

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Gov. James B. McCreary will speak at the court-house this, Monday afternoon.

—The local brass band lived things up on the public square Friday and Saturday nights.

—Elder J. C. Frank is conducting a protracted meeting at London this week. Eld. John Bell Gibson, of Stanford, preached at the Christian church, Sunday.

—Judge J. C. Hemphill has opened a stock of gents' furnishing goods and clothing in the Miller Hotel building. Judge Hemphill is a big-hearted, polished gentleman and has spent a greater portion of his life in the mercantile business in Lancaster. We bespeak for him a liberal share of patronage.

—It took all of Wednesday and half of Thursday to complete the taking of testimony in the case against John Campbell for killing Humphrey Best. After hearing the arguments of counsel, Judge Robinson decided that there were not sufficient grounds for holding Campbell to the grand jury and he was discharged. A large crowd from Paint Lick attended the trial.

—Dr. Ben Letcher, of Henderson, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Mag Dunn. Mr. John Farra has returned from Staunton, Va. Miss Mary Annie Wilmore returned to Nicholasville, Friday. Mrs. Joe Paxton, nee Miss Mary Robinson, spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Alex Robinson. Judge J. C. Hemphill and family have returned from the meeting of the Knights of Pythias at Harrodsburg. R. L. Elkin, of Surveyor Collier's office, Louisville, is here on a visit to his mother. Mr. Uriah Simpson and family are visiting in Hustonville. Rev. Waite and wife, of Louisville, are visiting Mrs. C. C. Storms.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Mrs. Dora Jackson, who has been sick so long, died at 4 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. George W. Baker. She was loved by all and her husband and little child have the deepest sympathy of the entire town. Burial on Cemetery Hill Monday.

—Considerable excitement at the depot Sunday morning caused by H. C. Broughton shooting at a colored man named Tom White. Some liquor was said to have been the cause of it.

The Greatest of Trotting Meetings.

In this issue appears the advertisement calling attention to Kentucky's great trotting meeting at Lexington, Oct. 5 to 14. The programmes are ready and will be mailed to those who apply, as will the full list of entries as soon as published. The Association has offered $50,000 for the races and secured the best horses in the whole country; yet it has generously set aside the gate receipts of the first, second and third days for the two hospitals and the orphan asylum, known as The Charity Organization in Lexington. The programme is before us and it is an attractive one, full of variety and excellent in arrangement. Horsemen pronounce it the best ever issued and predict that the Stallion Representative Stake ($5,000), Saturday, Oct. 8; The Transylvania Stake ($5,000), Monday, Oct. 10; the Free-for-all purse ($2,000), Wednesday, Oct. 12; and the $5,000 Special Stake, Friday, Oct. 14, will prove the four grandest contests ever witnessed. The great event, however, of the meeting is to be the Transylvania, in which 20 horses, all able to trot in 2:16 or better, are eligible to start. Amongst them are Evangeline, 2:11; Hayland T., 2:12; Little Albert 2:12; Ponce de Leon, 2:13; Paragon, 2:13; New York Central, 2:13; St. Vincent, 2:13; Anderson's Nightingale, 2:13; Krenlin, 2:13; Hamlin's Nightingale, 2:14; Hazel Wilkes, 2:14; Mattie H., 2:14; and Belle Vera, 2:15. There are seven more, but the above show the quality of the horses in the race. Such a field has never faced a starter, and this will be America's greatest race. Write to Ed A. Tipton, Secretary, Lexington, Ky., and get a programme, also list of entries.

A Cure for Paralysis.

Frank Cornelius, of Parrott, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better. Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness and the mouth assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings and lameness. 50-cent bottles for sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

—No new cholera cases have been reported at New York's quarantine station since Tuesday.

DANVILLE.

—Mr. James J. Tadlock and Miss Lily B. Sampson obtained marriage license the 22d inst.

—Hiram Gilpin and John Lucas, young white men, were sent to the penitentiary one year each, Friday, for grand larceny. They stole some clothing, confessed and got off with the lowest penalty.

