

PERSONAL POINTS.

Miss ANNIE STRAUH is visiting Miss Nellie Dillon, in Lancaster.

Miss HELEN TAYLOR, of Hustonville, is the guest of Mrs. G. B. Cooper.

Miss GEORGINA WRAY is visiting Miss Beatie Richards at Junction City.

Mrs. EMILY SAUFLEY and Rowan Saufley left yesterday to visit in Columbia.

Miss MARY MCKINNEY is visiting her cousin, Miss Myra Phelps, in Madison.

Mr. GEORGE H. BRUCE, the commercial evangelist, held services here yesterday.

SAMUEL TUTTLE, of Monticello, has been the guest of his cousin, Henry Orman.

Mr. S. G. LUDAN, of Middlesboro, is visiting relatives here and at Hustonville.

Mrs. J. H. HOOKER and children, Patience and Richard, arrived from Springfield, Mo., yesterday to visit relatives.

LOUIS LANDRAM, Esq., our excellent Lancaster reporter, came over with his father to the Mexican Veteran reunion yesterday.

Mr. W. B. McROBERTS little girl continues very low but it is hoped now that the crises has been reached and that she will recover.

Misses LOTTIE DILLON and Alice Moore, two of Crab Orchard's prettiest girls, attended the opening hop at Linnietta Springs.

Rev. C. E. POWELL, who is assisting in a meeting at Crab Orchard, was on Wednesday's train, bound for Horse Cave to marry a couple.

Miss SUE MITCHELL LASKY has returned prettier than ever from South Kentucky College, at Hopkinsville, where she graduated with the honors of her class.

Miss LOTTIE PERRINE, who has been the guest of Miss Mary McKinney, and who during her stay here made many friends, has returned to her home at Maysville.

Prof. T. C. CURRAN, wife and little daughters, Lillian and Allene, of Kansas City, and Miss Jennie Willmot, of Lexington, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Jones.

OSCAR LAFAYETTE JONES and Thurlox Weed Jones, sons of Cyrus W. Jones, of this county, are among the graduates at Central University this session. They are both very promising young men.

E. C. WALTON received a dispatch yesterday from Richmond, Va., from his brother-in-law, Mr. I. N. Vaughan, stating that his wife, who is on a visit there, was very ill. Mr. Walton left by the first train for her bedside.

R. D. WILLIAMS, of Mt. Vernon, won the medal in the oratorical contest between the literary societies at Centre College. His subject was, "National Ideals," and it was as finely delivered as it was admirably composed. Hurrah for Dick! His friends knew he would get there and they are proud of it and him Bent Goodloe, of Danville, won the second prize.

Mrs. L. A. WOOD, of Covington, formerly of Louisville, and her granddaughter, Miss Alma G. Robb, of St. Louis, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jones.

We enjoyed a call from them Tuesday when we were pleased to become acquainted with Miss Alma, who inherits to a marked degree the virtues and graces which make her mother, an old time friend of the writer, one of the most charming women he ever knew.

CITY AND VICINITY.

New cabbage, new potatoes and new everything at Zimmer's.

Buggy tops re-covered and repaired by DeNardi, the carriage and sign painter.

When you want anything in the jewelry line at rock bottom prices go to Danks Jeweler.

A. H. BARTIN, of the East End, has a fine boy at his house, and he says he is stronger prohibitionist than himself.

Don't forget the Lincoln County Fair, July 27 and 28. Also bear in mind the $300 saddle purse and the several rich sweepstake rings.

My entire stock of Walter A. Wood machine repairs can be found at McKinney Bros. Will be sold cheap and for the cash. J. B. Foster.

Our reading matter is somewhat abbreviated this issue, owing to the influx of advertisements, but as we gave 30-odd columns in each of our last editions, we do not feel that an apology is necessary.

A. B. ROBERTSON & BRO., Danville, believe in advertising and they carry their faith into practice. Read their list on this page and you will be convinced that their prices are the lowest as their goods are the best in the market.

