

SUGAR TRUST.

An Action Ordered to Be Taken Against the Combine.

Proceedings Instituted in Philadelphia to Dissolve It.

This Action Is Taken Under the Anti-Trust Law—Have-meyer, of N. Y., and the Counsel for the American Sugar Refining Co. Refuse to Talk.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—By the direction of Attorney General Miller, the U. S. district attorney at Philadelphia instituted civil proceedings against the Sugar trust Tuesday by filing a bill in the U. S. circuit court to cancel the contracts by which the trust was created, and to enjoin the prosecuting of business under the trust agreement. This action is taken under the anti-trust law.

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—The U. S. circuit court Tuesday directed the U. S. marshal to serve summonses on the parties named in the bill in equity against the sugar combination living outside the limits of the judicial circuit. This action is taken under a new law authorizing the court of one circuit to issue subpoenas and processes in the territory comprising other jurisdictions.

NEW YORK, May 4.—President Have-meyer, of the American Sugar Refining Co., commonly known as the sugar trust, had nothing to say in answer to the report that United States District Attorney Ingham has commenced suit in the United States court at Philadelphia to dissolve the trust. He claimed that he had heard nothing of it.

John E. Parsons, counsel for the company, pleaded pressure of work as an excuse for declining to discuss the matter, and said that he had nothing to say except that he had not yet been informed of the suit. It is said that the action is the result of the protest of the wholesale grocers of this city, who have appealed to the federal authorities for relief, as they can make no profit in handling sugar.

California Wheat Outlook.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—The Associated Press has received reports from a large number of places in the wheat and barley districts of Northern and Central California showing the condition of crops at the present time. In the northern part of the state, particularly in the Sacramento valley and northern portion of the San Joaquin valley, the late rains have been very beneficial to growing grain, and reports from nearly all places in those districts indicate that the prospect for an abundant yield is excellent. In localities south of those districts the growth has been retarded by lack of rain and a light crop is generally expected.

MAGNETIC POLE SURVEY.

Col. Gilder Will Make an Interesting Journey to the Far North.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Col. W. H. Gilder, who with Lieut. Schwatka won fame in bringing back from the northern regions information respecting Franklin and his expedition, again proposes to make a journey to the north, this time at the head of a party to make a magnetic survey of the region immediately surrounding the northern magnetic pole.

The American Geographical society, of this city, the National Academy of sciences, at Washington, members of the United States coast survey, and a number of other scientific men, are interested in the proposed expedition. Although some funds have been pledged for fitting out the party and for carrying on the work, nothing definite has been determined upon in the way of plans, the money required, the exact route, etc.

The American geographical society, with Col. Gilder, has taken the initiative in the matter, and for the purpose of discussing the exploration the society held a special meeting Monday night in Chickering hall. Ex-Judge Charles P. Daly presided, and briefly outlined the advantages of a northern magnetic survey.

Prof. Trowbridge said that as a result of the expedition the magnetic pole might not only be definitely located, but the whole world of terrestrial physics benefitted. He said that in his opinion all magnetic surveys on land should be prohibited, as the true importance and the benefit to be derived were on the sea alone for the mariner who is dependent upon his compass. He looked forward to the time when a station might be established in the neighborhood of the magnetic pole and telegraphic communication be made between it and the rest of the world.

Prof. Meyer explained that one thing it would be sought to establish at the point when the needle assumes the vertical position, was whether the so-called pole was fixed or moving. He was enthusiastic in his approval of the proposed expedition, and expressed the hope that America would take the lead in definitely fixing the magnetic pole and "flying the stars and stripes upon it."

Gen. Greely briefly outlined the magnetic surveys that have been made about King William's, where Col. Gilder's journey will lead. He spoke of his own journey north and the valuable geographical work he had to leave undone because of the requirements of his special mission. No doubt, he said, could exist as to the practicability of the journey and it would be comparatively safe, the party passing through a country fairly well peopled and well supplied with game.

A DEADLY BOLT

Strikes a Schoolhouse—One Pupil Killed and Others Hurt.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 4.—During the severe storm here Tuesday afternoon Chas. Fisher, driver of a brewery wagon, was struck by lightning and fatally injured. He was driving along Jackson street when the electric bolt descended and knocked him off his seat. His face and head were badly burned and his eyesight probably destroyed.

The severest electric storm in the history of the city swept over here this afternoon, and from reports being received it did extensive damage, most of which occurred in the northern part of the county. Lightning struck the Victory school-house, near Trenton, on the Urbana pike, while school was in session, fatally injuring Henry Ivory and dazing other pupils. Frank Bloese, the teacher, was knocked from a chair in a semi-conscious condition. Upon recovering he was horrified to find Ivory lying on the floor, apparently dead. A physician was summoned, and announced that the boy could not recover. He is still unconscious, and at last report had not been removed from the school-house.

Miss Shaw, a young lady residing on Chestnut avenue, had a narrow escape. She was standing by a window when the lightning struck the chimney, ran down the side of the house, through the window and melted two tin cans setting on the window sill. It also burned a dish-rag in the dish-pan which was on a table in the same room. Her clothes caught fire, but the flames were quickly extinguished.

HIS BETROTHED

Demon Deeming Bequeathes the History of His Life.

A Close Watch Kept on the Wretch That He May Not Kill Himself.

