Shimfessel & Waldron.

CAN'T KEEP IT SECRET.
The splendid work of Dr. King's New Life Pills is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, billiousness, jaundice and indigestion. Try them. 25c at Clay City Lumber & Stave Co. store.

Sams Sayings.

There is a good log tide in the Kentucky river.

W. F. McIntosh went to Irvine Wednesday on business.

C. P. McIntosh sold to Pleasant McIntosh one heifer for $12 00.

Rumor says there will be a wedding in the near future. Look out, P. M.

W. H. Wiseman bought of E. M. King last week two steers for $30.00.

Weeden Witt bought a bunch of shotes of R. J. Wilcox last week at 5 cents.

George Cooper, who has been sick quite a while, is some better at this writing.

Joseph Tuttle, of Sams, bought of Henry Tuggle last week four shotes for $9 00.

Miss Millie McIntosh visited her brother, Millard McIntosh, near Irvine last week.

Willie Abney has moved into the house with his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Abney.

J. W. Smith, of Sams, bought at H. C. Chambers' sale two steers and a heifer for $51 75.

Henry Salyers, of White Oak, visited his daughter, Mrs. Willie McIntosh, last Sunday.

Seatt McIntosh has moved to Amanda Winburn's farm near W. H. Wiseman's store.

As the old adage has it, thunder in February will bring frost the same date in May.

Victor Witt and Willie White, of Wisemantown, visited their uncle, H. C. Witt, last Friday.

Several from this place attended the sale of H. C. Chambers on Hardwick's creek last Saturday.

Frank Fraley will move to Jas. Wiseman's place in a few days where Jake Tussey formerly lived.

Aunt Malinda McIntosh, aged ninety years, who has been sick for some time, is better at this writing.

J. Hackworth, of Sand Hill, had several head of cattle to get down from eating ivory last week of which two died Friday.

Nathan Luckey and Bud Harrison, of White Oak, and John Winburn, of this place, started for Illinois last Wednesday. "Rastus."

LOCKJAW FROM COBWEBS.

Cobwebs put on a cut lately gave a woman lockjaw. Millions know that the best thing to put on a cut is Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the infallible healer of wounds, ulcers, sores, skin eruptions, burns, scalds and piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at C. C. Lum. & Stave Co.'s store.

Log Lick.

Richard King attended Court at Richmond Monday.

Levi Adams bought of Sam Adams eight shotes for $32 50.

John Thomas sold a good mare to Bill Evans for thirty dollars.

Charley Puckett bought some shotes from Jesse Rice at 5 cents.

Jesse Rice bought two heifers from Bud Berryman at 12 50 each.

Bud Berryman bought a lot of corn of John Thomas at $2 50 per barrel.

Mrs. Joe Spry, of Spoutspring, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Vaughn.

John Thomas and wife visited at Jack Parrish's at Right Angle Sunday.

"Uncle" Isom Howard has been confined to his bed for some time with rheumatism.

John Kerr started for Winchester with his tobacco Monday. He sold for 6cts all round.

Babe Adams has been visiting relatives at Lexington and Lawrenceburg the last two weeks.

The deepest snow for many years fell here the 4th and 5th. It was 8 1/2 inches on a level.

We are sorry to say that "Uncle" Man Stone is thought to be suffering from mental depression.

Elder E. W. Marcum filled his regular appointment at the Christian Church Saturday and Sunday.

Our new mill at this place is doing a good business. There is a good opening here for a blacksmith.

The grip has been serving some pretty rough in this section, but not so bad as it did that fellow at Hunt.

On account of snow being drifted on the pike, we failed to get any mail Wednesday, but she came "balling" in Thursday.

All the correspondents of the Winchester papers are aiming to form an association with Dr. Snowden President. We think this a good thing. But how about our neighbor Powell paper? Why not join in with us?

Last week we mentioned that W. R. Matherly was going to move to this place. We thought we had been reliably informed, but it has proved to be a mistake. Charley Crow has rented the John Matherly place and will run a blacksmith shop. Success to you, Charley.

THE VICE OF NAGGING.

Clouds the happiness of the home, but a nagging woman often needs help. She may be so run-down in health that trifles annoy her. If she is melancholy, excitable, troubled with loss of appetite, headache, sleeplessness, constipation or fainting and dizzy spells, she needs Electric Bitters, the most wonderful remedy for ailing women. Thousands of sufferers from female troubles, nervous troubles, backache and weak kidneys have used it and become healthy and happy. Try it. Only 50c. C. C. Lum. & Stave Co. guarantee satisfaction.

Iron Mound.

Bud Winburn will run a raft on this tide to Frankfort.

T. E. Tipton sold to Green Hall a pair plug horses for $102.50.

Elder Wm. Rupard preached to a large crowd at Forks school house Sunday.

John Merrill and Co. are on the market this week with a nice lot of timber.

Harlan Berryman bought of Rodney Harris a bunch of shotes at 5c per pound.

Misses Amanda Wills and Lizzie Elkin went to see Grandma Harris Sunday.

C. C. Embs, one of our most promising young men left Monday for Illinois.

Edmon Brookshire and Mike Wills will run about 75 logs on this tide to Ford.

Henry Harris and wife James Ganes and wife were the guests of J. W. Elkin Monday.

Mrs. Amanda Williams, of Sams, spent last week visiting her old neighbors at Iron Mound.

Wm. Stone, of this place, spent Friday and Saturday with his uncle, "Man" Stone who is quite sick.

Henry Hawkins had a nice two year old steer kicked by a horse Saturday and killed. It was worth $35.

Jas. Gentry & Co. have bought a new grist and saw mill to be located in the Marshy bottom near Sam Shimfessel's.

Our timber is getting scarce, still those that run it report satisfactory results and continue to keep up the traffic.

Wm. Fielder and — Skinner, of Merritt, have bought 2,600 saw logs from up the river parties to be delivered at the mouth of Red rivir. They received 12 rafts of them Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Elkin has been with her mother the past week who got her arm broke some two weeks ago. It is now believed by her attending physician that she will get well again.

Dr. Berryman, Alva Stephens and Thos. Clem met one day last week and swapped horses. Now each one is claiming he beat the other out of not less than $10. We like to hear of general satisfaction from the boys.

Sheriff Garrett and brother were in the Fork precinct last week extending invitations to our boys to be in readiness to attend Quarterly meeting which will convene Monday the 24th. The Fork will show up with a big lot of delegates.

Some few of our neighbor boys are looking for cheap hash & in our neighboring counties until Quarterly court is over. What is left seem to be strict church members. It would be a big job to borrow a pistol to shoot a mad dog with for the next two weeks, and moonshine whisky is a thing of the past.

Uncle John S. Williams has 10,000 young peach trees of nice size and extra quality which he offers to sell at one cent each. Uncle John wants only pay for digging up the rest to be considered a gift to the buyer. We never saw nicer trees bought from any nursery than uncle John has for one cent.

John O. Weathers, of Sams, has arranged with Berryman & Elkin, of this place to order one dozen pair large green spectacles which he intends placing on his cattle. He feels assured that by so doing he can have his cattle to do well on broomsage of which he has a large boundary. Many others are anxiously awaiting the test.

WOULD SMASH THE CLUB.

If members of the "Hay Fever Association" would use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the club would go to pieces, for it always cures this malady, and asthma, the kind that baffles the doctors—it wholly drives from the system. Thousands of once-hopeless sufferers from consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis owe their lives and health to it. It conquers grip, saves little ones from croup and whooping cough and is positively guaranteed for all throat and lung troubles. 50c, $1 00. Trial bottles free at Clay City Lum. & Stave Co.
