An exchange comes up the cost of getting drunk as follows: "There's my money—give me a drink! There's the clothing and food and fire of my wife and children—give me a drink! There's the education of the family and peace of the home—give me a drink! There's the rent I have robbed from my handkerchief and innumerable articles I have robbed from my shopkeeper—give me a drink, and yet more—will pay for it! There's my health of body and peace of mind; there's my character as a Christian, I give up all—give me a drink! More yet, I have to give! There's my Heavenly inheritance and the eternal friendship of the redeemed; there, is all hope of salvation. I give up God! I give up all that is great and good and glorious in the universe! I resign all that I may be drink!"
