FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
J. G. CRILL,
OF Pike County.

COM. OF KENTUCKY VS. E. H. WOODALL.
Charged as an Accomplice of Pete Hart and Henry Colbert.

Strict Summary of the Testimony.
Both are held for trial.

The Illinois Legislature passed a compulsory education bill, which requires that all children be educated, very many of whom have not been brought to the schools by compulsion.

It is admitted that if Judge Hendley, the Democratic nominee for Governor carries Ohio for Governor this year, it makes his chances for the Democratic nomination for President next year splendid.

What kind of a Democrat is the man who is ever ready with voice and pen to find fault with the Democratic party and leaders, and has never a word of disparagement for the Republicans. He is what our wicked partner would call a D. P.

Several Kentucky editors are candidates for the Legislature, and these candidates generally meet with severe criticism from the chronic office-seekers. It is a mistake for editors to run for office, but when they do so, they ought to be treated with the same courtesy as other candidates.

The winning tariff plank.

It is also made to feel that the loss of human society will be greatly counterbalanced by the addition of his pure and noble intellect to the intellectual community.

THE CANDID TRUTH.
In all candor, it does appear, that the party leaders are against old Cerro Gordo Williams, and that his great popularity is with the people.

Why is this?
When McCreezy defeated him for Governor, it was an open secret that the party leaders were for McCreezy, and so decided that a majority of the legislature vote—the voice of the people was for Williams.

Why were the leaders against him?
We have no prejudice against party leaders, but on the contrary a due respect for them, because as a rule those who lead men of intelligence, and for all they can give any intelligent reasons for always opposing Williams, perhaps we may approve their opposition.

Why is it that the leaders appear to be arrayed against him, we don't know; nor can we tell why it is that he seems to hold such a place in the affections of the people over other Democrats his equals in ability. But it is so.

THE WARRING TRIP.
Mr. Wilson, for the defense, moved that the witnesses be placed under the rule, and the commonwealth then asked the court to direct the jury to disregard the testimony of the witnesses and instruct them to acquit the defendant.
