

MILLERSBURG

RELIGIOUS.

DEATHS.

—Misses Hattie Wood and Christine Patterson were visitors in Lexington, Wednesday.

—Miss Mary Frances Letton is visiting her cousin, Miss Lucy Jean Anderson, of Paris.

—J. B. Gray and daughter, Mrs. Clark Lee, and children, are in Cincinnati for a few days.

—Miss Katherine Judy is a guest of her aunts, Mrs. K. R. and A. M. Vaught, in Indianapolis.

—Mrs. Mary S. Boston has been reappointed teacher of the Melvaine School for the coming term.

—Dr. and Mrs. McKinney have returned to Carlisle after a visit to friends and relatives in this place.

—About fifteen members of the Twentieth Century Club attended the Boone Day celebration at Frankfort, Tuesday.

—Wm. Vimont, of Maysville, is visiting his mother and sister, Mrs. Martha Vimont and Miss Florence Vimont.

—Mrs. Vallandigham and children have returned to their home in Barboursville, Va., after a visit to G. S. Allen.

—Mrs. Mack Jones is at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. C. C. Kokenorfer, at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington.

—Miss Katherine Vaught and brother, have returned from a few days' visit with their grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Payne, in Cynthia.

—Dr. H. C. Burroughs and Miss Fannie Burroughs have gone to Springfield, Mass., for an extended visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Spencer.

—Prof. J. W. Lancaster, of Millersburg High School, presented diplomas to 137 graduates of Bourbon County High School, Tuesday morning.

—On account of absence from the city, Rev. Smylie, pastor of the Paris Presbyterian church, the Sunday afternoon service scheduled for the Hopewell church, will not be held.

—Rev. Arthur J. Fox, pastor of the Paris Baptist church, who has just closed a successful revival at Lexington, filled the pulpit at the Carlisle Baptist church last night at 7:30 o'clock, in the absence of the regular pastor. Rev. Fox preached a powerful sermon to a large audience.

—Records for continuous service in the pulpit in the Presbyterian church and possibly in America were shattered by Dr. William C. Condit, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Ashland since the third Sunday in June, 1866, who retired to be pastor emeritus of the church which he has served fifty-five years.

—At the Methodist church Sunday, Rev. O. B. Crockett, of Winchester, will occupy the pulpit at both services, 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

—Mr. Crockett is a former pastor of this congregation, and will be welcomed by many friends, who still remember him. The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a. m., and the Epworth League at 6:45 p. m. A most hearty invitation is extended to every one to attend all services.

—The Elementary Sunday School workers of the Methodist church will be all-day guests Thursday, June 16, of Rev. J. E. Moss and his congregation, in Lexington. Mrs. G. E. Cameron, Conference Elementary Superintendent, will preside, assisted by Mrs. Henry A. Power, of Paris, the Council President. Rev. C. H. Greer, of Paris, president of the Conference Board, and Dennis V. Snapp, of Paris, Field Secretary, will also attend.

—At the recent meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church, the following officers were elected for the year: President, Mrs. Walter Clark; first vice-president, Mrs. Wm. O. Hinton; second vice-president, Mrs. Jos. James; secretary, Mrs. Ossian Edwards; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. W. Hinton. The morning was spent in sewing for one of the young women of the church, who is in the hospital. A noon luncheon was served. The afternoon was devoted to business matters.

—The revival meeting which has been in progress at the Paris Christian church for three weeks, conducted by Rev. Jesse R. Kellums and Singing Evangelist Richards, closed Wednesday night with a total of 205 added to the congregation. The closing meeting was attended by the largest crowd of the series, hundreds being unable to gain admission to the auditorium. Rev. Kellums and Mr. Richards opened a revival at Georgetown last night. The meeting in the Paris church will go on record for large attendance and the intense interest manifested. Probably no evangelist in years has so captivated his audiences as did Rev. Kellums, and his visit here will be long remembered by Paris people.

—The month of May has been one of concerted effort and gratifying results in the Presbyterian church. At one of the recent services Mr. Smylie gave a talk on what the French call "esprit de corps," but what in plain English is known as "team work," and urged his people to get behind every move the church makes and to give it the benefit of their support. Only so can the work go forward as it should.

—In May the attendance broke the record of any previous date save the day of dedication. On the Sunday when the regular quarterly communion was held twenty-seven united with the church by letter and profession. Many received the ordinance of baptism. The congregation feels that it can never repay their earnest consecrated young leader for the splendid work he is doing among them, but in an effort to show their appreciation asked, the deacons to send him a check for $500.00, as he leaves for a month's vacation. From June 10th to 17th he will be in Danville at the first meeting of the Synod of Kentucky has ever had for its young people and on July 1st he leaves for West Virginia, for a rest of four weeks.

