

POLITICAL POTPOURRI.

Blaine at Cleveland-Purcell Will Support Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 27.—The city is decorated with flags and banners in honor of Blaine and Logan's visit. As the Tuscarawas train bearing Logan came up to the Union Depot at 2:35 p. m., the spacious building was filled and the hill-tops were thronged to see the statesman.

A detachment of twelve policemen, the light artillery and the veteran corps were drawn up within the depot to receive him. Outside the depot eight hundred veteran soldiers and sailors wearing badges stood in line. The band struck up a patriotic air as the train rolled up and the crowd cheered.

Logan stepped from the platform in company with ex-Mayor Herrick. General Leggett's carriage awaited him at the depot entrance. The procession moved up Water street to Superior. The employees of the numerous wholesale houses along the route cheered lustily. Logan raised his hat and seemed quite at home among the people.

He was escorted to General Leggett's residence. Owing to the fact that the Lake Shore train on which Mr. Blaine was to arrive from Erie at 7:30 p. m., for some reason unknown, arrived at 7 p. m., just half an hour ahead of time, was not met at the depot by the Young Men's Republican Club which was just forming in line at headquarters, but notwithstanding this, upward of 5,000 men and women were on hand to catch a glimpse of the candidate.

The streets were beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns and the buildings were decorated with flags.

When the conveyance which carried Mr. Blaine reached the Kennard House, Hon. Amos Thonas stepped forward and said: "Fellow Citizens—I have the honor to introduce to you our candidate for President of the United States."

Again the cheers rent the air, and finally, when Mr. Blaine was allowed to proceed, he said in a very audible and distinct voice: "I thank you for your cordial welcome to the city of Cleveland, a city I always visit with pleasure and leave with regret. I thank the young men for this grand reception. It is a hopeful sign to see the young men in this year of 1884 taking so active a part in the national canvass. It augurs of good results. I again thank you."

Blaine and Logan met for the first time during the campaign, in the Public Square. It was a stirring event, and when they stood before the crowd of 75,000, the effect was magnificent, and every heart in the vast assembly must have felt a tinge of enthusiasm. Both statesmen reviewed the 15,000 troops, some of whom were mounted.

The gathering on the square was addressed by General Logan, ex-Secretary of the Navy, and General E. F. Noyes.

Aside from the great outdoor meeting, there was another not so large, but no less enthusiastic, held at the Tabernacle, where Hannibal Hamlin, and Judge West, of Ohio, spoke. The speeches were short, "glad to see you—good bye," etc. But even the distinguished visitors seemed to arouse enthusiasm. Taken all in all, to-night's demonstration was one of the largest political meetings ever held in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 29.—Blaine breakfasted with Mrs. Garfield at her residence at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, where he spent the balance of the day, leaving by special train in the late afternoon for Elyria, where he appeared before a large demonstration that had arranged. He returned to this city after the meeting, and became the guest of Mrs. Garfield until Monday morning, when he resumed his Ohio trip from this point West.

General Logan left in the afternoon for Youngstown, to spend Sunday and Monday with Chauncy Andrews, then going to Warren, Ohio, to attend a demonstration there on Tuesday.

Purcell Will Support Cleveland. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Several members of the State Committee are here for the purpose of consulting with Governor Cleveland in regard to the Democratic situation in Monroe County. Members of the Committee state that the interview was highly satisfactory in all respects. It is well known that the purpose of this visit was a reconciliation between Cleveland and Purcell. Mr. Purcell, when approached by a reporter, declined to say anything, but furnished the following letter for publication.

"I have not been a party to any overture, conference or negotiations of any kind, but I learn, and am free to say I am glad to learn, that there has been within the past few days consultations between leading Democrats of this city and county and Governor Cleveland as to the party situation here, with a view of bringing about a union and harmony and justice between men who are members in common and pers in status of a political organization that is contemporaneous with the government in existence, and that never dies. The only remarks I have to make are these: That the efforts to bring about Democratic harmony and Democratic success in Monroe County meet my most hearty approval and will receive my most active cooperation, and my only regret is that they were not made by those upon whom the onus of making them devolved long ago. Better late than never, however. Politics, practical politics is a thing of the future rather than of the past."

