

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For County Judge, THOMAS W. VARNON;
County Attorney, JOSEPH B. PAXTON;
County Clerk, GEORGE B. COOPER;
Sheriff, J. N. MENEFEE;
Jailer, SAMUEL M. OWENS;
Assessor, E. D. KENNEDY;
Supt of Common Schools, W. F. McLARY;
Surveyor, HARRY A. EVANS;
Coroner, ARCH CARSON.

Judge Lewis writes to the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette giving what he claims to be the true statement of the Harlan county war so far as it affects his action in the matter. It shows that he went in with a determination to restore law and order by capturing Wills Howard and his crowd of desperadoes, or make them flee from the country. His posse killed and wounded a few of them and the Judge adds: "As it is reported that Wilson Howard and William Jennings, his associate in crime, have left this country and probably gone to parts unknown, I hope peace is restored and business will revive." Whatever may have been the ulterior motive of Judge Lewis in the matter he certainly deserves the approbation and plaudits of every good citizen of the State for restoring law and order in his lawless section.

The Owensboro Inquirer is making life burdensome to Commonwealth's Attorney Noe, who was caught in a gambling house at Hawesville shuffling the cards and betting at a lively rate. In other words aiding and abiding a felony he had sworn to prosecute. The valiant law-breaker, who deserves impeachment did not deny the charge, but buckled on his pistols and marched up and down the street, pretending to be anxious to meet the editors who had exposed him, thereby adding further to his evident unfitness to hold a public trust. The editors are not alarmed, however, but are shooting the proof of his delinquency of duty to him without fear and with an eye single to the public good. Bros. Ford & Givens, we congratulate you!

JOHN L. BOSLEY, who for four years has made the Winchester Sun an eminently conservative, readable and reliable paper, has sold it to a stock company and will retire from the business, which has brought him more fame than fifty lucre. With Farris Feland already gone this makes two of the four distinguished editors that Hanging Fork produced, to leave the profession they filled with credit. M. D. Hughes and A. A. Lewis are still holding up their end of the log, but Lewis stands a chance to get a fat government office and quit the business, while Hughes is likely to break into a lunatic asylum, though he has telegraphed us at our expense that he is not.

The Glasgow Times celebrated its 24th birth day by issuing a paper four times the size of this and filling it with the good things Editor Richardson knows so well how to get up. The Times is one of the best papers anywhere and this statement of its aims and purposes will be recognized as eminently correct by every reader of it: "Striving always for the pure and clean in journalism; yielding its convictions to none, but aiming at justice to all; standing by its friends; never hitting its enemies below the belt—and having few, thank God, to hit anywhere; serving the public with heads that sometimes erred, but hearts that never betrayed; the history of The Times has been that of uninterrupted, steady advancement."

The New York Sun has already hoisted the names of Gov. Hill, of New York, and Gov.-elect Campbell, of Ohio, for president and vice-president in 1892, with this platform: "The permanent return of the democracy to the control of the Federal government." The Sun as usual is kicking against the pricks. Grover Cleveland will be and deserves to be the democratic nominee for president in 1892.

Another editor, J. T. Pryor, of the Paris Record, is to be married, making about a dozen Kentucky quill-shovers to enter the matrimonial estate this fall. If the thing continues there will hardly be a single man left to entertain the girls at the Winchester meeting next year, but we older Benedictus will be there or thereabouts willing to keep up the reputation of the Association for gallantry.

There are already numerous aspirants for the Ohio Senatorship, which Senator Payne says he will on no condition accept for another term, as he is 79 years old and feels the necessity of withdrawing from public life. John R. McLean, editor of the Enquirer, says he would not have it, but the woods are full of those who would. Col. Brice may possibly be chosen.

The Republicans in Kentucky seem to be doing all in their power to retain the name for her of the dark and bloody ground. The blue-grass has joined hands with Harlan and the mountain counties, apparently, to keep the stigma upon her.

The democratic majority in Ohio is about 12,000; in Virginia about 45,000 and in Iowa about 7,000. "It was a famous victory."

WHEN men who aspire to be leaders habitually disregard the law against carrying concealed weapons and go prepared to take the life of a fellow mortal at the slightest provocation, it is little wonder that men of less standing are guilty of the same crime. Kentucky will never lose her notoriety for bloodshed till there is a complete revision, of sentiment with regard to settlement of differences by personal violence, instead of the means always at hand. Nor until her citizens cease to make hero-worship to those who bathe their hands in another's blood.

