WE HAVE

This day disposed of our dry goods business to Messrs. D. Hunt & Son, after a business career of eighty-four years, and take this opportunity of thanking our customers for their generous patronage, whose kindly associations will be long remembered by us. Some of you have been our customers through three generations. It is a source of regret to us to break these ties. Through the generosity of the Messrs. Hunt we will have our office at the old stand until August 1st, where settlements of accounts can be made. After that date all accounts will be placed in the hands of a collector. We bespeak for the new firm a generous share of your patronage. Very respectfully,

GEORGE COX & SON.

July 15, 1903.

River News.

The Queen City was aground in the mud below Sewickly at last accounts.

The Virginia, of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Company, was pulled out at the Cincinnati Marine Railway dry docks for a complete overhauling, and when completed will be as good as a new boat.

The signal of all the Pittsburg combine towboats is one long blast of the whistle and three short ones. When in distress three short and one long blast is the signal. This was the signal of the Walton boats, and the signals of all other towboats have been abolished that went into the combine.

Owing to the peculiar season, it is said to be very difficult to get tobacco in case.