BADLY CHOKED. Two Men Strung Up to Make them Confess a Murder. DECATUR, Ind., Sept. 29.—The trial of Charles West for the murder of Amos Becke is in progress. The court room is crowded daily. This morning there is much excitement in town. Last night a mob went to the residence of George Richards, brother of Fred Richards, the condemned murderer, and to Date Lau and took them both out and stretched them up three times. It is thought they know something about the murder. They did not reveal anything, and were let go. The end is not yet.

Nubar Pasha Will be asked to Disgorge. CAIRO, Sept. 29.—The Caisse De La Delta Publique will make a charge before the International Tribunal against Nubar Pasha, Finance Minister, and ask for an order to compel him to restore money which has been in the Egyptian Treasury since the suspension of the liquidation fund. He will also suggest that no more payments from the revenues intended for the sinking fund for the redemption of the united debt be made by the Finance Minister.

Gresham Doesn't Understand Things. WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—It is whispered here that Gresham went away a good deal dissatisfied with the President's treatment of him in regard to the transfer from the Post-office Department to the Treasury. He is said to have told some friends before his departure that he could not understand the President's choice in the matter.

HON. BENJAMIN H. BRISTOW, ex-Secretary of the Treasury under Grant, and a prominent candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, in 1876, defines his position by the public declaration—"I shall vote for Cleveland as an emphatic protest against the nomination of such a man as Mr. Blaine."

It appears that Blaine is directly responsible for the publication of the Cleveland scandal, this complexion having been given to the campaign by Blaine's personal friends and campaign managers after full consultation with him. He threw the first stone, in evident forgetfulness of the fact that he lived in a glass house and a very frail one at that.

PLEURO pneumonia is said to be spreading among the cattle in this State.

WOODFORD County, this State, has a regularly organized band of barn-burners.

POWELL CLAYTON, the corrupt Arkansas carpet bagger, is stumping Ohio for Blaine.

GENERAL ROSECRANS thinks Cleveland will carry California by six thousand majority.

THERE were one hundred and eighty-seven business failures in the United States last week.

"No one will ever know from me that I disposed of a single dollar in Maine," Blaine to Fisher.

At least 25,000 visitors attended the Louisville Exposition Thursday. The great show is booming.

THE Prohibitionists of Ohio are arranging for an active canvass of the State by male and female speakers.

CONFEDERATE soldiers in that section will hold a reunion at Saratoga Springs, Lyon county, Saturday, October, 4th.

THE poll made by the Democratic State Committee of Ohio, shows an increase of 10 per cent. in the Democratic vote of Ohio.

SAYS the New York Herald: "The Cleveland boom is rapidly assuming very large proportions among financial and commercial classes."

THREE executions will take place in Cincinnati during October, viz: Palmer on the 10th, Hoffman on the 24th and Richardson on the 28th.

AMONG the eminent Republican statesmen of the present day Dorsey is about the only one who might confidently be relied upon to beat the Blaine record.

GEN. BUTLER gets twenty-four thousand dollars a year for the rent of his Washington house. This is what it is to be a working man of the Butler kind.

HON. JOB STEVENSON, for three terms a Republican representative in Congress from one of the Cincinnati districts, who is now in Europe, is coming home to take the stump against Blaine.

THE New York world says: Grover Cleveland has not made a single mistake. He has never opened his mouth since his nomination to utter anything that was not sensible, sincere and truthful.

THE Afro-American says: Republicans can bank their pile on the fact that the colored vote is not solidly waiting on them for a wink and a nod. In fact, the colored vote will give the Republicans the hood-wink this fall.

THE Republican majority in Maine has settled down to 15,411. This is official. The majority in 1876 was 15,444; in 1879 it was 21,175. The average has been barely maintained, and it cost the Republicans $265,000 to do that much.

THE Ashland Express says: "We heard it stated on our streets that Mr. Wadsworth, the Republican nominee is a free trader and has made free trade speeches. If this is true what will Republican protectionists think of their candidate?"

