THURSDAY, MAR. 11, 1897.

This perille attempt of this morning's "Register" to slur Mr. Fisher is wholly lacking in wit and point.

JIM CORBETT is said to be practicing a number of new upper cuts by which he expects to put a quietus on his boastful antagonist.

A REIGN of terror has grown out of the shooting of Deputy Marshal Byrd in Breathitt county.

The caucus of the Republican members of the next House will be held next Saturday to nominate candidates for the offices.

SILVER coinage is not the bugaboo some would have others think.

It is a popular claim of the trusts that they have benefited the people by reducing prices.

THE activity and strength of the Socialists or People's party of Germany bids fair seriously to courtial the powers and prestige of the emperor before many years.

THE disposition of the new administration to protect the lives and liberties of Americans in Cuba more perfectly than has heretofore been done was made known to the Spanish government by Minister De Lome.

beheld Sylvester Seovel prompt action for redress would certainly be taken. The result was electrical. Seovel is now at liberty.

From a dispatch to the Louisville "Times" it appears that Mr. Happy escaped removal by only one vote. Governor Bradley moved that his resignation be requested.

CONSEL GENERAL EEK has been assured by Secretary Sherman that he will receive the support of the government in all reasonable demands made upon the Spanish authorities in Cuba.

SECRETARY SHERMAN has asked the Spanish government to issue orders providing for a uniform policy in Cuba with reference to American citizens.

THE arbitration treaty is again in committee. With the death of the fifty-fourth congress all unfinished legislation of course failed.

A BUSINESS-LIKE start has already been made by the new administration in the matter of testing the desirability and profit of the beet sugar industry in this country.

COLORED citizens of Louisville held a monster anti-lynching demonstration Tuesday night. Quite a large number of white people attended the meeting and gave their countenance to the movement.

POSTMASTER GENERAL GARY is of the opinion that the sound money Democracy may congratulate themselves on having lent their aid to the election of Mr. McKinley.
