

The Bee Hive

WE GIVE GLOBE STAMPS.

The Clearance Sale Still Continues!

Fall Goods are clamoring for admission. All Summer Goods must go. They are going, some are gone. We still have some great bargains in Wash Goods, the lots are too small to advertise. Some patterns have only one dress pattern in them, others only one waist pattern. The prices are ridiculous.

"ROYAL WAISTS"

Our Mr. Mez, who is in the East, has sent us another lot of "Royals." If the Royal Waist Company knew that we are selling them for 98c., we believe they would buy the lot back.

A very good Ladies' Vest, tape neck and sleeve, three for 25c.
While the lot lasts. A dandy, black, Ladies' Drop-stitched Hose worth 20c., two for 25c.

Try to match that Ribbon of ours at 29c.
A few rolls of that Matting still left at $5 98 roll.
15c. Colored Madras at 10c. The kind that don't fade.

MERZ BROS.

MAYSVILLE WON.

The Locals Rubbed it in on Flemingsburg's Crack Team Thursday.

The game Thursday at the East End park between Maysville and Flemingsburg resulted in a victory for the locals. It is now evident that the Maysville boys are in a class to themselves. Flemingsburg succeeded in squeezing four hits off Jacobs, while the home boys punched the sphere so fiercely that the trade mark on the ball begged for mercy. The following is the score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.H.E.
Maysville	3	0	1	4	0	3	4	0	0	21 17 2
Flemingsburg	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	2 4 2

If possible, the Portsmouth team will be booked for here on Labor Day.

PROVED FATAL.

Mr. John Pollitt Died Thursday Morning at Decatur, Ill., of the Injuries Received First of Week.

Mr. John Pollitt died Thursday morning at 2:30 o'clock at St. Mary's Hospital, Decatur, Ill., of the injuries received Tuesday while driving the trotting horse L. B. Thomas in the 2:27 race at that point. The BULLSTIN told of the accident in Thursday's issue, but news of his death was not received until after the paper had gone to press. In some way Mr. Pollitt was thrown from the sulky, the horse afterwards falling on him. His injuries resulted in paralysis, and he never regained consciousness.

Mr. Pollitt was the oldest son of Mr. R. H. Pollitt of this city, and was forty-two years of age. He resided at Germantown for a time, but had been living at Bloomington, Ill., for several years. His wife, who was a daughter of the late Thurman Pollock of Germantown, died four or five years ago. They leave three sons, the oldest, Dr. Courtland Pollitt being a dentist at Brooksville. He also leaves a number of brothers and sisters, among them Mrs. Ernie White, Mrs. Thomas M. Russell, and Mr. James Pollitt and Dr. Claude Pollitt of this city, and Mrs. Samuel Holmes of Carlisle.

Deceased had a large circle of friends in Kentucky who learn with sorrow of his sad fate.

The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at his late home, Bloomington, Ill.

REV. GARRETT W. THOMPSON.

Former Citizen of Maysville Highly Complimented on His Work at Kirksville, Mo.

Rev. T. A. Abbott, who has charge of the State missionary work of the Christian Church in Missouri, pays a very high compliment in the last issue of The Christian Evangelist of St. Louis to Rev. Garrett W. Thompson, formerly of Maysville. Mr. Thompson is minister of the church at Kirksville, which Mr. Abbott speaks of as "one of the great churches" of Missouri. Kirksville is the seat of the State Normal School and also of the leading school of osteopathy in this country, the two being attended by thousands of young men and women. Speaking of his visit to the church there, Rev. Abbott says:

Back in her history she has had men of power of which time would fail me to tell. When I first knew the church it had for its leader Simpson Ely and he led it well. He was followed by that prince of evangelists, H. A. Northcutt. These were both great reapers in the harvest field of God, and when the time came that Brother Northcutt resigned many of us said, "Who is sufficient for this work?" But surely if ever God's providence watched over a people it was here, for in the selection of G. W. Thompson one was found who could not only hold the ground gained but lead to larger victories. Young, strong, vigorous, cultured, resourceful, a born leader of men, with the help of his wife, a true helpmeet, he is doing a marvelous work. It is no wonder that, with such a leader and such a church and such efficient adjuncts, when the plea for State missions was presented they more than doubled anything they had ever given before.

Rev. Mr. Thompson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Thompson of the Fifth ward. A host of friends here will rejoice to learn of his success in the ministry.

MR. FRANK WISE.

Death Cleims a Citizen of the East End While He Was Visiting at Newport.

A telephone message was received here last night announcing the death of Mr. Frank Wise at the home of his son in Newport, where he had been visiting for a couple of months past.

He leaves several children, among them, Charles, William and Robert of this city, and Walter and James of Newport.

The remains will arrive to-day and be buried in the Maysville Cemetery.

Damson plums are more plentiful and lower in price than they have been for years.

The owners of the brick works at Dover have notified the town authorities that the plant will be moved to Ripley. Dover went to considerable expense to get the plant and the courts will likely be called on to settle the right of the company to move it.

Messrs. Everett and William Ward, of Maratho City were at Johnson yesterday to visit their mother, Mrs. Nancy Ward, long a resident at Washington, who is very low, incident to age and debility. Mrs. Ward is a near relative of Mrs. Gault and sisters of Third street.
