WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

Detective J. K. Greer is authorized for the assertion that he had not even thought in fifty years past, of Cap Stubbs, the man the "Register" and "News" said he recently located at Poplar Bluff, Mo., for a murder committed 25 years ago in Livingston county. It now develops, furthermore, that Constable Anderson Miller, reported in the same papers as having gone after the murderer, had never even heard of the man. Such is the journalism practiced by those papers. Some reporters misrepresent through ignorance, and others because they don't care.

Speaking of bicycles, the Paducah association deserves great credit and commendation for its perseverance and success, after so many discouragements and failures in its almost every undertaking. Never has a successful meet been given here, and never have the people taken kindly to subscriptions raised for building the proper kind of a track.

Sanitary Officer Meacham was out near the "Y" a day or two ago, when he ran over a new water bucket setting under a tree. The bucket, upon investigation, was found to contain pie of several varieties, ham, eggs, bread and last, but not least, a pair of socks and two handkerchiefs, evidently the property of some wandering, weary Willie.