HARRISON carried Massachusetts by 32,037. This year the republican candidate for governor has a pitiful plurality of 5,984, and yet the old pharisee says he can see nothing in the result that reflects on his administration. In a total vote of more than 250,000 in the State the prohibitionists polled 13,854, which was doing pretty well for them.

A VERY large per cent. of the brains of the republican party in Kentucky is lost in the deaths of Swope and Goodloe. They were a brainy pair and there places can scarcely be filled from the material to select from in the State.

The Alexander Hotel, Louisville, has been sold to the Miller Bros., of Tennessee, who will shortly take charge. "Uncle Joe" Alexander will feel like a fish out of water with no hotel to look after.

NEWS CONDENSED

—Miss Annie Beaver has been appointed postmaster at St. Marys.
—John Knox, a negro, fatally shot Wm. Fisher, a railroad man at Lexington.
—Gov. Buckner has fixed Dec. 18, as the day Pat Hunt must die at Paris. He was convicted of killing James Abner.
—Gov. Lee has respited to 20 years' imprisonment the negro boy who was to have been hung in Chesterfield, Va., Friday.
—Judge Lewis is announcing himself in the papers of his district for re-election to the judgeship of the Court of Appeals.

—A three-year-old boy at Charlotte, S. C., put to mind his baby sister, shot her head off when she wouldn't stop crying.
—Albert Morea, of Savannah, Ga., cut his wife's throat because she walked home with a young man from a church festival.

—An insane man stabbed one man to the heart and desperately wounded four others before he could be killed, at Bayou Boeuf, La.
—Several more herders have frozen to death and much stock is dying in New Mexico from the effects of the protracted snow storm and blizzard.

—A family named Porter, consisting of husband, wife and seven children, were drowned while crossing the river at Portland, Oregon, in a small boat.

—Peter Van was hung at Summerville, Ga., for murder Friday. The night before he cut his throat and tried to open an artery, but failed to rob the gallows of its due.
—In his report Treasurer Huston says that the receipts for the fiscal year amount to $387,050,085 and the expenditures $299,288,968.

—The Supreme Court of New York has decided that the clause in Samuel J. Tilden's will giving a large amount of his estate in trust to establish libraries in New York, is void.
—The Indiana Supreme court declared unconstitutional the act of the last Legislature prohibiting the piping of natural gas out of the State. It was already being piped to Louisville.
—Fire broke out in Davis' store at Petersburg, Va., and destroyed the Iron Block on Sycamore St. Lt. Crichton, of the police, was crushed to death by a falling wall. The pecuniary loss is estimated at $750,000.

—The Court of Appeals has affirmed the death sentence of one of the Hatfield gang and the life sentence of three others of them. The one to be hung will be shuffled off in Pike county just before Christmas.

—A $10,000,000 heiress has bidden farewell to the world. Kate Drexel, the second daughter of the late F. A. Drexel, of Philadelphia, has taken the white veil of the novice at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy in Pittsburgh.

—Evan Hamlin, who was under indictment for the killing of the Worman brothers, was shot from ambush Saturday near Cumberland Falls and instantly killed. It is suspected that he was killed by the Wormans' relatives.

—The contracts for the building of the new union depot of the Chesapeake and Ohio at 9th and Water streets, Louisville, have been let and from the figures already computed, the building will not cost one cent less than half a million dollars.

—In a fight between Dr. P. J. Walker and Henry Miller, two leading citizens of Rockbridge county, Va., which occurred in the court-house, pistols being used, Miller was killed. Walker fatally wounded and his wife killed. Sam Beaver and two sons of Walker received severe wounds.

—The Somerset Republican says that Judge M. H. Owsley, of Lancaster, Mr. Will C. Curd, of that place, and Mr. J. C. Nelson, of Sharpshurg, who has located in Somerset, have formed a partnership for the practice of law in Pulaski and adjoining counties, style of the firm being Owsley, Curd & Co.

—It lacks but a few days of a year since Green killed Baldwin at Lexington.
—Cincinnati democrats celebrated their splendid victory Saturday night in grand style.
—Gen. Greeley's report shows that during the year the percentages of successful forecasts were for weather 84.4 temperature 75.8, with general average of 81. There were 1,066 storm signals of all kinds ordered, of which 680 were fully and 74 partly justified as to velocity, and 980 justified as to direction.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Col. D. R. Collier is at home for a day or two and will move his family to Louisville in a few days.
—Bub Farris returned Friday from a three weeks' hunting trip in Casey county. He and "Gov." McGoochin bagged about 400 quail.
—Mr. Robert Arnold, of this county, was united in marriage to Miss Parthenia Burton at the residence of the bride's father in Burgin on Thursday of last week.
—The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette attributes the defeat of "Buck Fuzz" Foraker to the workings of the saloons and whisky men of Ohio. If they are in any way responsible for Ohio's redemption from Foraker rule, we say amen and vote to give them full sway.
—Mr. O. Smith Williams, who sold his farm in lower Garrard a short time since has purchased the residence, store-room and stock of goods of M. T. Mitchell, in Burgin. Amount paid $2,000. Mr. Williams gets possession Dec. 1 and we regret very much to lose him as a citizen of Garrard.