—Miss Blanche Corinne Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Murphy, died, Saturday, after a long illness. The funeral took place Monday at 4 o'clock from the family residence.

—Bill Drye was convicted Saturday of killing Hiram Cowan and given eight years in the penitentiary. Both colored. The case will probably go to the court of appeals if a new trial is not granted.

—While returning from church, Sunday night, Mrs. W. R. Bowman and daughter, Miss Kate Bowman, were knocked down and badly bruised by a runaway horse belonging to Andrew Whitley. Both ladies were cut and bruised severely, but it is hoped not dangerously. Mrs. Bowman is hurt worse than Miss Kate. The horse started from Mr. John Craig's avenue, near the house, where he broke loose from a post where he had been hitched.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Redd, of Fayette, sold 41,000 pounds of hemp at $4.50 per 112 pounds.

—P. J. Dwyer bought of Fred Gihhard his Leonatus colt, Leonawell, for $10,000.

—M. S. Bughman sold to Dr. Jackson Givens, of Pittsburg, a combined mare for $175.

—Wm. Moreland bought of various parties in this county a car-load of hogs at 4 to 4 1/2 cents.

FOR SALE.—15 extra two-year old feeders, weighing about 1,100 lbs. Apply to R. H. Bronaugh, Crab Orchard, Ky. *

—M. F. Elkin bought of A. C. Martin a lot of fat heifers at 2 cents and of C. M. Spoonmore 20 150 pound hogs at 4 cents.

—The Carlisle Mercury says the new owners of Blue Lick Springs will build a fine track and organize a fair and trotting association.

—Covington business men have organized the Farmers' and Shippers' Tobacco Warehouse Company, with a capital of $1,000,000. It will be a rival of the Cincinnati combine.

—The rains have brought the grass out wonderfully and if this weather continues it will be as fine as was ever seen in the fall. The corn crop is an average in two-thirds of the county, but in this the other third, it is much less than half a crop.

—McAnally, of the Shelby City neighborhood, sold to A. K. Denny, 23 acres of corn in the field, average 6 barrels 2 1/2 bushels to the acre, at $1.75, the lowest price we have heard of. Mr. Denny will feed it to his mules, of which he has about 50.

—Last year Budd Todd paid $10 per acre for 15 acres of land near Speedwell. He put 150 pounds of fertilizer per acre upon it and planted corn. His crop averaged nine barrels to the acre and he sold it for $300, $20 per acre, or twice as much as the land cost.—Richmond Register.

—H. C. Hall, of Montgomery county, bought of George Owings 100 barrels of new corn in the field at $2. W. B. Kidd shipped to Baltimore, Thursday, 143 cattle averaging about 1,500 pounds, bought in Montgomery, Clark and Fayette counties at an average of 4 1/2 cents.—Winchester Sun.

—W. P. Prewitt, auctioneer of Paint Lick, reports the sale of O. T. Wallace, executor of W. Johnson, at Wallacetown, on the 22d inst; Corn in the field $2 20 per barrel, wheat 55 cents, cow and calf $30; horses $20 to $61; 10 acres of land with moderate improvements $655. A good crowd and all in a good humor with no signs of hard times.

—Hayden & Crowder have bought over 300 head of 1,100-pound steers in Green, LaRue and Taylor counties at 2 1/2 to 2.60. Mattingly and Saunders Bros. have bought over 200 head of 1,100 pound steers at same price. Charles Beaven sold to Mattingly, Simms & Co. 20 first class sugar mules at $137, and delivered a car-load Tuesday, which were shipped at once to New Orleans.—Lebanon Enterprise.

Happy Hoosters.

Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Indiana, writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50 cents a bottle at A. R. Penny's drug store."

La Grippe Again.

During the epidemic of La Grippe last season Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, proved to be the best remedy. Reports from many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad after results. We ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in La Grippe, or any Throat, Chest or Lung trouble. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's Drug Store. Large bottles, 50c and $1.