The C. S. R. R. is putting in a "Y" at Moreland and coal chutes for supplying engines with coal have already been completed. The people of that place are looking forward to other improvements there and a small "boom" is anticipated.

BINDER twine for sale cheap. J. H. Baughman.

Five different sizes Leonard ice chests. Will save you 200 per cent. of your ice bill. W. H. Wearen & Co.

JOHN B. MERRISON, a life-long democrat and a good man for the place, is a candidate for jailer. He would greatly appreciate your assistance.

I HAVE opened a blacksmith and buggy and wagon repair shop back of Yeager & Yeager's livery stable and ask a portion of the patronage of the people of this vicinity. J. G. Atkins.

A CRAYON picture, "On the Waters," and in a gilt frame, was taken from the College by mistake. The person having it will greatly oblige Miss Pearl Burnside by leaving it at the Myers House.

A MEETING of the citizens of Stanford is called for to-night, 10th, at Old Fellows' Hall to take steps to encourage manufactures to locate here, and all public spirited citizens are invited to give aid and benefit by their presence.

THE COURT of Appeals has reversed the decision of the Lincoln Circuit Court in the case of Dr. W. M. Dooreys vs. Judge W. E. Varmon and the 60 cent school tax in the Crab Orchard Orchard district will not be collected. Miller & Owsley represented the appellant.

Mrs. J. R. WARREN has received notice of the death of her grand daughter, Hallie S., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Dawson, which occurred at Cleveland, O., a few days ago. Deceased was a lovely girl of 16, the idol of her parents and the favorite of all her friends.

AN attache of this office lost an overcoat between here and Crab Orchard last week. A two-line notice was inserted in Friday's paper and Saturday a note from Mr. John McClure informed him that he had found it. The moral of the story is that advertising pays, especially if you advertise in the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

WANTED.—To sell cheap for cash, ceiling, siding, flooring, base casings, mouldings, framing and fencing, and all kinds of yellow poplar, pine and white oak lumber. Dressed lumber and building materials a specialty, and for cash we will knock the bottom out on low prices. For prices address The Dillon Manufacturing Co., Dillon, Ky.

MISS HELEN SAUFLEY was the first to respond to our call for volunteers to decorate the Opera House stage in honor of the Mexican veterans, and to her, Mrs. S. P. Stagg, Mrs. J. W. Hayden, Misses Mattie and Nannie VanDeveer, Julia Peyton and others we are indebted for the most artistic display of flowers, evergreens, flags, other bunting, &c.

An oversight prevented us from mentioning in our last issue the Academical Oratorical Contest at Harrodsburg. The first medal was won by Charles Tabler, of Harrodsburg, and the second by Raymond Frisbie, of Cynthia. James Saufley, who represented the Stanford school, was declared the third best declaimer, though he is but 13 and all the other boys, nine in all, 17 and 18 years of age.

NEARLY every paper in the State has had a sensational account of the alleged lawlessness of J. J. Nathan and James Belden, at Shelby City last Sunday, but there are scarcely any grounds for it. At their trial it was shown that they were guilty only of fast driving on the streets and two of them were fined a small amount for it. They are generally well behaved young men and are much chagrined that they should have allowed themselves to have committed any unseemly act.

THE Linnietta Springs Opening Hop was a very brilliant affair. A large number of young people were present and they enjoyed the dance till an EARLY hour. The young proprietor, Mr. Jas. D. Shelby, did everything in his power to make his guests have a good time and how well he succeeded let each testify. Those who attended from here were Misses Louis Tipton, Gertrude Howard, Annie Hale, Mary Davison Daddera, and Messrs. Yeager, Wearen, Smiley, Engleman and an L. J. reporter.

