LARGEST CIRCULATION IN CITY AND COUNTY

Mr. Pat. Horgan will go into office Tuesday as City Marshal.

The newly elected City Council holds its first meeting on Tuesday night.

Monday is the last day in which the newly elected sheriff has to fix up his bond.

Elder George Darsie will preach for Rev. J. M. Lewis at the Baptist Church tomorrow night.

Charles E. Wolf, Louisville, says: "One bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters entirely relieved me from indigestion."

The receipts from sales made on Saturday by Mr. Philip Selbert, the St. Clair street jeweler, amounted to over $1,500.

Rev. R. H. Kennard, of Midway, will preach at the Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning and evening.

Mr. W. S. Dehoney was for the twentieth time re-elected Secretary of Capital Lodge of Odd Fellows Monday night.

Mr. D. M. Woodson is engaged in making an official map of the town of Bell Point, by order of the Board of Trustees of that place.

Gen. J. P. Nichols will next week remove his family to his farm in Barren county.

Mrs. Prue Chinn has rented Mrs. Lettie Jett's St. Elmo property and has removed with her daughters from Bridgeport to this city to reside.

During the recent cold spell Capt. San. Goin filled both of his large ice houses with a splendid article of Benson ice, and next summer his bell will again be heard on our streets.

The little Shepherd puppy, the pet of the fire brigade, was lost at the fire Sunday morning and the person who has him is requested to return the aforesaid dog to the engine house.

Lost.—On St. Clair street, between the Adams Express office and Weitzel's confectionery, a small marble watch charm, in the shape of a barrel, but without hoops, and has a small piece chipped out of the end. The finder will please leave at this office.

Mr. George Rodgers, a farmer who lives five miles from this city on the Plum Branch pike, while cutting wood about daylight Saturday morning, struck his left foot with the ax, splitting it through the instep the width of the blade of the ax. The wound was dressed by Dr. Sam James, of this city.

Mr. George L. Payne has accepted the position of special agent of the Phoenix Insurance Company of London, one of the oldest and best companies in the world, and will have charge of the territory of Tennessee and Kentucky. His place in the office of Messrs. Payne & Berry will be filled by his brother, Mr. John W. Payne.

The result of the election has proved a grand success, but not more so than Kendall's Spavin Cure is proved to be every day. Read advt.

Mr. W. H. Jones, jr., of this county, and Miss Katie A. Kabr, daughter of Mr. Adam Kabr, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, on St. Clair street, Thursday afternoon, in the presence of a few friends and relatives, Rev. Father L. Young officiating. After the ceremony the young couple left for their future home in the county. The groom is a popular young farmer of what is known as the Tiger neighborhood, while the bride has for the past two years been one of the best teachers in the Public School in this city. THE ROUNDABOUT tenders congratulations and best wishes for their long life and unalloyed happiness.

Our old friend and fellow typo, Mr. John W. Payne, for eighteen years consecutively an employe of the Yeoman office, on Monday took charge of the insurance office of Messrs. Payne & Berry, and will hereafter be found on that establishment. We congratulate him in being able to get out of the treadmill and wish him all the success in his new business he so richly deserves.

A party of young men from the vicinity of Alton came into town Saturday night to see some of the Christmas fun, and while at the South-east corner of Main and St. Clair streets, one of the party, Mr. Young, in carelessly handling a pistol, accidentally shot another, Mr. James Parker, in the arm, the ball entering near the elbow, on the under side and ranging up, inflicting a painful flesh wound.

"J. E. M."

At the Freeble-minded Institute, Monday night, the tableau "The Flour of the Family" was represented by one of the girls of the school, with her face blackened, and dressed as a cook. In her hand she held a pan of flour, and by her side stood a barrel branded "J. E. M." This was a just compliment to one of the best brands of flour to be had in this country, which is manufactured by Messrs Miles & Son, of this city. At the Institute it is indeed the flour of that large household, for having tried all other brands, those in charge have found that the "J. E. M." is not only the best, but the cheapest in the end, and they use no other.

The Fire.

About seven o'clock Sunday morning the Christian Church was discovered to be on fire and an alarm sounded. The fire department was promptly on hand and succeeded in extinguishing the flames in a short time. The fire originated from the furnace, and the floor in the front part of the Church was burned for the width of ten feet nearly across the building. The carpet was partly burned, torn, and damaged by water, but most of the pews were gotten out uninjured. The walls and ceiling were smoked and damaged by water and heat, and it is thought the plastering of the ceiling will have to be taken off and renewed. It is thought that the loss will amount to about $1,500 or $2,000. The Church was insured for $8,700 in the agencies of Messrs. Payne & Berry and Judge W. H. Sneed. The sexton started the fire in the furnace about five o'clock and had been into the basement only a few moments before the fire was discovered to replenish it. No blame, however is attached to him, as the fire was the result of a defect in some portion of the furnace. The Baptist Church, through their pastor, Dr. J. M. Lewis, have tendered to Elder Darsie the use of their house of worship half the day each Sunday, and the Session of the Presbyterian Church the entire use of theirs after next Sunday, and Jailor Sheehan the use of the Court House, but it has been decided to hold the Sunday morning services, the Sunday-school, prayer meeting and teachers, meetings in the lecture room of the Church, which was not injured by the fire, and Elder Darsie will probably fill the pulpits of some of the other Churches of the city on Sunday night until the damage can be repaired, which will require several weeks.

A Call.

Editor Roundabout:

The Board of Trustees of the Public Schools now in office have served one term, and proven faithful and efficient. There seems to be a very general desire to have them accept the trust for another term. They have not been consulted, but it is hoped they will not refuse to obey the will of the people. By inserting the following announcement in your paper, you will confer a favor on.

MANY PATRONS OF THE SCHOOLS.
For Trustees of the Public Schools:
E. WHITESIDES,
W. S. DEHONEY,
D. L. HALY.

A CARD.

Editor Roundabout:

In answer to a call made upon us a few days since, through the columns of the ROUNDABOUT and Yeoman, to become candidates for School Trustees, we will say, that while we do not seek the positions, if the people desire our services for another term, and elect us, we will endeavor to discharge the duties to the best of our abilities.

Respectfully,

E. WHITESIDES,
D. L. HALY,
W. S. DEHONEY

An Enterprising Newspaper.

The Louisville Weekly Commercial announces that hereafter its yearly subscription price will be only One Dollar. This reduction will make the Commercial the cheapest and best general newspaper in the State. It will also be greatly improved. On January 1st it will appear in an entire new and handsome dress and will contain, among other valuable features, Whyte-Melville's celebrated novel "KATERFELTO." The adventures of the hero and his thorough-bred race mare, Katerfelto, with the charming and yet thrilling love story of Waif and John Garnet, make the tale one of profound interest throughout. There is not a dull chapter in the entire novel. In order to obtain the first chapters of this tale of unparalleled popularity, subscriptions should be sent to the Commercial at once. By special arrangements we are able to offer the ROUNDABOUT and the Weekly Commercial at the astounding price of only $1.80 per year, giving our citizens their home paper and the best family newspaper in the State, for little more than the price of one. Send your subscriptions at once.