—Justice Lamar suffered a stroke of paralysis a few days ago.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—George A. and his brother, William Gibbons, formerly of this county, but now of Knoxville, have been among their relatives and friends here this week, looking well and as handsome as usual.

—John P. Davis, wife and child, from Stanford, were on a visit to Dr. O. H. McRoberts a few days since. Mrs. John Marble, after a long absence, was on a visit to her aged father, Mr. A. Royalty, last week.

—Casey county still stands pre-eminent in heavy weights, as almost in everything else. A jolly fruit tree dealer, E. G. Guston, from Carlisle, Ky., who has been amongst us for a few days, the other day weighed with our fat man, Durham, of Middleburg, and pulled the beam at 300, while Durham's weight was 304. Mr. Guston, however, claims that he was at disadvantage, being lately sick, and that he has reached 340.

—Chris. Lyon, of Hustonville, James K. Howard and Dr. Felix, were on a fishing expedition here last Monday and Tuesday. Lieut. Howard was one of the original Wolford's cavalry from Clinton county, and though nearly 27 years had elapsed since he left the 1st Kentucky to accept promotion in the 13th Ky. Cavalry, he was readily recognized by his old comrades here. Time dealt gently with him, the same hearty, jovial features, but his hair was slightly frosted.

—The examining trial of Wm. Allen, for the killing of Ben Barlow at Caney Fork church on the 10th, commenced Thursday and continued all day Friday. County Attorney Q. C. Godbey, John D. Fogle and S. J. Baldrick, of Lebanon, prosecuted and A. R. Clark defended. The case awakened much interest, as the court-house was full both days. About 40 witnesses on each side were on hand, but not all examined. Although he was ably defended, our honest judge thought him guilty and held him to answer in the circuit court and fixed his bond at $1,000.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—The marriage of Miss Mary P. Young, daughter of Col. Bennett H. Young, and Bart McVay Allison, will be quietly solemnized Oct. 12th.

—We send cordial greetings to Daniel Mayes Bowmar, of the Woodford Sun, and his bonnie bride, who was Miss Cicely de Graffenried McCaw. May they live long and prosper.

—Robert C., son of Gov. McCreary, will marry Miss Jessica Newberry, daughter of Gen. Newberry, of Chicago, Oct. 5th. After a short bridal tour the groom will settle in Chicago to practice his profession of the law.

—After being married 68 years, Geo. Clouser and wife held a celebration with 123 descendants in attendance, at Mansfield, Ill. Both the old people are lively and well. A sister of Mrs. Clouser celebrated her 94th birthday in Ohio Friday and a brother is in his 80th year.

—R. C. Marimon, Esq., one of the editors of the Harrodsburg Sayings, will marry Miss Nannie Forsythe, of Mercer, Oct. 5th. We do not know either of them personally, but John Pulliam's endorsement in such complimentary terms is enough to put them away up in our estimation.

—Mrs. Andrew Tucker, a comely young widow, only daughter of the late Squire Craig Lynn, was married at Brodhead, last Thursday night, to her cousin, Middleton Lynn. There was objection to the marriage on account of close relationship and this was why the Brodhead trip was made. May they live long and happily.

FAITH.

Though the clouds be thickly gathered
And obscure each ray of light,
Turning Hope's refuging day-time
Into Doubt's depressing night,
Yet behind the heavy shadows
Beams the sun of endless day,
But that sun will never reach us
Till the doubts have passed away.

Though the heart be bowed in sorrow,
Sterner griefs oppress the soul,
Though the tide of trouble bears us
Where its waters blackest roll;
Yet there is a voice that's waiting,
Joy and peace to speak to all;
But that voice will never reach us
Till for it our own shall call.

Though a sense of grievous sinning
Crush us by its mighty weight,
Though we feel that God has left us
To our self-appointed fate,
Yet his hand is always proffered
When all the other help has flown,
But his hand will never reach us
Till we grasp it with our own.