The male members of the "kid club" gave their second semi-annual party at George Ellis' home on Somerset street Monday night and had the biggest kind of a time. The night was lovely, some 60 couples of happy young people were on hand, nothing had been left undone that would add to the delectation of the guests and there was not a single incident to mar the pleasure of the occasion. Half of the boys of the club, ably assisted by the Misses Ellis, entertained before lunch and the other half, also assisted by the same young ladies, performed very creditably that duty afterward. An excellent lunch was served at 11:30, and it goes without saying that full justice was done it. Dancing, cards, tete-a-tetes and the like were indulged in and it was far past the solemn hour of midnight when the merry crowd departed. The visiting guests were Misses Myrtle Wildes, Nannie Harris, Lillie Grant and Lizzie Thompson and Messrs. Frisbie, Marksbury, Harris, Herndon and Herndon, Lancaster; Miss Mamie Dunn and Messrs. Harlan, Baughman, Robinson, Danville; Miss Annie Bright, Hubble, and Miss Eva Steger, Crab Orchard.

The Rainbow Club entertained at Miss Ethyl Beazley's Wednesday night, when more than 100 of the younger ladies and gentlemen enjoyed the best time of their lives. The Club is composed of Misses Bess Woods, Annie Engleman, Sue Woods, Cooper Feland, Pearl Burnside, Edna Courts, Glenn Bibb, Maggie Bright, Ethyl Beazley and Lou Menefee, and all acted as entertainers and in a graceful manner made their guests feel that it was good to be there. A handsome lunch, consisting of salads, fruits, confections, nuts, cakes and ices, was served about midnight and while there was a sufficient quantity and to spare, it could not be said after the onslaught of the hungry young people, as on an occasion referred to in Sacred History, that there were taken up seven basketsful. The evening was so delightfully spent that it was 3 o'clock before the guests could get their consent to tear themselves away and then it was with deep regret that they quitted the happy scene. Miss Ethyl was thanked on all sides for the charming manner in which she dispensed the hospitalities of her home and she and the other "Rainbows" will be remembered by those present when the hearts now young and happy have seared with age.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of Mack Ferrell for the murder of Sam Engleman on the night of May 8th was called Wednesday and both sides being ready, the selection of a jury commenced. The judge had ordered 100 men summoned and they were here almost to a man. Three of the jurors were obtained from the standing jury and after 94 men had been examined as to their qualification, the last of the panel was obtained and it is as follows: Isaac Herrin, J. M. Hubble, Richard Bibb, Gabe Hughes, W. G. Routen, C. F. Epperson, C. C. Bishop, Thomas Best, H. B. Floyd, David Riffe, David Allen, John C. Sudduth. The month's confinement in jail has had no visible effect on the prisoner, who is apparently the most unconcerned man in the court room. He is represented by W. H. Miller, W. G. Welch, T. P. Hill and P. M. McRoberts, while Commonwealth Attorney J. S. Owsley, Jr., is assisted by Senator R. J. Breckinridge, R. C. Warren and J. B. Paxton.

The Commonwealth concluded its testimony in chief by noon yesterday and the court adjourned to join in the exercises in honor of the Mexican veterans. The case presented by the prosecution does not differ materially from that adduced at the examining trial, though the defense claims that it is not near as severe. From Col. Welch's statement, which was a very strong one, the defence will endeavor to prove that the trouble was between John W. Bright and Ferrell and that Ferrell shot Engleman when he rose to take Bright's part, with his hand on a pistol half drawn out. It will remain to be seen whether it can be done or not. The testimony for the defense will likely occupy all of to-day and the arguments will not in all probability begin before to-morrow.

Afterward Ferrell and several witnesses testified in his behalf, but even the prisoner's own testimony was very damaging to him.

F. L. Clifford, late depot agent here, was acquitted of embezzlement on peremptory instructions of the court. He was charged with misappropriating $770 of the L. & N. funds. There was a defect in the indictment against him for embezzling the funds of the Adams Express Co. and the matter was re-submitted to the grand jury.