—The Lord watch between us and thee when we are absent one from another."

FIGHTMASTER

—Following an illness of several days duration due to a complication of diseases, Joseph A. Fightmaster, aged sixty-two, died at his home on Kentucky avenue, Monday night, about eight o'clock.

Mr. Fightmaster was a son of Richard and Laura Young Fightmaster. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Menifee, of Ruddle's Mills; Mrs. J. C. Hayes, and Mrs. Allie Izzer, of Paris, and two brothers, H. C. and J. W. Fightmaster, both of Millersburg. Mr. Fightmaster was a member of Rathbone Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Paris.

The funeral was held at eleven o'clock Wednesday morning, with services conducted at the grave by Rev. J. T. Sharrard, of Paris. The committal service was under the auspices of Rathbone Lodge, K. of P.

The pall-bearers were Fennell W. Galloway, J. O. Burnette, Louis Wollstein, John K. Cahal, E. B. January and Perry J. McCord.

IN MEMORIAM

When the spirit of Mrs. Mary Tobin, aged resident of Paris, left its frail earthly tenement a few days ago, there departed to the Better Land all that was immortal of a good woman, one whose life had been spent in good works and in the care and raising of a family to whom she had given the best years of her long and useful life.

Mrs. Tobin was a native of Dublin, Ireland, and though transplanted at an early age to the New World, she never forgot the old country and its associations, friendships and trials as well. She was married to John Tobin, who for many years successfully conducted a florist and nursery business on the Winchester road, near Paris, and to them was born four children, all residing in Paris and Bourbon county.

She was a faithful member of the Catholic church, not only faithful to that church, but just as faithful in believing that it was her duty as a Christian to do the will of her Master at all times. She was always ready to lend a helping hand in time of need, both in acts of kindness and in words. Her retiring nature hid her to hide her best qualities from public gaze, but they were revealed to those who enjoyed her friendship, yet it was in her home that her true worth was manifested most. She was devoted to her children, who, in return gave her the kindest attention and love. During her last illness she was tenderly cared for by her daughters, Misses Mary and Rosa Tobin, who ministered to her every want, and never left her alone for a moment, during the long days and nights. No invalid ever received kinder or more devoted attention than these daughters gave their mother.

The wealth of floral offerings, at the grave attested the high esteem in which this good woman was held, and the life that closed left behind as a benediction a wealth of remembrances of good deeds done without thought of reward or of approbation. So it is ever, when a life has been worthily lived.

Word was received by Mrs. Owen Ingels of the severe illness of her sister, Mrs. Louis Rogers, who was taken to Lexington hospital for an operation.

—Prof. J. W. Lancaster, Miss Nannie Clarke, Misses Edith and Margaret Wood, and Mrs. Mary S. Boston are attending the Bourbon County Summer School for teachers, in session at Paris.

—On and after this date Mrs. Jas. Cray will have charge of the correspondence and business pertaining to the Millersburg department. All friends and the business public generally are asked to assist Mrs. Cray in the matter of getting live news items for this column.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clarke, Mrs. L. V. Layson, Mrs. O. Rankin, Mrs. L. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Layson, Mr. and Mrs. Layson Tarr, and Mrs. A. Tarr attended the funeral and burial of Garrett Weathers, at Lexington, Tuesday. Mrs. Weathers was formerly Miss Laura Layson, who resided here for many years.

—The Wide-Awake Junior Agricultural Club will observe Monday, June 13, as a picnic or project visitation day. The Club will first meet at 8:30 a. m., in the County High School library, for a short business session. At nine o'clock the members of the Club and their friends will start on the trip visiting the various projects. Competent instructors will accompany the party. All who have conveyances are asked to indicate how many extra seats they will have for those who will have no means of making the rounds with the party otherwise.

Members of the 1895 graduating class of the Millersburg College were recent guests of Mrs. John Grimes, who entertained in their honor at her home near Millersburg. The guests present were Mrs. Mary S. Boston, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. A. C. Strode, Mrs. Bert McClintock, Mrs. O. Rankin, Mrs. E. Hurs, and Mrs. McKinney. A unique feature of the program was given by the class members, miniature diplomas tied with white ribbon and pink clover blossoms being presented by the hostess. Refreshments of ice cream, individual cakes and strawberries were served. The cakes, yellow, with white icing, bore the dates of 1895.

