

THE CLIMAX

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1888. Day a ticket to the "Boston Stars" for tomorrow night. John Robinson's circus will be here on Saturday October 27th.

The "Old Sarant." The Elizabethtown News is responsible for the following: "Quite a constellation was created at a colored burial here recently. One of the female mourners cried out in a loud voice: 'If she had done anything wrong for the devil, to come and take her at once. Hardly had her voice died away when a snake crawled up behind her. The very sight of the "sarant" impressed the woman that the devil had come for her "shoo" and she immediately hustled."

New Papers. The Harbin County Independent is the name of a new paper which has made its appearance upon our table. It is owned and edited by Mr. Thos. L. Stovall, of Elizabethtown, who is one of the youngest editors in the State, and we are quite sure he is the smallest in size. He is barely twenty-one years of age and very low in stature. But to read his paper one is compelled to acknowledge that if he is little, he is "loud," and we are sure his influence will be felt in the section of country he represents. The paper is well printed and has a liberal and national news. We wish for our new brother a brilliant future. There is also a Republican paper, Welcome Tidings, issued at Elizabethtown, and these two with the News, make three papers for Elizabethtown, with a population of 3,500 people.

Religious. Alden's Illustrated Weekly Magazine, Literature, is one of the most interesting and instructive periodicals of the day. In its plan of giving illustrated biographical and critical studies of popular authors, recent issues have been devoted to Gifford, the historian and statesman; Paul Hamilton Hayne, the brilliant southern poet; Ralph Waldo Emerson philosopher, transcendentalist; and Wm. M. Thackeray, novelist and humorist. Each subject is well presented in a biographical and critical sketch followed by copious character sketches selections from his works. $1.00 a year; specimen free. John B. Alden, Publisher, New York, Chicago, Atlanta, and San Francisco.

Water-Works. The plans and specifications for the water-works have been received from the architect and copies have been sent to leading contractors in the United States. A copy may be found at the Second National Bank of this city. Any one desiring to put in a bid will please call there. All bidders are required to deposit a certified check for $100 as evidence of their good faith in bidding. A further bond of $50,000 will be required of the successful bidder.

Wanted. A responsible business man or some young man to take the agency of a large steam laundry in Dayton, O. A good per cent paid to an industrious man. Agents outfit furnished free. Address, Jas. F. Feeney, Electric Steam Laundry, Dayton, O.

Manifold Cyclopaedia-Eighth Volume. The eighth volume of Alden's Manifold Cyclopaedia extends from Ceylon to Club-Foot, and is fully equal to its predecessors--its handsome type, numerous illustrations, handy form, neat, substantial binding, and more than all, its skillful editing, which brings within such convenient limits such a vast amount of knowledge, so well adapted to popular need, as a satisfaction and a delight to students. It is only in its marvellously low price, but in every other respect, it is far better than any other cyclopaedia suited for use in the homes of the masses, and in our public libraries. A special volume, to be returned if not wanted, may be had in cloth binding for 50 cents, or in half Morocco for 65 cents; postage prepaid. Address John B. Alden, Publisher, New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Ga., or San Francisco, Cal.

Matrimonial. Rev. Harry G. Henderson, of Versailles, formerly pastor of the Methodist church of this place, will wed Miss Casselino, of Eminence, on the 20th of October--Georgetown Times.

Personal. Mr. W. Turner is in St. Louis visiting friends. Mr. M. H. Harber of Lilly Mines has been visiting here for several days. Mr. John B. Chennault is quite sick with fever at his home near Richmond.

Deaths. At his home in this place, on Wednesday, October 3rd, 1888, Wm. Paulino, aged 75 years. Died, Oct. 24, 1888, Robert Milton, son of C. L. and Mollie Searey, of Waoo, Ky., aged 3 months and eight days.
