[Communicated.] The Legislative Race.

Editor Roundabout:

Only a few days since there were three candidates for Representative of Franklin county—Mr. Julian, the regular Democratic nominee, Mr. Brawner, independent, and Mr. Lewis, the regular Republican nominee—But on Saturday last Mr. Lewis withdrew his name at a called meeting of the Republican County Committee, and now we have only two candidates.

Mr. Brawner's friends boldly proclaim that they caused Mr. Lewis' name to be withdrawn for the purpose of getting the negro and Republican votes for Brawner, and thereby, if possible, defeat the regular Democratic nominee. In other words, this is an open combination between Mr. Brawner and the negroes of Frankfort (together with such white Republicans as will follow the motley crew) to defeat the Democratic nominee, or reduce the Democratic majority in Franklin county!

Now then, fellow Democrats, will you submit to this? Will you aid Mr. Brawner, a professed Democrat, in this attempted trick; this conspiracy with the worst portion of the Republican party? A vote for Mr. Brawner is a vote against the Democratic ticket; a vote for Mr. Brawner is a vote directly in the interest of the Republican party.

Such a combination might win in some counties; it cannot win in Franklin. If Mr. Brawner desired the support of good Democrats, why did he not go into the Democratic primary election and abide its decision? Because he expected aid and comfort from the Republicans.

It is the late candidates for the office of Sheriff had done as Mr. Brawner is now doing we should have either Mr. Gaines or Mr. Lucas or Con. Collins still running for Sheriff with the hope of being elected by the negro and Republican vote of the county. But these gents are too good Democrats to ever think of such a course. Fie upon any Democrat who will snuff himself to be used as a tool in this manner!

We need our full strength at this election, especially because next year is the great National contest. Then, fellow citizens, stand to your colors; go to the polls, and shame be to him who aids the enemy.

Yours truly,
DEMOCRAT.
