New spring millinery just received at Courts & Cox's.

ORANGES, lemons and lemons nice and fresh at S. V. Myers'.

HUFF DUDDELLER sold to H. C. Gann an acre lot at Rowland for $300.

ZIMMER keeps always on hand the best stock of fruits and confections in town.

LANDBETH, Ferry & Co.'s and Crossman's Garden Seeds at A. A. Warren's "Model Grocery."

The most elegant line of spring millinery ever brought to Stanford just received at Courts & Cox's.

My customers, either cash or credit, needn't go elsewhere for goods, as I will sell as low as any one. T. R. Walton.

A GIRL.—Mr. M. S. Caughman has a lady at his house several days old, but as it is a girl and the third girl at that, he has been trying to keep it quiet.

Go to Hilton's, Junction City, for the best assortment of dry goods and notions dress goods, and trimmings to match a specialty. Spring goods arriving daily. Cheapest wall paper on earth. No trouble to show goods.

The last three commissioners of pensions have all been much crippled soldiers. Dudley had only one leg; Gen. Black was wounded in nearly every portion of his body and Corporal Tanner will walk into the office on a couple of wooden legs.

TEMPERANCE people have a treat in store for them next Thursday night. Mr. Luther Benson has the reputation of being the finest orator in that line in America. The court-house will doubtless be crowded to hear him. Admission free; lecture to commence at 7:30.

As Mr. A. K. Denny and wife were returning from church Sunday the horse they were driving began to kick when going down the long hill just beyond Mrs. Paxton's and the occupants would likely have been seriously hurt had not it been for the timely assistance rendered by a couple of negroes who were near by. The buggy was badly torn up.

A FEW years ago some over zealous women and men here could have seen the editor of this paper quillined because he dared question the sincerity and worth of the Rev. James A. Monday, who came among us unannounced and uninvited. His subsequent acts here showed that, as usual, we never make a mistake in our estimate of a man, and now comes the information from Morris-town, Tenn., that he has been expelled from the pastorate of a large church, of which he had somehow become pastor, on account of drunkenness and other immoralities.

A DISPATCH from Cincinnati, Friday, says that James R. Crooke, a wealthy coal merchant of Altamont, Ky., is dying at his room at the Palace Hotel from injuries inflicted on himself early that morning by his repeated attempts to butt his brains out against the furniture of his room. He also attempted to drag his wife with him, exclaiming: "We will die together." No less than seven fractures of the skull were made in his desperate attempt, the marble mantle piece being broken into fragments. His wife escaped injury, but is prostrated with grief. The cause of her husband's act is due to mental depression brought on by business worry. It will be remembered that Mr. Crooke once owned the Greenwood mines and his share of its sale amounted to nearly half a million, most of which he afterwards lost in gold mines in the West. He is a brother of Col. Cash Crooke and like him, was a very popular and excellent gentleman.

SOMEWHERE Mr. J. M. Hall sold to Joe Seaverance a lot of the old Pate-Enlow property for $1,000, but it was found recently that the original grant of the site to the town provided for an alley through a portion of it, which destroyed its value in a great extent to Mr. Seaverance and it was mutually agreed to declare the trade off. Mr. Hall then proposed to the council that he would sell them an additional 28 feet running 180 feet for $250 to make a street 50 feet wide and his offer has been accepted. Work will begin at once. This is the same street it is proposed to extend into the pike mentioned elsewhere. It will open up a number of splendid building lots and add to the beauty and size of the town.

NEW FISH! New Goods and New Prices! Cash every time! Credit never! Our goods are daily pouring in and our prices are the lowest. Our buyer has spent time in selecting this stock and buying in large quantities and cash down enables us to give you goods at prices you have never before heard of. Only one trial and you will see what the almighty dollar will do. You can get more sugar and coffee for one dollar than at any other house in town. Examine our canned goods and get prices. The best syrup—you will say so when you have tried it. Fancy tinware and queensware. In fact you can get everything belonging in our line of business. We will pay you the highest market price for eggs, butter, lard and bacon. You will find us in the Portman store room lately vacated by S. L. Powers & Co. We cordially invite the public to examine our goods and get prices before buying. James Bros.

MR. R. E. BARROW asks us to state that orderly persons can fish in his pond from now till April 20th.

LADIES are cordially invited to examine the elegant stock of new millinery just received at Courts & Cox's.

MR. M. F. ELKIN is raising a subscription and is meeting with much success to send Tom Hughes to Hot Springs. He is nearly bent double with the rheumatism and being unable to pay his own way, the charitable with the ability to do so ought to aid him.

KILLED.—George Payne, a citizen of Rockcastle, mining at Altamont, was run over and killed, Friday morning, by the engine of the Altamont Coal Company, while riding out the line to the mines. This is the 13th member of the family and immediate connections who have met violent deaths by accidents within the last 8 years.

JAMES FRAZER, the man who killed Leo Carter, has gone raving crazy and has been lodged in jail. He imagines he sees his victim constantly before him. Those who believe that mortals are punished both here and hereafter for misdeeds may find whatever of corroboration of their theory in this that they like. LATER. Reports yesterday made the case nothing more nor less than the jim jams.

ANOTHER PIKE.—Mr. W. H. Miller, the great internal improvement advocate, has a new scheme which seems both feasible and advantageous. The council will open a street from Mrs. Myers' corner to the creek and the proposition is to extend the road over the hill and on to the Crab Orchard pike striking it about Neesmore. This would do away with the present dangerous route by Rowland, for those who have seamy horses, besides reducing the distance considerably. The proposed road is about 1 1/2 miles and it will cost about $4,000 to grade and McAdamize it. There is an enabling act which allows the county court to subscribe $800 a mile and $1,000 to bridge Logan's creek. Mr. Miller will ask the court to make these subscriptions and the town to subscribe $500, the rest he thinks can be easily raised by private subscriptions. It is proposed should these arrangements be effected, to have the pike open to the public by early in the fall.

