There has been a destructive fire in Cairo. It consumed nearly all the public buildings.

THE FALL STATE ELECTION.—The following States will hold their annual elections before the great contest for the Presidency takes place: Maine, Sept. 12th; Pennsylvania, Oct. 11th; Indiana, Oct. 11th; Iowa, Oct. 11th.

The income of the four Rothschilds of Europe is estimated at $9,000,000 a year or a thousand dollars an hour.

How JOHN MORGAN WAS KILLED.—The Richmond Examiner tells the story of the capture and death of John Morgan. He was on a reconnaissance, and took lodging at a house near Greenville. It proved to be occupied by the wife of William, an officer on Burnside's staff. While he slept, Mrs. Williams mounted a horse and rode fifteen miles and returned with a squad of soldiers Morgan ran from the house, but was surrounded. He drew a revolver, swore he would not be taken alive, and attempted to break through the line, when he was killed by a volley.

The new opera house at Chicago will cost $300,000, and will not be completed until February, 1885.

Ninety million tons of water passes over Niagara Falls hourly.

Sydney Smith spoke of a man so dry that if you were to bore holes in him with a gimlet, saw dust would come out.

There was a great Democratic gathering in Dearborn county, Indiana on the 10th instant. The number present was estimated at 10,000.

Mr. T. L. Browning near Washington, sold the remainder of his tract of land containing 85 acres to J. C. Humphreys, for $106 per acre.

Labels. Mrs. Wrotten has just received a large assortment of elegant Millinery Goods, such as you have long wished for. In her establishment can be found all the latest styles of Bonnets, Hats, Trimmings, &c.—Remember the place, Second street, opposite the Farmer's Bank.

George Botts killed a man named Voorheis, at Mt. Sterling on Friday last in a street encounter. An old feud had existed between them, and upon meeting in the street they commenced firing, when Voorheis received a fatal shot in the left side.

A telegraphic dispatch, dated St. Louis, Aug. 23, says:

When Gen. P. entered at Uniontown he arrested Capt. McGill, Alfred McGill and Davis Harris. He confiscated 80 lbs of tobacco, (belonging to John Funk and Paul S. Smith of Henderson,) 74 lbs of whiskey (from Byrne & Crambo,) 150 lbs salt, 75 head of horses and 100 head of cattle. He also obtained 25 negro recruits.

The telegraph does not tell all. Of the whiskey taken, several barrels were wantonly burst open and the liquor lost. A barrel of molasses, belonging to J. F. Williams, was also burst open and emptied in the street. The Postoffice was entered and letters broken open and rifled; the masonic hall was burst into, and the regalia, symbols, &c., brought forth, but eventually returned.—Several members of the 34th New Jersey entered the private residence of a respectable widow lady, [a sister-in-law of the editor of the Vincennes Star], and used the most obscene and disgusting language. A citizen went to Gen. Payne and demanded protection for this lady. "Is she a loyal woman?" asked P. "She is a widow lady, who does not meddle in politics, and requires protection," answered the citizen. "Is she in favor of arming the blacks?" asked P. "I presume not, sir," then, replied Payne, "I do not care what they do to the d—n—s."

We derive this statement from a prominent citizen of Uniontown. Several of P.'s men broke into Mr. Geo. Orr's residence, the family being absent, and stole a lot of clothing and some silver spoons. Mr. Orr's new buggy was also taken away to Paducah.

Preparing to Leave.
The following law card appears in the New York papers:

A. LINCOLN,
Attorney and Counselor at Law,
Springfield, Ill.

To Whom it May Concern: My old customers and others are no doubt aware of the terrible time I have had crossing the stream, and will be glad to know that I will be back on the same side from which I started in or before the 4th of March next, when I will be ready to swoop horses, dispense law, make jokes, spout rails, and perform other matters in a small way.

