GRIPPE is not to be laughed at or trifled with. A plain, every-day case of the disease is bad enough and dangerous enough in itself, but pneumonia too often results from it where there is not proper care and treatment.

DEATH'S SHADOW.

It Darkens Another Home—Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth, Sr., Passes Away Last Night.

Death, with all its sadness and sorrow, has darkened another home.

Mrs. Martha Wadsworth, wife of Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, passed away last night at 9 o'clock.

Her critical illness was mentioned yesterday. At that time the family entertained but little if any hope of her recovery. They realized that she was sinking and that the end was a question of only a few hours, unless there were some change for the better. But that change never came. Her condition gradually grew more critical and at the hour named the dark shadow of death entered the home and the spirit of the loved wife and mother took its departure.

Mrs. Wadsworth had been ill about ten days from an attack of the grippe, complicated with some renal trouble.

Deceased was the daughter of the late Charles Wood, who was a highly esteemed citizen of Lewis County in his day. She was sixty-six years of age some time last October. Her husband and six children—one daughter and five sons—survive her. She leaves three sisters, Miss Lottie Wood and Mrs. Fletcher, of West Second street, and Mrs. Dr. Cartmell.

Mrs. Wadsworth was a woman who was greatly loved and esteemed by her many friends and acquaintances, and the news of her death will be heard with sincere sorrow.

The arrangements for the funeral had not been announced this morning. It will probably take place Friday afternoon.

Says the Paris Kentuckian-Citizen: "Evangelist S. M. Martin will go from Lexington, Mo., to Richmond, Mo. The meeting closed at Lexington Sunday. Up to Thursday night there had been 203 additions to the Christian Church. Of the 203 new members, 22 come from the Baptist Church, 6 from the Methodist, 7 from the Presbyterian, 1 from the Episcopal, 3 from the Catholic and 1 from the Evangelical."
