BLUEGRASS BRIDES.

The Draper Family Come to Kentucky for Their Wives.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The marriage of Lieut. Arthur Joy Draper, son of Ambassador William F. Draper, to Miss Lillie Duncan Yearnes, of Lexington, Ky., has been set for September 1st. Gen. and Mrs. Draper are expected to be present. Gen. Draper started the Kentucky matrimonial episode in his family by marrying Miss Annie Preston, twelve years ago. His brother, George Draper, married Miss Jessie Preston, a sister to the bride of Gen. Draper. The Preston women were daughters of the noted Gen. William Preston, residing at Lexington, and were far famed for beauty.

Gen. Draper being absent when George Draper went to Kentucky to claim his bride, George Otis Draper, the oldest son of Gen. Draper, accompanied his uncle. George Otis was in turn captured by a Kentucky beauty in the person of Miss Lillie Duncan, the second daughter of Mayor Henry T. Duncan, of the city of Lexington. In less than six months George Otis was married to Miss Duncan. Arthur Joy accompanied his brother, and was his best man.

He remembers stopping on the front lawn of the Duncan home to kiss a joyful maid, the little rosy cheeked girl of Banker Voorhies, a cousin to his mother's bride. Last year he was with the girl's brother, Capt. Gordon Voorhies, fighting Spaniards in Porto Rico. When he returned home Miss Voorhies, now a blushing girl of nineteen, was at his bedside, home via the 100 train. It was a case of love at first sight.

The wedding will take place September 6, at the Voorhies residence in Lexington, where there will be an assemblage of famous people from every part of the country.

BELL WAS HELD

Was Identified by Assistant Postmaster Fisher.

Will Be Tried Here in November Next—Now in Jail at Springfield.

Assistant Postmaster John Fisher and Postman Charles Holliday this morning returned from East St. Louis, where they went to testify against Jerry A. Bell, the Paducah negro in jail there charged with fraudulently collecting money from the postoffice here, on a money order in favor of J. A. Bell, white.

The officials identified him very readily as the same man to whom the letter was delivered, as well as the man who appeared at the postoffice, induced the order and collected the $10.

Bell, however, denied it all, and said he never saw any of them before and never collected a cent on a money order in his life.

He was held to answer and ordered to jail at Springfield, Ill., where he will remain until the next November term of court here unless he gives bail. He will then be tried before Judge Evans.

NO ADDITIONAL

Board of Education Will Be Limited in Its Demands.

How Money Will Be Spayed in Cities of This Second Class.

A great many of the taxpayers have been led to believe by those opposed to Paducah going into cities of the second class that it will cost the city about $10,000 a year more to pay expenses than under the present charter. This is not true.

Under the second class city charter, the board of education, which under the present charter can get any amount it demands not exceeding fifty cents on the $100—and it never asks for less than $100, which will save the city at least $10,000 a year and at the same time make the board more economical in its expenditures, and prevent the erection of $75,000 buildings that could probably be built for much less, and which, in addition, are not needed at present.

A CLOSE CALL

Mail Agent W. H. Linck Has a Very Narrow Escape.

Was in a Train That Turned Over Near St. Louis Yesterday Morning.

Mail Agent W. H. Linck, of Jefferson street, came in this morning a day behind time. He was extremely glad to get here at all, however, as he was on the flyer that was turned over on the Illinois Central yesterday morning and came near being killed. He was shaken up pretty badly, and received painful bruises, but was happy to get off so light. The fireman and another man, as reported yesterday, were killed.

Mr. Linck leaves St. Louis on the fast train, which overtakes the regular passenger line in Paducah at 2:30 every afternoon, at Carbondale, Ill., and transfers the mail and agent to the regular passenger train.

Mr. Linck was the agent and his train was turned over before it reached Carbondale and overtook the regular passenger on which he comes into Paducah every day. He and the mail accordingly did not reach Paducah until this morning. The cause of the wreck, it seems, was that the engine was too light for the train.

PLOT FOILED.

Convicts in the Penitentiary Plan to Escape, But Are Betrayed.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 19.—A desperate plan, conceived by one of the most desperate convicts in the Frankfort penitentiary, to kill the guards and foreman in the shoe department, rob them of their arms and make a dash for liberty, failed yesterday. The leader, a Morgan county desperado, had with him eight others, and all serving life sentences for murder.

There are 200 men employed in the shoe factory, and those, and a part of those in the chair shops, were to follow their dash for liberty out of the prison walls. The confederates had been working on their plans for weeks, and at 12 o'clock Monday was the time set for them to do their bloody work.

