HUDSON, HUMPHRIES & CASSELL!

Adjourned.

The grand jury made their final report to the court on Thursday and adjourned. They found very few indictments, although they were in session ten days.

Married.

Mr. James Gordon and Miss Annie Betts were married at the residence of Mr. James Betts, father of the bride, on New street, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, by Rev. W. G. Neville.

A carpenter by the name of M. S. Powers fell from the roof of a house in East Des Moines, Iowa, and sustained a painful and serious sprain of the wrist, which he cured with one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is worth $5 a bottle. It cost him 50 cents. For sale by J. W. Gayle, Druggist. 43 im.

Circuit Court.

Nothing but civil suits have occupied the time of the court this week. On Thursday the juries were dismissed until Tuesday and all criminal cases were postponed until that time.

Discharged.

Mr. H. Fincel, who was arrested for the killing of young Dalley with a trap gun last week, was brought before Judge Ben. G. Williams on Monday for an examining trial, and discharged on motion of the County Attorney.

The Trouble Over.

A prominent man in town exclaimed the other day: "My wife has been wearing out her life from the effect of dyspepsia, liver complaint and indigestion. Her case baffled the skill of our best physicians. After using three packages of Aunt Fanny's Health Restorer she is almost entirely well." Keep your blood in a healthy condition by the use of this great vegetable compound. Call on Chapman & Williams and get a trial package free. Large size 50c. 29

The Clay Banks.

The Clay Bank Club will give their eighth annual picnic at Walcutt's spring, two miles up the river, on Monday, and we dare say no party which leaves the city on that day to enjoy the Fourth will have more real genuine pleasure than the Clay Bankers. They are few in number, but they always manage to have oodles of fun.

Vacancies Filled.

Mr. W. S. Dehoney tendered his resignation as Commissioner of the Feeble-minded Institute to the Governor on Wednesday, after a service of eighteen years in the position. This left two vacancies in the Board, Mr. J. W. Pruett having resigned several weeks ago, which were filled by the Governor on Thursday, by the appointment of Mr. F. V. Gray and Dr. V. A. Kentenbrun.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

If you want sulphur water, fresh from the Murray well, left at your residence every morning, leave orders at W. H. Averill's drug store, the U. S. Express office or H. R. Williams' grocery. 23-1f.

A Pleasant Affair.

Misses Fannie and Bessie Lewis gave an elegant young ladies lunch at their country home, Belair, near Woodlake, on Wednesday, in honor of Misses Mary Wilson Bell, Annie Bell and Mary Belle Logan, of Shelbyville, and Mary Belle Halley, of Payne's depot. About ten other young ladies of the neighborhood were present, and the occasion was a very enjoyable one.

Free Trade and Protection.

Hon. R. G. Horr, of Wisconsin, and Hon. Richard Hubbard, of Texas, will discuss Protection and Free Trade at the Chautauqua grounds in Lexington on Monday, and all politicians who feel an interest in such matters should go up there to hear them. Mr. Horr will advocate protection to American industries, while Mr. Hubbard will talk for the free trade end.

To our Subscribers.

The SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. B. J. KENDALL Co., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work FREE by sending their address to B. J. KENDALL Co. (and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the Horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada make it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise." 37-1f.

Turned On.

The new incandescent electric light plant of the Capital Gas and Electric Light Co. was gotten into operation Monday and the lights turned on for the first time that night. The merchants who are using them in place of the arc lights are well pleased, as the light is not near so trying upon the eyes.

First of the Season.

Prof. T. M. Turner had roasting ears from his garden on Thursday, and can crow over the early gardeners, as it is not often one can eat corn of his own raising on the 30th of June in this section. It was of the Adams Extra Early variety.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at PHIL. CARPENTER'S Drug Store. 6
