

These Days the Farmer is Strictly "in it"

"Well I Should Smile"

Corn boom, the price of wheat way above the century mark and more good news pouring in. Think of the fun he'll have spending this wealth improving the "place" that made such rich returns. Makes us feel good, too, to know we'll share in his prosperity by selling him a Cutting Box, Pump, an Ax, some Nails and a roll or so of American Field Fence.

IS THIS SO?

Maysville People Can Decide.

You would not accept the word of an utter stranger as readily as that of a person whom you knew. The following statement is made by a citizen, perhaps a neighbor. Read it.

Mrs. Mary Kinsler, of 362 East Fourth street, says: "I sent a box of Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of Second and Market streets, to a relative living in the country who was much troubled with kidney complaint. The results obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills show that only terms of highest praise express the great curative properties of the medicine."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foeter-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name DOAN'S and take no substitute.

PITHY POINTS.

Mrs. Nation sticks to her text much closer than the New York Sun.

It's about as hard to "put your finger on" the New York Sun as it would be to put it on its namesake.

No sort of bird, beast or creeping thing will touch a castor oil plant. It seems to be a rank poison to all the animal world. Even the goat will starve before biting off a leaf and a horse will sniff at it and turn up its upper lip as though it had the most unpleasant odor on the face of the earth. Army worm and the locust will pass it by, tho' they may eat every other green thing in sight, and there is no other surer way to drive moles away from the lawn than to plant a few castor beans here and there. Even the tobacco worm will refuse to be fed on its leaves. There is hardly another instance in natural history of a plant being so universally detested by the animal world.

Mr. Thomas S. Forman is yet at Washington and getting some better.