(From the selections of the editor's dear dead wife, and printed in loving memory of her.)

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—The Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge at Portland tabled a resolution declaring saloon keepers ineligible to membership.

The I. J. Man at the Barbourville Fair and Other Points.

Having gotten in the custom of going to all the fairs in these parts and doing pretty well for the INTERIOR JOURNAL at them all, I left Stanford on Friday morning for Barbourville to be present on the last day of the second meeting of the Knox County Fair Association has held. Fortunately for me an immense crowd attended and it was a first-rate opportunity to increase our already respectable large list at that point. The opportunity was grasped and the consequence is the mail on Tuesday and Friday mornings at Barbourville will weigh a few pounds more than it has heretofore. A goodly number of our old stand-bys renewed their subscriptions, which too helped the cause to some extent.

The fair proved a very creditable exhibition of stock and each ring was well filled. The trots and running races were interesting and altogether it was a fair that Knox county has a right to be proud of.

A special feature was the floral hall, which was literally jammed with various exhibits. It might well have been called an agricultural hall also, for a considerable portion was used for the display of agricultural products of every kind. The show in this line was particularly good and showed that Knox county has some good farmers herself.

The programme for Friday was such a large one that it could not be completed and the fair was continued over till Saturday, when, I am told, another large crowd attended. The premiums were not remarkably large and as there were a great many "specials" the association evidently came out away ahead.

I was impressed with the good looks of the crowd Friday. The men, as a general thing, are refined and substantial looking, and the ladies, if you will pardon the slang, are "out of sight." Knox county is ahead of several of her sister counties in this line and in fact nearly comes up to the blue grass.

To make it even more pleasant for the visitor within their gates the young men gave a delightful hop, Friday evening, at the new hotel. There were some 40 couples present and from 9 p. m. till 3 a. m. Terpsichore was worshipped. Lots of pretty girls, dressed in the latest approved hop style, were there and the scene altogether was one of beauty and merriment.

The town of Barbourville is not what the more sanguine thought it would be when the boom was on, a couple or so years ago, but it is a good town anyway and lots of business is done there. Editor Lewis D. Sampson claims that he has the best town in the State, and while I do not agree with him altogether, I must admit that it is a good place and a most excellent town to secure subscriptions to a first-class newspaper.

A family by the name of Andrews, living in Barbourville, made music for the fair. There were in the band, besides the father and mother, five sons and a daughter and the music they made was good indeed. The daughter blows a slide trombone with much grace and ability, while Mrs. Andrews "toots" a cornet like a veteran.

From the fair I went to Cumberland Gap, thence to Middlesboro and then to Pineville—three "boom-busted" towns in one day. A feeling of sadness pervades my very soul when I look at these places, which, two or three years ago, we spoke of and looked on as "future greats." Cumberland Gap seems to be sleeping a sleep that knows no waking. Most of the people who could do so have moved away and vacant business houses and dwellings can be seen on every hand.

Middlesboro, so the citizens say, is looking up and may the good Lord help it to do so. It is claimed that work will soon begin at the Watts' Steel plant and that 1,000 men will be given employment. Whether this is true or not time only will tell. The Watts claim that they have expended $1,300,000 there and that their pay roll for the men they have already on the grounds amounts to upwards of $12,000 per month. One salaried man—the steel maker—draws one-twelfth of that amount.

The tannery, which gives 200 men employment, and which, by the way, is the second largest in the world, uses 500 hides a day and has been doing so several months. The iron works and South Boston Gun Works, I was told, are assured and will be in operation ere many moons wax and wane.

Pineville looked mighty dull, but there are those who are sanguine that only a little time is needed to make it what it promised to be—a good little city. Some building is going on there, but the hum of industry is not so deafening as it was some years ago. The Pineville people are like David Copperfield's Micawber, always waiting for something to turn up, and seem to be about as well satisfied with their lot as was that character.

Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival & Hutton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years, I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup." 25 and 50-cent bottles for sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.