He Is Placed in the Condemned Cell and Heavy Irons Locked Upon His Wrists—It Is Believed He Will Confess to His Many Dark Crimes.

MELBOURNE, May 4.—After Deeming was conveyed last night from the court room in which sentence of death had just been passed upon him and returned to the jail his clothing was taken from him and he was compelled to don the attire worn by convicts in the prison. He was then placed in the condemned cell and heavy irons were locked upon his wrists to prevent him from committing suicide. There is scarcely a doubt that he would kill himself if the opportunity offered and a close watch will be kept upon him in order that he can not cheat the gallows.

He did not appear to be at all cast down by his fate, and after a short conversation with the warders detailed to watch him he threw himself upon the pallet in his cell and slept calmly until this morning. Much interest is manifested in the biography that Deeming is writing and upon which he has spent much time since he was imprisoned. It is believed that the man's overweening vanity will impel him to confess in this work all the crimes he has ever committed.

By appealing to the judicial committee of the privy council, Deeming may succeed in putting off his execution for a time, but his haste to complete his book shows that he has little, if any, hope of escaping hanging. Early Tuesday morning he resumed his writing on his biography, which he says he will bequeath to Miss Rousevell, the young lady to whom he was engaged at the time of his arrest. He expresses the hope that the profits which she may derive from its publication will in some degree compensate her for the wrong and annoyance which he has been the means of inflicting on her.

Chicago's Jack the Ripper.

CHICAGO, May 4.—A murderer, the shocking details of which savor more of uncivilized butchery than has been known for years in Chicago, was committed between 5 and 6 o'clock Tuesday evening in the home of Michael Walsh, at No. 344 Washburn avenue. His wife, Bridget Elizabeth Walsh, met death in a manner that rivals for cruelty and horror the fates of numerous victims in the London Whitechapel district. Her slayer, who, from the evidence so far in the hands of the police, must have been a man, succeeded in covering his crime long enough to make his escape without leaving a single clue by which his identity could be established.

Within four hours after the murder, Mrs. Walsh's murderer was arrested. He was Thomas Walsh, of No. 143 Washburn avenue, the dead woman's nephew. He confessed. He made an improper proposal to her, and she slapped his face. Then he killed her.

HEAD END COLLISION.

Had Wreck on the Pennsylvania Number of Passengers's Lives.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 4.—A bad wreck occurred on the pan-handle railroad one mile west of Scio, O., at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. Second section of No. 2, east-bound passenger, which was coming along at the rate of fifty-five miles an hour, crashed into No. 85, west-bound extra freight.

The fireman and engineer of engine No. 104, extra freight, jumped for their lives. Engine No. 93, of No. 2, was in charge of Robert Buchanan, engineer, and Wm. C. Cullom, fireman. Both stuck to their posts and Buchanan was seriously injured internally.

The passengers in the forward coach of No. 2 were badly shaken up and a number injured, but none fatally. Their names are: S. H. Peterson, Cranliff, Kan., head cut; Alex. Dunlap, Alabama, head cut; Parvin Wright, Indianapolis, head cut; Rosanna Hughes, Philadelphia, nose broken, breast hurt; Rev. A. Wakefield, Kentucky, chin cut; unknown lady, head badly cut.

The wreck was the result of carelessness on the part of the trainmen of the extra freight, who did not notice the signals. Both engines and the mail and express cars were badly broken up. One freight car, in which were three tramps stealing a ride, was completely demolished and the tramps badly injured.

WE ARE HAWAII'S CHOICE.

After the Queen's Death the Islands Will Look to Annexation.

CHICAGO, May 4.—Henry Waterhouse, of Honolulu, is at the Palmer awaiting the arrival of ex-Prime Minister Thurston, who comes to Chicago to arrange for a reproduction at the World's fair of the great Hawaiian volcano Mauna Loa.

"Annexation of the Hawaiian islands to the United States," he said, "is inevitable. If a miracle should, however, lead the United States to decline its opportunity, the islands will become the property of someone else. It is impossible for them to continue forever as an independent nation. The reasons for this have been frequently told. I can only add that after forty years spent in Honolulu I know that these reasons are well grounded. The natives want a republic. The queen, however, will hold the throne until death removes her from it.

"The vast body of American residents are anxious for annexation, no matter what its opponents may say. The United States is nearer to us than any other country, and her interests in the islands are greater than that of any other. But if she refuses us merely because annexation would necessitate expenditures for fortifications, when in reality the so-called fortifications on the Pacific are few what she needs, why we must look to England, France or Germany."

Crespo declared if his son is put to death Palacio will be burned at the stake in the plaza in front of the Casa Amarilla. # FAITHFUL IN DEATH.

The Touching Affection of a Bear for Her Young.

So many pathetic stories are told of the misery caused by hunters in the animal world that one can scarcely tolerate the idea of shooting merely for "sport." When the term means merely wanton cruelty, then it is time to seek more peaceful if less exciting occupations, says the Youth's Companion. A story is told of a polar bear which, with two large cubs, was sighted by the crew of an exploring frigate. When the animals were within reach of the vessel, the sailors threw them great lumps of seahorse flesh, and these the old bear divided among her cubs, reserving only a small portion for herself. Then, when the three animals were happily feeding, the sailors fired. They wounded the dam and killed the cubs.