COUNTY ROAD DRAINAGE

Catesby Spears, Sam Clay, Sam Houston and John T. Collins, Bourbon County Road Commissioners, have issued an appeal to landowners in Bourbon county to give their co-operation in the matter of drainage of the county roads.

It is alleged that far more damage is done through improper drainage than by travel, and for that reason every effort is being made by the Road Commissioners to ditch and thoroughly drain every road in the county. Farmers are asked to place culverts at their gates or entrances to their farms, so that the water will not be forced onto the roads. A representative of the Road Commission is going to call in the near future on every farmer whose land fronts on a public highway, and to explain the necessity and importance of draining their places. The Road Commission requests a respectful hearing from the farmers and a prompt and willing compliance with the request.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

—Rev. T. S. Smylie will be absent for a week attending the first session of the Kentucky Young People's Conference for the Presbyterian church, which meets in Danville, in the buildings of K. C. W., June 10-16. Mr. Smylie is Chairman of the Board of Managers for the Conference. The regular morning and evening services will be held at this church. Dr. J. W. Caldwell, pastor of the Westminster Church, Atlanta, Ga., one of the leaders at the conference at Danville, will preach at both the morning and evening services. A cordial invitation is given to the public to attend the services of this church. Preaching at 10:55 and 7:30 p. m., Sunday School 9:30 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 8:45 p. m.

—Christian Church Calendar—Sunday: Bible School, 9:30 a. m.; Morning Worship, 10:45 a. m.; Mission Band, 2:30 p. m.; Male Chorus, 2:30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m.; Evening Worship, 7:30 p. m.; Tuesday: Women's Society, 3:00 p. m.; Wednesday: Prayer Meeting, 7:30 p. m.; Friday: Choir Practice, 7:30 p. m.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mission Band of the Christian church will be held Sunday afternoon in the church parlor at 2:30 o'clock. This is the last meeting of the year, and members are asked to bring all back dues. The picnic will be given later, when Bobby Hapgood comes.

A CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of thanking the many friends and kind neighbors for their kindly offices and their sympathetic help in the last hours of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary Tobin. Especially do we desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to Rev. Father William O'Hare, Undertaker George R. Davis and Dr. A. H. Keller, and the many friends whose beautiful floral offerings covered our mother's grave. We cannot see each one in person, but through THE NEWS we desire to assure them of our kindly remembrances and sincere thanks for their many acts of kindness to us.

HER DAUGHTERS.

MATRIMONIAL.

—A marriage license was issued from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton to Charles Edwards, aged fifty-nine, and Mrs. Ruth Edwards, forty-three, both of Bourbon county. Both had been married previously, but divorced.

PARIS—LAWRENCE

—Millard Lawrence, 25, of Carlisle, and Miss Laura Paris, 19, of Lexington, came to Paris, Wednesday, and were married at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. They returned to Carlisle Wednesday night, where they will reside.

LEACH—LETTON

—A marriage license was issued Tuesday from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton to Thomas Letton, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rube Letton, and Miss Mary Leach, 22, both of Bourbon county. The young people shortly afterward went to the residence of Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, where they were united in marriage. They will for the present make their home with the groom's parents, on the Jackstown road, near Paris.

REMOVABLE EYELASHES NOW FOR MILADY!

Ladies' eyelashes have become saleable articles. The dressing table in milady's boudoir may now be adorned, in addition to numerous other things that admirers assume to be natural, with artificial lashes that settle on right over the regular ones.

This innovation in feminine attractiveness was on display in New York at the American Ladies' Hair Dressing Association exhibition.

Other nature savers included a half-bobbed wig to cover old-fashioned long hair, thus relieving the necessity of cutting it. A parable in moving picture form was shown, demonstrating how a wife, who had lost her husband's affection, regained it by rejuvenating her rose petal cheeks.

WHAT CONSTITUTES "AN UNDESIRABLE CITIZEN."

What constitutes an undesirable citizen? There may be several answers to the question, but here is ours. It is a person who maliciously and continuously violates the laws of the community in which he lives, and disturbs the peace and happiness of his neighbors and the citizens of the community; a person whose conduct is demoralizing to his or her family and the good citizenship of the community and will not strive to reform.

A person may be a law violator and yet not by an undesirable citizen. This is a free country, but this does not permit or give a person license to demoralize the whole community. If the mother has a good husband and the little babe a good father, there is happiness in the home, and a promise of God of a happy home in the Great Beyond. But if the husband is a hoodlum, a rake, a spendthrift, and born of the brute creation, there is only misery, tears and sorrow, not only for the mother, but the little babe as well.