—One of the most enjoyable musical entertainments of home talent ever given in Lancaster was that of Prof. Koester, assisted by the music pupils of Garrard College at the court-house on Saturday evening. The audience was astounded at the progress the pupils had made under the tutelage of Prof. Koester, especially those of the violin class. Everybody left the hall delighted with the treat.

—The Boston Ideal Minstrels gave a regular sickening, chestnutty performance to a crowded house here on Friday evening. It seems to be Lancaster's misfortune to patronize exclusively the worst entertainments that visit us and miss the worthy, interesting and beneficial. We would say to our people that because they were disgusted with the minstrels, not to miss the performance of the McGibben Family on the 28th. They give a performance both instructive and entertaining and such a troupe is seldom seen here.

—The "microbe killer" is causing as much of a sensation here as the gold discovery did in California in the year '49. Several of our best citizens have tried it for various complaints, indigestion, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c., and all pronounce wonderful benefits derived from its use. Jim Burnsides says he bought a jug of microbe (?) a few days since and was taking it home for his brother-in-law's use, who had been an invalid for several years. He was stopped all along the street by old men with dippers, women with goblets and children with mugs all crying and begging for just one dose of the life elixir. Before he reached home he found he had dispensed with almost the entire contents of the jug, but his liberal nature caused no complaint and he seemed contented with the belief that he had put several in declining health on the road to vigor and happiness.

According to the customs of Chinese society, the wife of the Chinese Minister to this country will comb her hair up from her forehead, to show that she is married. Her tresses reach to her feet, and so difficult is the task of dressing them that one arrangement lasts several days. For the preservation of the coiffure she lies while asleep on a willow pillow as finely woven as an imported bonnet, shaped like a loaf of baker's bread. The maids dress their back hair in a queue, and arrange a bang one and one-half inches deep from ear to ear. A bit of coquetry is displayed by allowing a single lock to float loosely in front of the face and over the shoulder. The hair of the Chinese girl is never cut, and, as a result of the splendid care bestowed, it grows luxuriantly. —Washington Letter.

A Good Chinese Oracle.

There are two Chinese individuals in Hong Kong who own the majority of the native houses between them, and who, by a system of regular rent raising, are simply rolling in wealth. One has had a great deal of family trouble lately, and his wife, in her tribulation, consulted the oracle at the temple to learn the reason of the anger of the gods. The trial by drawing lots, according to the priests, showed that the cause was the imposition of increasing burdens on the tenants. The result of this has been that in many cases the rents have been lowered considerably and in none will they be put up further. Thanks to the good old oracle! —Chinese Times.

—Little Pearl listened attentively to her mother, while she tried to explain to her the ninth commandment. After a moment she seemed to catch the meaning. "Mamma," she said, "Cousin Ada bared false witness on the rats when she said they nibbled your cake and it was me."

INDISPUTABLE FACTS.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE

Does the business. When they advertise a bargain they give it. When they say it is under value they mean it. The immense crowds who daily pack their store will testify to it.

Great Reductions In CLOTHING This Week.

Keep close watch of what they have to offer and you will profit by it. A regular Cyclone of Bargains in Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Carpets, Matting, &c. Clothing! Clothing!! Boys' Overcoats at $1.50, former price $2.50; at $2.50, former price $3.50; at $3.50, former price $5. Special reductions in boys' Suits. Men's Overcoats $4, worth $6; $5, worth $7.50; $6, worth $8.50, and all better grades will be sold 25 per cent. less than formerly. All men's Suits are cut down to one-half the price. Also our sales were twice as large as we expected. Our buyer had to go East again to put in new goods for the Holidays. The chances on that $200 Organ will soon draw to a close, so secure as many tickets as possible.

Main st., Stanford.

M. SALINGER, Manager.

Attention, Coal Burners.

I keep on hand a No. 1 quality of Jellico, Lily and Nut Coal in my yard. Leave your orders at Yard or S. S. Myers' store and they will be attended to promptly. J. B. HIGGINS, Stanford, Ky.

