Will you heed the warning; the signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption? Ask yourself if you can afford, for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Prize Fight.

A prize fight took place about two o'clock Sunday morning in Penn's barn, near Georgetown between Tom Ward, of Cincinnati, who has been making his home in this city for a year past, and Otis Hester, of Covington. The mill was arranged by some sports in this city, who put up a purse of two hundred dollars—one hundred and fifty dollars to the winner and fifty dollars to the loser—in order to induce the two men to hammer each other up.

The party left this city about ten o'clock Saturday night, and it is said every vehicle in the livery stables here were brought into requisition to convey them to the scene of the fight. Twenty-one rounds are said to have been fought and Ward was declared the winner, though both men were badly used up. Skin-tight gloves were used, and the fight was according to the Marquise of Queensbury rules. Ward returned here after the fight, but has been keeping himself very shady since, and it is said has disappeared entirely.

It is remarkable how so many people know all the particulars of the fight, and yet at the same time everyone of them claim to have been in the city when the fight is said to have taken place.

Hester, the fellow who got licked, made a vigorous kick when he got home, as is shown by the following from the Covington Commonwealth:

Ottie Hester and his trainer both are loud and bitter in their complaints at the alleged sports who were at the scientific contest between Hester and Ward at Georgetown. Hester, the Covington boy, had Ward licked after the first round, when those who had put up a few dollars, pulled and poked their revolvers in the little Covington lad's face, and threatened to let out his lights if he did not give in and let Ward win.

The two boys had gone there expecting to meet gentlemen, but run into a gang that would not stand comparison with Bucktown rowdies or Millcreek toughs. Hester can knock the life out of Ward, and the Occidental Club of this city will put up $500 to that effect, but the fight must take place among sports and not sharks.

The Grippe Raging in Alabama.

"La grippe is raging here, and I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be a certain cure for it," says W. G. Johns, of Trimble, Cullman Co., Ala. Mr. Johns ordered a supply of the Remedy to be shipped by express as quickly as possible. There is no question but this Remedy is of great value in the treatment of the grip especially on account of its counteracting any tendency of the disease towards pneumonia. It is also a prompt and certain cure for the cough which usually follows an attack of the grip. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. GAYLE, Druggist. 26-4t.

Death of Mr. Crumbaugh.

On another page of this paper appears a notice of Mr. John Crumbaugh falling into the fire and burning himself, and since that form went to press Mr. Crumbaugh has passed away. He died from his injuries yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, aged 83 years. Mr. Crumbaugh was born in Fayette county, but has been a resident of this city for over sixty years. He raised a large family of children to man and womanhood and all of them except one, Mr. Henry Crumbaugh, of Shelby county, have preceded him to the tomb. The aged partner of the joys and sorrows of his long life still survives him, and to her go out the hearts of our citizens in deepest sympathy.

"Oh speak, ye ghosts of the dead, and say what killed you?" The answer came, borne on the fierce east wind; "Cold! cold! cold!" Then let us be thankful that since then, we have Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.
