THE COMMONWEALTH.

For some time past several Mormon ranches have been holding meetings in the eastern part of Caldwell County, with a view of forming a colony for Utah City, and have succeeded in securing several converts. A few nights ago a party of twelve, near O'Connell's, broke down the door of the house where the preachers were boarding and a note left giving them a short space of time to leave the county.

MR. DORRICK has been appointed fourth-class postmaster at McMillan's, Breckenridge County, vice C. S. Jorjoe, resigned.

MR. BAIN was fatally cut with a knife by Sam Maxwell, during a quarrel over a game of cards, near O'Connell's, Breckenridge County, vice C. S. Jorjoe, resigned.

THE Arlington Ties Works, adjoining the Covington terminus of the suspension bridge, was destroyed a few days ago. The flames had gained considerable headway, and the destruction of the ties department, and all efforts were concentrated to save the timber-work of the bridge. There is but one insurance on a lot of $25,000, owned by Dan McCarthy, of Cincinnati, Dr. Jenkins, of Newport, and Judge Shine, of Covington, are the chief stockholders in the concern, which has but recently been released from the control of a receiver.

The following storekeepers and gaugers were appointed on the 6th for Kentucky: Clay McCandless, storekeeper and gauger for the Fifth District, Louisville; E. J. Barrett, for the Sixth District; Jas. B. Harris, for the Fifth District; John M. Murrell for the Fifth District.

A LOUISVILLE butcher named Edna struck an old man named Knutsen and inflicted injuries from which he can not recover.

GOVERNOR BECKNER has died Wednesday, December 13, at the date of the execution of Heat Head for the murder of James Abernethy, in April, 1889.

CHAS. HOPSON was fatally cut at Hopkinsville, during a difficulty with his brother-in-law.

JOE LANCASTER was killed with an axe at Cadiz.

FRANK ARMSTRONG, the railroad worker, was shot at Lexington by Pat Sullivan, was reported to be dying on the 9th. It was a political shooting.

The following fourth-class postmasters were commissioned for Kentucky on the 7th: J. D. Starks, Brandenburg, Meade County, vice Mrs. M. O. Green, removed; John H. Baker, Clark County, Grayson County, vice Mrs. L. Langley, removed; Miss Annie Beaver, St. Mary's, Marion County, vice H. D. McCrete, removed.

DR. E. C. JONES, Louisville druggist, was presented the other day with a stuffed eagle measuring seven feet from tip to tip, by Mr. J. C. Leisman. The bird was killed recently in Allen County, and is said to be the largest ever captured in this State.

An investigation proves that there is no foundation for the rumor that there was trouble with the gas supply furnished by the Kentucky Rock Gas Company, and that the supply had begun to fall.