A TERROR IN HOE.—"Gen." George Sowders, the recognized king of the most desperate and powerful of the many lawless gangs in the mountains, was captured by a squad of officers near Cumberland Gap last week and taken to the Pineville jail, where he was guarded night and day to prevent his release by his friends, till Sunday, when he was brought here for safe keeping. Eight murders are charged to him, but the one he was arrested on was for the killing of Jack Turner. He was the head of the Monroe faction and Jeff Henderson of the Turner faction, whose long and bloody feud has reddened the record of lawlessness in their section. The two warriors now pass their time peacefully in our jail, awaiting the time when the lenient courts will turn them loose to resume their sanguinary strife. Alvis Turner, a son of Jack Turner, himself under bail of $7,000 for murder, and who laid in jail here a year, came down with the posse that brought Sowders, though not as a guard, remarking on his avail that he didn't intend that that there should be any "shenanigan" in the business and that Sowders had to be delivered to Jailer Owens alive if he behaved himself or dead if he didn't.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In order to be in ample time for the opening of his court yesterday, Judge T. Z. Morrow arrived Sunday afternoon and after listening to a good sermon that night by Dr. Evans he was better prepared than ever to deal out justice to his fellow mortals both from a christian as well as a legal standpoint. Promptly at 8:45 yesterday morning the bell sounded and the business of the spring term of the Circuit Court began. After the following grand jurors were sworn in the judge delivered the charge in an impressive manner and in such language that the oft told tale took on a decided appearance of newness. The effect of his charges are always beneficial to the hearers and we move that he shall not in the future delegate the duty.

GRAND JURY. S. G. Hooper, M. O. Vandever, Sam Helm, H. T. Bush, Adam Petrey, Harry Dunn, J. M. Wray, T. Mc. Holmes, Alfred A. Bastin, Josiah Bishop, H. W. Rice, T. M. White, J. S. Blakson, S. G. Dreye, A. B. McKinney, J. W. Carson, Mr. Bush, a democrat, was made foreman.

THE PETTY JURY is as follows: J. H. Butt, J. S. Goode, J. W. Sallie, E. T. Pence, W. P. White, George DeBord, C. C. Bishop, William Goode, J. M. Coffey, Jesse McGuffey, J. T. Hackley, J. T. Harris, H. L. Cummins, J. W. Rout, W. P. Grimes, Reece Ward, Jerry Briscoe, D. McKittrick, G. L. Carter, G. W. Evans, John Turnbull, R. L. Porter.

The 53 cases on the day's docket were called. A number were filed away, some dismissed and others continued. John D. Han for selling whiskey was acquitted and so was Sam Acton on the same charge; David Millburn, for carrying concealed weapons, also was tried and acquitted.

The only visiting lawyers we noticed yesterday were Judge Higgins and Fountain F. Bobbitt, of Crab Orchard, and Wm. Herndon, of Lancaster.

JOHN H. CRAIG & SON, with Wainmaker & Brown—the largest clothing establishment in the world, have on sale 1,000 foreign and American suits for men's shirts and trousers made to order.

GORTON'S New Orleans Minstrels were on the yesterday and gave an attractive street parade in which their famous gold band added further to the big reputation it has with our music lovers. The prospect for a full house was flattering at the hour we went to press.

As absent minded gentlemen sends us a call on a democrat whom he describes as in every way worthy to represent us in the legislature, but fails to name him. When these presents shall come to his eye we suggest that he supply the deficiency if he would have the call work its object.

THERE are three firms of Jones Bros. who get the iron rail at this postoffice, and it is impossible for the postmaster to tell to which firm a letter addressed to "Jones Bros." belongs. To avoid getting mail mixed a would suggest that they add "groovers" to the firm just gone into business, "farmers" to the enterprising young men on Knoch Lick and "colored" to the firm doing business in Macksville.

BELMONT CHIEF, 8689, TRIAL 2:31 1-4.

Sired by the great Belmont, sire of Nutwood, Wedgwood, 2:10; Vining, 2:05; and 18 others in the 2:30 list. His sons have sired 50 in the 2:30 list. His daughters have produced 14 in the 2:30 list. First Dam, Bettie Kinkead, by Contractor, 10:4, the sire of Dr. West, 2:17. Second dam, Fullinger to D. Monroe, 2:20; by Jim Monroe, 2:15; by Monroe Chief, 2:18; by Kites Rates, 2:19, and 9 others in the 2:30 list. Third dam by Duval's 1/2. Member. Fourth dam by Thoroughbred. Belmont Chief is a bay and weighs 1,100 pounds, foaled in 1888, bred by J. L. Cogar, Midway, Ky. Belmont Chief in appearance is very much like his sire. He trotted a mile at Decatur, Mich., in 1888 in 2:31 1/4. Considering the concentration of speed, style, shape and trotting action, I have the utmost confidence in the results to be obtained by breeding to him. His first colts will be developed for speed, thus making an early showing of his excellent qualities and bring his colts into prominence. Belmont Chief will make the season of 1889 at my stables in McKinney, AT $30 THE SEASON. With the usual return privilege or $50 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT. Mares kept on good pasture at owner's risk at $2 per month. J. P. CROW, McKinney, Ky.
