawning Below Mason and Dixon Line.

(New York World)

If anybody ever wants to fight a third battle of Bull Run, the trip from Washington to Manassas Junction can be made by trolley. Bull Run was bubbling even with its banks from the spring floods. A small stream with great fame. Alexandria, where George Washington went to church, is getting out of its decay and becoming a smart suburb of Washington. New houses in new districts hide the ancient town.

The peaks behind Thomas F. Ryan's Virginia country-seat were white with snow yesterday morning. The drifts were still deep in the woods. The South has had a long winter.

The Confederate monument at Manassas is the ugliest ever. It seems rough to live and die for such a memorial.

Georgia is reveling in the illicit joys of a state-wide Prohibition law. The clubs thrive for the privileged, and "near-beer" is retailed to soothe the populace. Jacksonville, handily situated near the Georgia border of Florida, holds out a comforting, if uncertain, hand. It has taken over the "last Georgia Sunshine Whisky" that will ever be offered for sale, and tenders the limited remainder to Atlanta, 12 full quarts for $10.50.

The mule continues to be the South's most industrious denizen. Atlanta is a mule center. The mule buyers support a big hotel at the stock yards.

Galfney is the name of an important station on the Southern Road in South Carolina. Suggested thoughts of home and Jim.

Atlanta is in a county with 300 miles of good roads that are really good. Six hundred State convicts built.

The Southern cities are all stretching their joints. Birmingham thinks it is to become a 500,000 town, and Jacksonville is planning for the same dimensions. Alexandria advertises six railroads and five steamship lines.

Attention, Subscribers!

Most readers of newspapers and many publishers are not familiar with the laws governing subscriptions. Here are the decisions of the United States court on the subject. They will be interesting to publishers and many will undoubtedly be glad of the opportunity to print them for the benefit of delinquent subscribers:

"Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.

"If the subscribers order a discontinuance of their publication, the publisher may continue to send them until all dues are paid.

"If the subscriber refuses to take periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, he is responsible until he has settled his bill and ordered the paper discontinued.

"If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to former address, the subscriber is held responsible.

"The courts have held that refusing to take periodicals from the postoffice or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud.

"If any subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the subscriber is responsible until express notice with payment of all arrearage is sent to the publisher."

Conference Call To Kentucky Ministers.

A call to ministers of Kentucky to attend a conference on rural church problems in connection with the Southern Educational Conferences to be held in Louisville next month, was issued Tuesday by the Kentucky Committee appointed by A. G. Borland, general secretary of the movement. Signed by the twenty-two members who are prominent throughout the State, it follows:

"To the Ministers of Kentucky in connection with the great rural life conference to be held in Louisville, April 7 to 10, there will be a conference on the rural church problems. This conference will be held in the Methodist Temple, Sixth street and Broadway, Louisville, and will be in the nature of an informal discussion of the important problems confronting the country churches. Men who have made a special study of certain aspects of the country church will be present to give the benefit of their counsel and information. President D. H. Hill, of the North Carolina College of Agriculture, will discuss the pastor's relation to agriculture. The Rev. J. J. Cole, of Jeffersontown, Ky., who has been especially successful in developing a country Sunday school, will preside at the sessions devoted to the consideration of the Sunday school as a vital force in the community. Prof. C. S. Gardner, of the Southern Baptist Seminary, is expected to preside over the session devoted to considering the best methods of developing intellectual and moral life. The closing session will be a symposium of conclusions as formative of a practical program for making the rural church a greater factor in country life development. The railroads have granted a rate of one fare plus 25 cents. Every rural pastor who can possibly do so ought to attend this conference."
