WANTED TO GET OUT

Ed Lindsey is Wapiti in Marshall County.

He Was One of the Conspirators in the Attempted Jail Break.

If Ed Lindsey is not convicted here of robbery when he is tried next week, he will be transferred to the Benton jail. He is wanted there on a charge and was indicted together with several others at the last term of the Marshall county circuit court.

A bench warrant was received by Sheriff Rogers this morning for Lindsey on a charge of confederating and conspiring to liberate the prisoners in the county jail at Benton.

In the same warrant and indictment, Horace Powell, Joe Daniel, M. V. Powell and Walter Lindsey are charged with implication in the same conspiracy. It is alleged that early in the year they attempted to form a conspiracy, and did form one, to let all the prisoners out of the Benton jail, especially Horace Powell and Walter Lindsey, who are held on charges of grand larceny and house breaking.

The two latter were brought to the city for safe keeping, and are now in jail charged, in addition to the Marshall county offenses, with breaking into the postoffice at Calvert City.

Lindsey is acquitted here at his preliminary trial he will be remanded to jail on the bench warrant.

The City of Memphis in fine repair left for St. Louis from Memphis yesterday at 5 p. m.

Special to Globe-Democrat says: Wide racing for this post Wednesday night the incoming steamers Goanths and Cherokee collided in broad water near Turkey Point. At the time of the accident Pilot John War on was handling the Cherokee and she ran into the Columbia. The Cherokee, being a steel hull boat, suffered but little damage. The Columbia, however, was damaged to the amount of nearly $200. Much excitement prevailed among the passengers of both steamers, but no casualties were reported. The case will be tried before government authorities.

Globe-Democrat of yesterday says: Capt. Hunter Ben Jenkins was presented with an elegant pin cushion mounted on highly polished brass and a hoof of a Jersey cow. It was made by a Capt. D. M. Morris, who manufactures such ornaments as a pastime and is very skillful.

Supervising Inspector General Inmont, in his annual report, comments on the fact that no lives were lost on the excursion steamers in the United States on the Fourth of July, although it was estimated that one-third more persons patronized the boats this year than ever before.

The J. B. Richardson got off with nice business on schedule time for Cairo this morning.

The steamer Tennessee will depart for Tennessee river this afternoon at 5 o'clock. She has a good trip. Capt. King Hale says he will have his boat crowded with people for the carnival here on the return from Tennessee river next Thursday.

The Bab Dudley from Evansville arrived and departed on return trip today. She left here with good business.

The City of Golconda left here on Monday today with all the freight she could "pack" on the present water.

COAL ADVANCED.

To the Public: Owing to the increased cost of producing coal and the unprecedented demand for our coal elsewhere, we see no good reason why we should continue selling coal here at less than cost. No one can ship coal here by rail as we are now doing and get out even selling lump coal at 8 cents per bushel. Hereafter our price for lump coal will be 10 CENTS PER BUSHEL, and 9 CENTS FOR NUT. All orders on our books unfilled will be filled at 8 cents per bushel for lump and 7 cents for nut. Respectfully,

PADUCAH COAL AND MINING CO. ISAAC REESE, Sec. and Treas.