FOR SALE!

A Brick House and Lot, On Somerset street, at present occupied by Mr. G. B. Cooper. A very desirable place and can be obtained at a bargain. Address or call on W. H. ANDERSON, Harper, Kansas, Or P. M. McROBERTS, Stanford, Ky.

FARM FOR SALE!

I wish to sell my Farm of 120 Acres, situated on the Hyattsville and Kirksville pike, 4 miles from Lancaster. It is well watered, has upon it a comfortable dwelling house, stable, orchard—in fact, all the necessary conveniences. I have also four other tracts I would like to sell. J. HANSBERRY WEST, Hyattsville.

FOR SALE OR RENT.

A LARGE AND COMMODIOUS HOUSE in Lancaster, on Danville street, the old Franklin Institute property, suitable for a boarding house. It is well watered, has upon it a comfortable dwelling house, stable, orchard—in fact, all the necessary conveniences. I have also four other tracts I would like to sell. J. HANSBERRY WEST, Hyattsville.

NEWCOMB HOTEL.

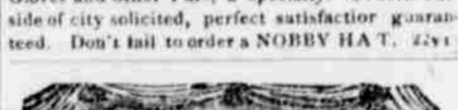

MT. VERNON, KY. This old and well-known Hotel still maintains its fine reputation. Charges reasonable. Special attention to the traveling public. A. P. NEWCOMB, Prop., Mt. Vernon, Ky.

R. B. GEOGEGHAN.

SUCCESSOR TO M'MICHAEL, THE HATTER, 511 4TH AVENUE, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY. The Nobbiest & Most Stylish

HATS,

Ever brought to the city of Louisville, now open including the world-renowned KNOX & JOHN E. STETSON & CO'S. HATS And a variety of importations of English Hats and Caps. An elegant line of Cane and Lync's Celebrated Umbrellas always on hand. FINE SEAL SKIN SACQUES, CAPS, Gloves and other Furs, a specialty. Orders outside of city solicited, perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Don't fail to order a NOBBY HAT. 24-4

J. T. SUTTON & CO., HUSTONVILLE, KY. Are still in the business and ready to do anything in the Undertaking line. We have a full stock of Cases and Caskets of all kinds and of every description. Our hearse, which is nearly new, can be obtained on short notice. Mr. J. H. Green has charge of our business and will show our goods to any one desiring anything in our line. 64-4

POSTED.

This notice forewarns hunters, fishermen and others not to trespass on our lands without permission, as all such will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Signed: T. J. HILL, GEO. D. HOPPER, J. M. McROBERTS, JR., M. S. BAUGHMAN, ROBT. McALISTER, J. E. BRUCE, S. H. SHANKS, S. H. BATHMAN, MRS. HENRY BAUGHMAN, A. M. FELLAND, E. T. PENCE, JOHN W. HOLMES, A. J. HAYDEN, F. C. PARRISH, D. V. HOLMES, P. W. LOGAN, PHILBERT RICHARDS, J. B. McKINRY, F. W. GAINES, J. B. McKINRY, Mrs. SAMFORD IRWIN.

NOTICE!

Having purchased the interest of Mr. Stagg, I will conduct the business at the old stand, where I shall be pleased to supply the wants of all former and new patrons from a Full Stock of Drugs! Paints, Oils, School Books, Wall Paper, Jewelry and Silverware at low prices, for first-class goods. I have a good Jeweler, ready to do watch and jewelry repairs in the best workman-like style. Very respectfully, W. B. McROBERTS.

Just What is Needed!

A House in which you can find Dry Goods and Notions, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, Queensware, Glassware, &c. Any of the above goods exchanged for Country Produce. We do a strictly Cash Business and our prices are the LOWEST. Come and see what we can save you. JONES BROS., Next door to Portman House, Stanford, Ky.

A. R. PENNY, DRUGGIST & JEWELER. DRUGS, BOOKS, STATIONERY, FANCY ARTICLES, &c. Physicians' prescriptions accurately compounded. THE LARGEST STOCK OF WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY & SILVERWARE. Ever brought to this market. Prices lower than the lowest. Watches, Clocks and Jewelry Repaired on short notice and warranted.

NEW FURNITURE STORE! MACK HUFFMAN, PROP.

Will keep constantly on hand a large and select line of Furniture and Undertaker's Goods. My prices will be as low as such goods can be bought in the cities. Give me a trial and you will be convinced that I sell lower than the lowest.