FREEDOM FOR IRELAND.

Throughout the world there is rejoicing that a treaty has been signed by the Sinn Fein and British Cabinet which grants freedom to Ireland and raises her to the status of a Free State.

WORLD PEACE.

The Catholics of America are intensely desirous of peace and a happy issue to the disarmament conference. The idea of disarmament originated with Pope Leo XIII.

"It seems to me an obvious truth that the ambition to have the largest army or the most powerful navy is one of the most unholy of all national ideals.

SHOULD BE REPAYED.

The disarmament gathering in Washington appears to be headed to one objective as far as we are concerned, which Father Dooley tersely describes as: "Cancel the foreign loans and throw your arms away."

PECULIAR REASONING.

What is the difference between a League of Nations and an Association of Nations? Does not league presume association, and is not association the framework of league?

the case if we had an organized public opinion. Our people can be trusted to do the right thing in a crisis, but unfortunately they have neglected the means of checking up the work of their public servants as well as of compelling them to obey their mandate, delivered at the polls.

AMERICAN EXAMPLE.

The greatest honor that can be paid ex-Marine William A. Redd, Jr., for his heroic act in saving a train from being wrecked during the flood at San Antonio, will be in making known to all his display of American bravery and manhood.

ORANGE BLUFF.

VINCENIAN QUARTERLY.

SHOW THREE DAYS.

The newest and best production of the Catholic Art Association, "The Blasphemer," will be presented December 10, 11 and 12, with a matinee every afternoon.

KING GEORGE HAPPY.

King George telegraphed Prime Minister David Lloyd George Tuesday afternoon the royal congratulations on the reaching of the Irish agreement. The message read: "I am overjoyed to hear the splendid news you have just sent me. I congratulate you with all my heart on the successful termination of these difficult and protracted negotiations, which is due to the patience and conciliatory spirit which you have shown throughout, and I am indeed happy in some small way to have contributed by my speech in Belfast to this great achievement."

Driver, of Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, the dye and cleaning business of H. A. J. Puls, now being carried on and conducted by the said Puls at No. 426 South Fifth street, in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, its good will, name, the lease of said premises at No. 426 South Fifth street, in said city, county and State, and all my rights, title or interest in or to every tangible or intangible thing or property now upon said premises or in any way belonging to, pertaining to or connected with the said business, the books of the business and all notes or accounts unpaid as of April 1, 1915, together with all of the following enumerated and listed articles of personal property now on said premises or belonging thereon or to the said business conducted as aforesaid at No. 426 South Fifth street, in said city, county and State.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, as of and from April 1, 1915, all and each of the above bargained, sold and delivered rights, titles and interest to the said H. B. Driver, his executors, personal representatives and assigns forever.

And I, the said H. A. J. Puls, do further covenant with the said H. B. Driver, that there is now no mortgage, lien or encumbrance on any of said property or business or interest, and that I, H. A. J. Puls, will not for a period of ten years, engage in or be connected directly or indirectly, with any business competing with the business herein sold to H. B. Driver, conducted by the said Driver or by the corporation herein referred to.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this first day of April, 1915.

H. A. J. PULS. Witnesses: Arthur M. Wallace, R. G. Fritts.

Our business has been very successful since I purchased the interest of H. A. J. Puls, April 1, 1915. At that time it was a very small business, doing under $200 business during the week ending April 10, 1915, but with hard work and sound business methods we have built up a wonderful trade, independent of any association or combine, and our business for the week ending April 9, 1921, has increased 500% over the business for the week of April 10, 1915. We have enlarged our place of business at 421 WEST CHESTNUT STREET, and on May 23, 1921, we purchased the plant and assets of the Economy Cleaning Co., which is one of the most up-to-date dry cleaning plants in the city.