They had secured knives, which they carried concealed about their clothes, and the ringing of the noon bell was to have been the signal for them to assault and kill Foreman Thomas, of the shoe factory, and Guards Spencer, Lane, Hunter, H. G. Field and Sipple, and after robbing them of their pistols and Winchester, to dash out of the rear gate, followed by the 200 men in that end of the big prison.

Twenty minutes before the appointed time Warden Lillard and several of his most trusted shoe men walked into the shoe department, heavily armed, and one by one, Brooks, Hatfield and their followers were told that they were wanted at the cell-house. The others were warned to stand in their tracks under pain of death, and the desperados, realizing that the officials knew what they were doing, took up their sudden march to the cell-house, where they were searched and relieved of their knives and improvised weapons, which they expected to use with deadly effect.

The shoe factory, where the principal part of the plot was to have been carried out, is disconnected from the main part of the prison and is surrounded by a big wooden stockade. From the foot to this there is easy access to the street, and, as only four or five guards are employed there, this department was well adapted to the carrying out of the desperate plan.

A strike at the Coal Creek and Jellison mines, near Knoxville, Tenn., seems imminent. There have been very serious mine strikes at these mines in the past.

San Salvador is in a state of siege because of revolutionary plotting.

The war department will pay no attention to the newspaper correspondents in the Philippines. London papers are especially vigorous in condemning the administration and commending the course of the correspondents.

OPENS TOMORROW

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 19.—The international conference of the Epworth league which opens tomorrow promises to be as big a religious demonstration as the most enthusiastic had anticipated. Delegates are being assigned comfortable quarters as fast as they arrive. Among the notable visitors may be mentioned Bishop C. H. Fowler, General John B. Gordon, President Rogers of Northwestern university, Bishop Thoburn of India, Bishop Doane, Bishop John F. Hurst of Washington, D. C., Bishop Fitzgerald of Nashville, Rev. G. J. ## NEW OFFICE BUILDING

One of the Finest in the State to Be at Fourth and Broadway.

Friedman & Keiler Will Erect It at Once—Thirty New Office Rooms to It.

Today by day some new enterprise or industry springs up to mark the progress of Paducah, and steadily the most important building enterprises of the year will be the new office building to be erected at Fourth and Broadway within the next three months by Messrs. Jos. L. Friedman and John W. Keiler, two of Paducah's best enterprise builders.

The new building will take in the present buffet, barber shop and Kiehl cigar store, and the building just vacated by the Paducah Water company, on South Fourth street. It will be several stories high, and will be built of fine brick, with every modern improvement, including electric elevators, hot and cold water, toilet rooms, electric bells and speaking tubes, electric lights and every other modern convenience and improvement. The ground floor will be a model of perfection, but it is not yet given out by what it will be occupied. There will be about thirty office rooms in the building, and the plans and charts will be made public this week, and the contract let this week.

Work will probably have begun on the new building by the first of next week, and it will be finished as rapidly as possible. The gentlemen do not know what the approximate cost will be, but judging from the magnificent character of building they contemplate it will cost many thousands of dollars.

The office will be a convenience as well as an ornament, and will be a great credit to Paducah. As the plans are given out from time to time the Sun will give them to the public.

GATHERING IN

Democrats Convening in Chicago to Hold a Pow-wow.

The National Committee Meets Tomorrow to Prepare for Next Year's Campaign.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 19.—The hotels are filling up with the masses of prominent Democrats from all parts of the country who are gathering for the meeting tomorrow of the national committee and the one or two important political pow-wows that are scheduled to be held on the side. Prominent among those who have already arrived or who are expected to put in an appearance before tonight are Senator Tillman of South Carolina, A. W. McInnes, of Utah, William H. White, of Washington, and D. J. Campion of Michigan, a lot of whom are down for addresses at the convention to be held at the Auditorium tomorrow night.

Representatives of the Missouri Democracy are much in evidence. According to reports they bring with them a bank check for $50,000 to go into the National Democratic campaign fund on condition that Kansas City is selected as the place for the national convention. To win out, however, the Missouri city must successfully buck against the claims of Denver, Chicago, Omaha, Pittsburg and one or two other cities, a lot of whom are expected to have big delegations on hand provided with the wherewithal to contest for the convention.

Those who have arrived are exceedingly reticent as to the probable work of the committee meeting, but the opinion is generally reckoned that the committee will not take up matters of issues, policy, platform or candidates. Notwithstanding this the Ohio Valley Bimetallite League has sent a strong delegation which will use its utmost endeavors to have the committee place itself on record on the silver question.
