You are looking for the best medium through which to reach the people. You will find that medium in the Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Senator Walthall, of Mississippi, has written a letter declining a reelection to the U. S. Senate.

The failure of the packed jury in the Hennessy murder case at N. O. to bring in a verdict of guilty against the Italians on trial there, so exasperated the people that on Saturday morning a mob went to the parish prison, broke in the doors and shot to death and hanged eleven of the prisoners charged with the murder of Chief Hennessy.

ATTENTION, F. & L. U.

The F. & L. U. Legislative Convention will meet at Camargo, Montgomery county, on the first Saturday in April at 9 a. m. The Montgomery County Union will meet at the same time and place. A full representation is desired.

The Courier-Journal has heretofore been inclined to allow the Con-Con. to pursue the even tenor of its way with only now and then a not unfriendly criticism on its action.

The Constitutional Convention on Friday reversed its action of a short time since, abolishing the office of District Commonwealth's Attorney and elevating the County Attorney to the office of Public Prosecutor before the Criminal Courts.

Dr. Clardy, whose announcement was found in our columns yesterday, met many farmers, and his genial, pleasant manner, won them on every side.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Sharpburg, Ky. Mrs. B. F. Dorsey, of Mt. Sterling, has returned home after a several days' visit to our town.

Camargo. Miss Hattie Peck and Mrs. Mattie Emmons are quite sick with measles.

J. T. Ricketts had quite a fall from his horse last week, but sustained no serious injuries.

Amos Turley, who has been under the weather for the past few days, is able to be out again.

Wm. Wyatt has rented the Adams place for the ensuing year for $150.

A call meeting of Greenbriar Lodge F. & L. U., is desired for Friday, March 20. Important business. A full attendance is earnestly asked.

J. N. Reid has been laid up with rheumatism for the last few days, but is able to be out again.

G. W. Sewell is the happy father of a young blacksmith.

Hiram Myers sold his pony to Sam. Siedl for $45.

Messrs. Peter and Sam. Greenwade returned from Frenchburg Thursday, where they went on a business trip.

Mrs. Jas. Cochran is confined to the house on account of sickness.

HORSE AND TRACK.

Axtell's baby brother will be named Drexell.

Suisun, 2:18 1/2, will be campaigned this season.

The total number of pacers in the 2:30 list is 1,243.

Geers will reach Buffalo early in June with his stable.

Mattie H., 2:24 1/2, will be put in Crit Davis' hands this season.

The filly by Stamboul, 2:11, out of Trinket 2:14, has been named in the Charter Oak Futurity Stake.

J. E. Clay, of Marchmont Stud, Bourbon county, Ky., has sold a filly by Cyclone, out of the dam of Gillette, to J. W. Fitzgerald, Mayville, Ky., for $2,000.

Miss Russell (dam of Maud S. and Nutwood) and Russia, 2:28, (own sister to Maud S.), together with Hourri, 2:17, and Amy Lee, 2:17 1/2, have arrived at Warren Park Farm to be bred to Axtell.

F. C. Barrow, of Chicago, has purchased from Reed & Lake, of Bloomington, Ill., for $8,000, the brown pacer stallion Prince Hal, 2:16 1/2, by Brown Hal, 2:12 1/2, dam Loua, by Prince Pulaski.

John Donovan, St. Joseph, Mo., has purchased from J. E. Madden, Lexington, Ky., for $3,000, the five-year-old bay stallion Clark Street 9197, by Red Wilkes, dam La Hunter, by Jim Monroe; second dam Hannah C, by Blue Bull. Mr. Madden paid $1,700 for him at the recent Brassfield sale.

Kate, the dam of Homestake 2:14 1/2, and Judge Salisbury, was a very fast mare, but so rattle-headed that she was useless for racing purposes.

Location has apparently very little to do with the success of a truly great stallion. In the past few years mares have been shipped from the Atlantic seaboard to the station that won honors on the Pacific coast, and now all sections are contributing to the books of Axtell and Allerton.

An illustration of the increased value of some trotting mares from year to year is to be seen in the sale of Clara C., a daughter of Dictator and Joy, by George Wilkes, at the recent offering of W. R. Brasfield & Co., she selling for $4,050, while at the same sale a year ago she only brought $2,650.

M. E. McHenry, Geneseo, Ill., has sold to H. M. Atkinson, Wabash, Ind., a two-year-old bay colt by Mambrino Russell, dam Profile, by Strathmore; second dam serene, by Sentinel; third dam Twilight, by Mambrino Pilot.

Stout Bros. are gathering up Nutwood's get and will endeavor to give him a tremendous showing in the 2:30 list of 1891. They will do their utmost to place his name first, but at the same time it can be anticipated that J. G. Davis will not be idle with the Alcantaras, although his goal in 1891 is the 2:30 list. He is aiming for faster game, as it were, and expects to put eight or nine in the select circle sheltered by the teens before he eats his next Thanksgiving turkey.

"It is just a little singular," writes George Morgan, of the Review, "that at Ash Grove, the home of George Wilkes, there should be bred the two fastest get of his sons. Axtell, three-year-old record 2:12, and Allerton, four-year-old record 2:13 1/2, are the fastest of the grandsons of George Wilkes, and are by Jay Bird and William L., both of which are owned at Ash Grove."

Up to Wednesday morning nine hundred and seventeen entries had been received for the $25,000 Guaranteed Futurity Stake of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association. Only two California Bred stallions had been heard from, when it was

TESTIMONIALS.

BEATS THE OLIVER CHILLED. This is to certify that I bought a Vulcan Chilled plow from Ed. Mitchell and tried it by the side of the Oliver Chilled and consider it a superior plow both as to working qualities and lightness of draft.

THE RESULT OF OFFERING THIS BIG STAKE shows that breeders will not only support stakes with reasonable conditions, but will do so in a liberal manner.

THE SALE OF PALO ALTO BELLE for the handsome sum of $19,000 was recently telegraphed all over the country.

JUDGED BY THE TWO TESTS Miss Russell is the greatest of trotting brood mares. In the first place she has produced Maud S., 2:08 1/2.

THE WOODBURN FARM, Spring Station, Ky., has sold to the Duke of Marlborough, of England, for something like $20,000, the following animals:

HERE IS A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY. I bought a machine for plating gold silver and nickel, and it works splendidly.

THE DISAGREABLE weather of Saturday last made it necessary that I should defer the sale of my residence on Locust Street.

THE PULPIT AND THE STAGE. Rev. F. M. Shroat, pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me."