The following passage from Emerson contains a truth which all would do well to lay to heart. It may help to ward off temptation, when purer and nobler motives grow weak in the contest. He says: "There is no den in the world to hide a rogue. There is no such thing in the world as concealment. Commit a crime, and the earth is made of glass. Commit a crime, and it seems as if a coat of snow fell on the ground, such as reveals in the woods the track of every partridge and fox and mole and squirrel. You cannot recall the spoken word, you cannot draw up the ladder, so as to leave no inlet or clue. Always some damning circumstance transpires. The laws and substance of nature, water, snow, wind, gravitation, become penalties to the thief."

We believe in a middle path for flowers after their death; the soul of the lilies probably go into woman's forehead; hyacinth and forget-me-nots into lips and cheek.

On the Death of Mrs. L. K. Mitchell, who died May 20th, 1864.

Around her bed they gathered—she was dying—
And o'er her bent to hear her whispered prayer,
They saw the tear that mingled with her sighing,
Who, like a mother, for her babes would care!

And oh! it seemed the ties of love grew stronger,
As fainter burned the flickering flame of life,
Until they almost thought their love could bind
her longer

Her tender babe she clasped unto her heart—
A father's earnest love it ne'er should know
But one short week before his spirit did depart,
And now the mother, too, is called to go.

Into her heart religion's holy balm,
Like dew upon the opening flower, was shed,
And o'er her countenance came the settled calm
Of perfect faith upon her dying bed.

Her little ones unto the orphan's God
She trustingly committed; had not life
Promised, within his pure and changeless word,
A father for the fatherless to be!

Why should we moan that her pure spirit now
Wanders amid the hallowed courts of Heaven,
That the bright crown of glory on her brow
Is worn, and blessed peace to her is given.

And though we, saddened, walk on earth alone,
And hear no more her kind and loving voice,
Yet still we murmur, "Lord, thy will be done,
For with thy ransomed ones she does rejoice."

FAMILY GROCERIES!
UNDER a just construction of a recent military order, governing trade in Kentucky, we have been permitted by our present polite and gentlemanly Provost Marshal to import a small stock of which we offer for sale to our old friends and customers and purchasers generally at fully ten per cent less than these articles could have been bought at in the early part of this week, though there has been no decline in the markets from which we obtained them. We have read and carefully re-examinable in the order itself, but think we can see in the forced construction of it by a few interested mercenary who have attempted to advise and control the deputy authorities here, something too mean and contemptible to bear scrutiny. We cannot finish this advertisement without publicly thanking Mr. PERRY for his prompt action in the matter when the proper application was made to grocers generally, who have been freed from an attempted infamous monopoly, will do likewise.

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES,

NOTICE
To the Tax-Payers of Mason County.

BY an act of the General Assembly it is made my duty, immediately after the 1st of June, to proceed with the Collection of the public Revenues speedily as possible. By paying attention to the notice and promptly settling the thing will be first rate. The people have the same time, as delinquents, within which to pay their taxes. The only difference being, that they shall give the matter attention themselves and see to its payment at the times and places prescribed. Instead of the way of having the Sheriff call half dozen times, more or less, for their taxes. H. S. JEFFERSON, Sheriff Mason Co.

NEW WHOLESALE DRY GOODS STORE!

THE SUBSCRIBERS, LONG ESTABLISHED in a large retail Dry Goods business in Maysville, would call the attention of Country Merchants to their recent addition of an extensive Wholesale Department; which will be conducted on a STRICTLY CASH PRINCIPLE.

The many years of experience possessed by our buyer, combined with a perfect knowledge of the Kentucky trade, a thorough acquaintance with all the Manufacturing and Importing Houses in the East, and the fact of our purchases being made for "Cash," together with a firm determination to sell at a mere commission advance on Eastern Cost, will be sufficient guarantee to CLOSE CASH BUYERS that we cannot be undersold by any WESTERN JOBBING HOUSE. Our Stock will be found better adapted to the wants of our customers than it is usual to find in the generality of JOBBING HOUSES; as it will embrace a greater variety of goods than is ordinarily met with in an exclusive Wholesale Establishment. The departments allotted to HATS AND CAPS

AND NOTIONS,
Will be at all times especially attractive as particular attention will be paid to them, and a LARGE STOCK kept constantly on hand. We would impress upon our friends that in sending us orders they may rely upon having them executed to the fullest extent of our ability.
