THESE lines to-day,
So short and sweet,
Mean that we've got
Blue-ribbon wheat.

THERE will be a dance at East End Park to-night. Good music and good order.

Two hundred convicts are to be put to work immediately on the water reservoirs at Lexington.

THE Bank of Maysville is to be supplied with new desks and handsome new furniture. That in use now is advertised for sale elsewhere in this paper.

New wheat brought seventy-five cents a bushel in Maysville yesterday. Hundreds of acres in this county will produce as much as forty bushels to the acre.

A WOMAN'S excuse for joining the Mormons was that it was better to be the fifth wife of a man who could support her than the sole wife of a man who couldn't.

WE were shown this morning a sample of Mr. Wm. E. Roe's crop of Fultz wheat. It is very fine and yielded twenty-two bushels to the acre. The crop has not yet been sold.

FRANK YOUNG, the colored boy who was accidentally shot by Wm. Gillaspie, on Saturday, at Carlisle, has since died. A mob of eighty negroes sought to kill Gillaspie, but he escaped.

MR. R. BISSETT'S flower garden, in which he takes much pride, and which contained many costly flowers that can not be replaced, was destroyed by hogs this morning. It is a serious loss to him.

THE Ripley Fair begins August 26th and closes on the 29th. The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will deliver an address on the second day, and other attractions are announced of more than usual interest. It promises to be a very successful meeting of the association.

THE law forbidding garbage to be deposited in the streets of this city is to be rigidly enforced, and a notice to that effect has been printed and posted about town by Mayor January. As the friends of the hogs can no longer claim that they are useful as scavengers why not put them out of the city?

THE Yeoman says: Miss Etna Prather, of Fleming County, a sister of W. V. Prather, appeared yesterday before the State Board of Examiners, and passed a very creditable examination. She was granted the State Diploma, and will prove a valuable addition to the corps of common school teachers.

THE Coolest of the Cool Things on Earth. When the summer heat is raging, the coolest thing to imagine is the feelings of one who draws the first capital prize of $75,000, in the Louisiana State Lottery Company, on an investment of only $5. The next event, the 170th, occurs on Tuesday, July 15, when $265,500 will be scattered broadcast. M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., will give all information desired.

THE business of Messrs. J. H. Hall & Co., proprietors of the Eagle Plow Works, will hereafter be conducted by a joint stock company, composed of the present members of the firm, under the name of The James H. Hall Plow Company. The organization was effected on the 1st of July, under a charter obtained from the Legislature in 1878. The business under the careful and intelligent management of Mr. Hall, aided by his sons, has been a very successful one and the works are second in importance to none in the West. They were established by Mr. Hall in 1840.

CHICAGO.

Latest News from the Democratic Convention.

Special to DAILY BULLETIN. CHICAGO, July 8.—Never in the previous history of the city was there more political enthusiasm among the populace. The Exposition building where the convention is held was thronged with people long before the proceedings opened. At 12:48 p. m., the Chairman of the National Committee called the convention to order and introduced Governor Hubbard, of Texas, who was selected temporary chairman without opposition. He delivered a stirring address bitterly arraignment the Republican party. The speech evoked great applause, especially when the fraud of 1876 was referred to. Smiley, of Vermont, moved that the rules of the last convention be adopted. Grady, a Tammanite, submitted an amendment against permitting the forcing of the unit rule. Much excitement ensued. Fellows declared that foul play was intended and challenged the right of the convention to defeat the will of New York. A point of order was made that the discussion of the unit rule was out of order during the temporary organization, but the chair ruled it in order and Tammany thus scored the first success. A heated debate is now progressing.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The convention for two hours has been discussing Grady's amendment. Kelly and Fellows, from the same district in New York, had a war of words, frequently interrupted by cheers and hisses. Kelly claims to represent one wing of the Democracy and Fellows the other. The previous question was ordered and the call of States proceeded. Despite the frantic efforts of Tammany the chair decided that New York should vote as a unit. Accordingly there was a majority against the amendment and it was lost.

THE election of the public school teachers for No. 100 resulted as follows: C. G. Harris, principal teacher; Miss Maria J. Power, first assistant; Miss Carrie J. Smith, second assistant. What He Thought He Had Better go For.

"Go for somebody, quick! There's a bug down my back!" cried a young girl to her lover in the park Wednesday evening.

"Hahn't I better go for the bug! he suggested.

Then she fainted dead away, and when she had unswollen the bug had finished its evening stroll and gone home.

Something for Women to Do.

Helen Williams in Chicago Express. If I were on a farm I should raise quantities of currents and other small fruits. These I would put up in sugar as jellies, jams, marmalade, etc., and I would make them so beautiful in appearance and so free from the deleterious stuffs now mixed with these things as we buy them in the market, that I would create a sale for them on their own merit, so that they would command the best prices going. This is woman's work, and would secure independence to many of them if industriously carried out.

A Paris correspondent says:—You must have heard in connection with the affair of the Meissonier portrait a good deal about Mrs. Mackay, and, I dare say, would like to hear more. Mrs. Mackay has a face and figure which Dickens would have liked to have sketched in one of his genial and half-sentimental moods. It would be outrageously false to say she had classic beauty, or anything statuesque beyond good proportions. She is not tall, she is not imposing, but she has a prettily rounded figure, that looks well in plain dress or fine clothes, freshness piquancy, transparency of disposition, and nothing that shows egotistical self-assertion or self worship. Her features are well shaped and regular, though not classical, and her eyes are full bluish-gray, and candid.

A New Court Officer.

A legal construction walked into a court-room. "Did you send for me, judge?" "Yes. Do you want a good easy position?" "Of course I do." "Well, then, go and stand by the outer door and when a woman with a bandage about her eyes and a set of scales in her hands comes up, tell her she can't come in." "Is that all?" "That's all. It's a pretty soft job. I don't think she will venture to come around here, but if she should I'd like to have you handy to shoo her away." "Who is she, anyway, judge? What's her name?" "Well, it's so long since I've heard it, blamed if it hasn't slipped my memory."

Lost Faith in Physicians.

There are innumerable instances where cures have been effected by Scoville's Sarsaparilla, or Blood and Liver Syrup, for all diseases of the blood, when they had been given over by their physicians. It is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public, and as it is prepared with the greatest care, as a specific for certain diseases, it is no wonder that it should be more effectual than hastily written and carelessly prepared prescriptions. Take this medicine for all disorders arising from impure blood. It is enclosed by leading professional men.
