

GREAT OFFER

The Adair County News
The Louisville Post

Home and Farm
24 Page WAR ATLAS

All Three Papers
One Year With
Atlas Included

$3.25

The Atlas Alone is Worth More Than
We Ask For All

This offer is good for January Only

SEND ALL ORDERS TO The Adair County News, Columbia, Ky.

Russell Creek.

Mr. H. F. Smith is quite sick at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crenshaw, Misses Rose and Bess Hunn, Nell Follis and Ella Todd, all of Columbia, were visiting Misses Verna and Lula Todd during the holidays, and all had an enjoyable time skating on the pond near their home.

Messrs. Dessie Cowherd and Branch Sublett, of Romine; Noel Thomas and Robert Caldwell, of Milltown, and Bill Hancock, of Cane Valley, were visiting Will Ed Squires during the holidays.

Misses Stora and Linnie Hutchison, of Mt. Pleasant, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pickett last Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Pickett gave a party to the young people, which was largely attended. All report a nice time and wish for many more like it.

Mr. Alvin Page, son of Mr. Eldridge Page, and Miss Bessie Emma Smith were happily married at the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Smith, last Wednesday, the 30th.

Mr. Sam Curry's two daughters, of St. Marys, Marion Co., are visiting Mr. T. B. Hood's family.

Mr. Billie Todd and sister, Miss Cecil, and Mr. Griffin Chewing, of Romine, Taylor county, were visiting at Mr. John Cundiffs, during the holidays.

Messrs. Hugh Hutchison and Tennie Cundiff, of Mt. Pleasant, Mr. Billie Cundiff, of Camp Knox, Misses Annie and Dora Murray were visiting at Mr. J. R. Cundiffs, during the holidays.

Miss Ruth Squires was visiting at Cane Valley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pickett were visiting in Columbia last week.

Misses Mattie and Mary Young and Miss Elva Murrell and brother, all of Ozark, were visiting Misses Nina and Helen Smith during the holidays.

Bro. Perryman will preach at Hutchison school house the second Saturday night and Sunday. Let every body come out and have a good crowd as the last appointment was to bad for any one too get out.

Miss Mary Caldwell, of Milltown, was visiting Miss Nina Smith last week.

Mr. Ed Triplett and sister, Miss Effie, of Disappointment, and Miss Maud Bradley were visiting at Mr. John Cundiffs last Saturday night.

Rowes X Roads.

Well, Christmas has come and gone agin. The snow was so deep and was so cold Santa did not get in much of a job this time. The quietest time I ever saw for Christmas in this corner.

The boys made the rabbits live hard, while the deep snow was on the ground.

Bill Cook has all of his children, sons-in-law and grandchildren with him this week. What a jolly time they are having cooking and eating.

A young preacher from Indiana, by the name of Brett, took a night with me this week. He was on his way to Manntown to take up work for the U. B. church.

Oscar Beck and family have come in from Illinois. They are here at Hoskin Clarks.

Bill Cook made a flying trip to Russell Springs, this week.

Old aunt Sallie Ann Blakey still remains in very poor health. Lyss Sullivan's wife is on the sick list this week.

52 years ago to-day, I was wounded and captured at the battle of Stone River, Tenn. I was a member of Co., G. 3rd Ky., Infantry. Capt. Sam McKee, of Columbia, was in command of the regiment when we went in to the fight. He was killed in a little while. Dr. Heck Owens, also of Columbia, was taken prisoner with me. We were captured at the Field Hospital across the river. Dr. Owens had just taken off a leg for a lieutenant of Co., F. I think his name was Dan Servants, when the 3rd Georgia cavalry made a charge on the hospital, and took us in. This was Dec. 31, 1862. The 3rd Ky., lost in that battle 117 killed, wounded and missing, so says our history. There is still 10 or 12 of old company G. living yet. I am the youngest. I am 71. So, you see it will all soon be a thing of the past. Boys, meet me in glory.

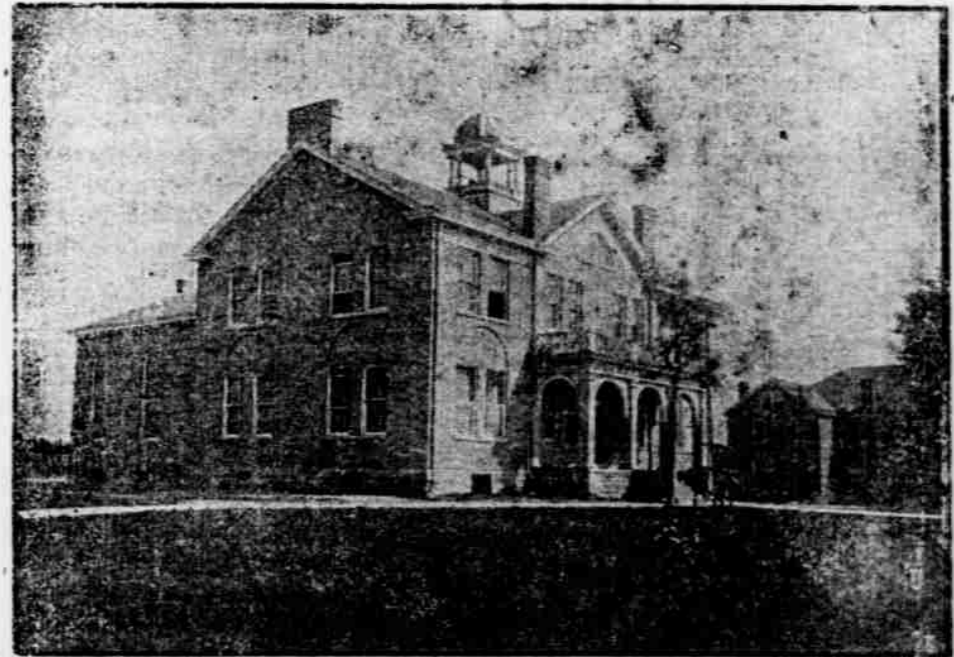

Bro. Frank Turner is here with me on his rounds as a new Presiding Elder. He is doing good preaching.

Bro. Ad Aaron's wife, that died at Glenville, Dec., 31, was brought back up here to Bethel and was buried by the side of her son. Sister Tommie was a good wife and mother and had many friends. She leaves a husband, four daughters and two sons to mourn her loss from them. She has just gone on before. Weep not friends trust in God.

Before this reaches the eyes of its readers, Frank Blakey and Dona Phelps; Vernon Selby and Lillie Pearl Grider will be married at Neadmore No 2. So this winds up Christmas.

Lindsey-Wilson Training School

A Safe Place to Put Your Children

The second term begins Dec. 29, 1914. New classes started in all departments at this time. The teachers class will be organized and all who wish to take this course should enter at the first. We prepare you to teach efficiently as well as to pass the examination.

The dormitories are brick buildings with steam heat, electric lights, baths, water works and other modern improvements. Pupils are under personal supervision of teachers at all times, making the institution an ideal place for work. Largest enrollment in the history of the institution for the fall term.

The teachers and pupils are cordial toward all new-comers and try to make their surroundings pleasant while here. Write and engage a room at once.

COURSES OFFERED.

- |                 |                           |
|-----------------|---------------------------|
| Training School | Music                     |
| Normal          | Expression                |
| Intermediate    | Bookkeeping               |
| Primary         | Shorthand and Typewriting |

For further information address,

Moss & Chandler,
Columbia, Kentucky.

Subscribe for the News and Post