THE Courier-Journal remarks: Blaine was particular to compliment Schenectady as a "Dutch town." We shall soon probably hear of his administration for the German accent, a la another distinguished and defeated candidate for the Presidency.

WHILE the New York Tribune pitches into the Democratic party, alleging that it is the "rum party," despatches from Maine show that the Republicans secured indictments against liquor-sellers and then forced them to vote the Republican ticket or go to jail.

It is reported that the columns of the Enquirer are to be closed against "Gath," at least so far as boomer Blaine and denouncing Democrats are concerned. Indeed, it is said the Enquirer is to be thoroughly Democratic until after the November election.

The Iowa Prohibition Law. KEOKUK, Ia., Sept. 29.—The Law and Order League at a meeting appointed a committee of twenty-four persons to wait upon the Mayor and City Marshal to ask them to assist in enforcing the prohibitory liquor law. The members claim that city and other officials hinder or do not lend support to the liquor prosecutions, and threaten to begin proceedings against them.

Fatal Railroad Accident. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 29.—An accident has occurred on the Peoria & Rock Island Road near Dunlap, by which Michael Radigan, engineer, was killed. Robert Roombacher, the fireman, was seriously injured, and a stock man, name unknown, was also seriously injured. The accident was caused by a freight train being unable to ascend a heavy grade, and another freight train running into the rear of the first train. The caboose and a car full of cattle were destroyed by fire.

A Murder Revealed. VAN ALSTYNE, TEXAS, Sept. 29.—The remains of a man, mangled beyond recognition, were found scattered along the railroad track yesterday. The remains were identified as being those of Eli Watts, who had a quarrel with Charles Harper, a saloon-keeper, during the day. Harper attempted to kill Watts. Suspicion was directed toward Harper, who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Watts' father. The engineer of the train which struck Watts declares that the latter was dead when run over.

Eldorado Launched. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—The steamship Eldorado, built for the Southern Development Company, California, was launched from Cramp & Sons' yard at 7:15 Saturday morning. She Had Confidence. Mrs. H. C. Harshbarger, Manor Hill, Huntingdon County, Pa., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.: I have been afflicted for three years, caused by over-work too soon after confinement. My kidneys became seriously affected; could not retain my urine day nor night. It was high colored, thick and bloody. My monthlies had left altogether for fourteen months, during which time I was confined to my bed with a beating in right ovaries. The discharge from the womb was so offensive no one could stay in the room. The urine continued bloody, with pain in voiding it, and when in bed would pass from me in my sleep. I have had three doctors attending me regularly, one for four months, and the third all winter. We had two others in consultation with them, and used twenty bottles of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no good. I then got a bottle of PERUNA, and before I had three-fourths of the bottle taken I quit wetting the bed and could retain the urine sufficient to attend church, which I had not done for three years, and my monthlies came back as natural as ever; indeed, I considered myself a well woman again. Since that time I have had pneumonia. My confidence in PERUNA was so great that I did not send for a doctor. I followed the directions in your 'Ils of Life' and am over it, as well as can be expected of one so delicate as I have been. Others in my neighborhood had the same disease, and among them were strong men, and had the best physicians, and yet died, while I sailed through in safety on PERUNA and MANALIN. I sincerely believe, and would say to all the afflicted in the wide world, that PERUNA and MANALIN are the only two medicines that any one needs in any disease, if used as directed in your book entitled 'The Ills of Life.'

J. E. Fleming, publisher of the New Dominion, Morgantown, W. Va., writes: "Some months since, I received some of your medicine in exchange for advertising. My wife has taken five bottles of it, and has derived great benefit from it."

Mr. M. C. Pershing, Bradenville, Pa., writes: "My wife has been using PERUNA for some time for weak lungs and liver and kidney complaint, and thinks it is doing her great good. Has used only one bottle as yet. Please send your book on the 'Ils of Life,' as we can't get any from our druggist."

Mr. John Denny, Mt. Vernon, O., writes: "We have a large sale in PERUNA. It gives satisfaction."
