

From Tennessee.

Hohenwald, Apr. 3, 1917.
Dear Editor and friends.—
I am taking this plan to write you, hoping to hear from many of you.
Business has begun to open up to me again. I taught two terms of vocal music, ten nights each, at Oak Grove church. I had taught three terms there when I was here before. I am now teaching at Providence church. This is the fourth term at this place. This is 32 terms I have taught in Lewis county Tenn. This is a live county in singing and will come to the front by and by on many things. It voted for bonds to build roads. Corn is $1.10 to-day. Hens were 20 cents yesterday, eggs 25 cents. This country needs developing. There is the greatest opportunity for trucking. Land is cheap and great iron furnaces in full blast. Tomatoes last year sold at $1.00 per bushel picked off the vines. Everything else in proportion. There is the greatest cattle and hog range here. Hundreds of cattle run at large on the hills. Men are busy cutting R. R. black oak stave bolts and some spokes. Every old chestnut is being cut and shipped to Louisville to manufacture into dye stuff. I am yours ever singing
I. M. Grimsley.

BENJAMIN DARE.

BENJAMIN DARE is 3 years old, a natural saddle horse, 15½ hands high and will measure full 16 hands when he comes to maturity, is a chestnut sorrel of fine form and action—the type that commands the highest price everywhere—a horse of substance and beauty. His pedigree shows him as richly bred in the line of usefulness and fancy as any horse in southern Kentucky, and his size, form, action and manners are in full keeping with his royal breeding. Accepting the fact that like begets like, he is bound to prove a great sire of the kind that is always in demand at fancy prices.

PEDIGREE: Benjamin Dare sired by Jesse Dare, he by Highland Dare 1534, he by Chester Dare 10 he by Black Squirrel 58. Dam, May No. K. 1068, she by Well's Red Squirrel, son of Owsley's Red Squirrel.

This horse will serve a limited number of mares at $25.00 to insure a living colt. Also my two black Jacks will serve at $6.00 and $7.00 to insure living colts. This stock will be attended by Mr. B. F. Polston, a careful man, and will be found at my barn 1½ miles east of Creelsboro.

Mares pastured at $2.00 per month while breeding to stallion. Money due when colt is foaled, mare traded or removed from neighborhood without my consent.

All care will be taken to avoid accidents but will not be responsible should any occur.
