J. Joseph.

Notice.
I will be from home next week, but Messrs E. W. and J. Randolph Harris will wait on my customers. Satisfaction guaranteed.
M. D. Hughes, Agent.

To make an everlasting friend of a lady, give her a sealskin cloak. But few men can afford such luxuries. J. Joseph has the prettiest line of cloaks in Central Kentucky.

Badly Needed.
Hurry up the lights on Depot street, Messrs. Councilmen. People who grope their way through the mudholes at night do not use Sunday school language in regard to the miserable streets.

Tumor Removed.
Mrs. Kinnaird and Acton successfully removed a tumor from Frank McMillan's neck Tuesday. It had caused McMillan much trouble and we are glad to say he will soon be all right.

Austin.
Mrs. James Austin died at her home, in Upper Garrard, Thursday night. She had suffered some time from cancer. She was a christian lady and beloved by all who knew her. The remains were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery.

The wayfaring man, though a fool, could not err in my measure's blanks. You are sure to get a fit. If you do not don't take the suit. Come and compare prices and quality of goods.
M. D. HUGHES, Agent.

Foot Ball Saturday.
The Richmond players failed to show up and the game announced for last week was postponed until tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon. The teams will tussle and pull wool in Dr. Herring's field at 2 o'clock.

To Satisfy a Few.
Lancaster is the only town on the map where Sunday mail is left unopened until Monday. Shall the will of the majority be respected or shall one or two would-be high muck-a-mucks continue to rule the roost?
Mr. Clayborn Lear Hl.

Farm Sold.
Col. L. F. Hubble, Lancaster's Real Estate Agent, sold this week to Mr. J. R. Hargett, of Jessamine county, the farm of J. I. Hamilton, on the new Danville pike, known as the Burdett Ball farm, for $25 per acre. Possession given Jan. 1st, 1894.

Small Wreck.
The afternoon mixed train jumped the track at Silver Creek Monday afternoon. No one was hurt but it required several hours to clear the wreck. The night train from Cincinnati came around via Livingstone. This is the first wreck on the Richmond branch in a year or better.

Fine Farm Sold.
Mr. Thos. E. Adams sold his excellent farm last week to Dr. Wyatt Letcher. The land lies at Camp Dick Robinson and is one of the most productive in Garrard county. It contained 216 acres and Dr. Letcher gave $54.75 per acre, equivalent to cash. Possession is to be given not later than January 1, next.

Approaching Nuptials.
The coming marriage of Jesse W. Sweeney and Miss Lula Bitson was announced by E. D. Gowen Sunday, to take place in the Christian church, Wednesday morning, October 19, at ten o'clock. All relatives and friends of the contracting parties are cordially invited to attend, no special invitations being issued.

At Work in Hospital.
Dr. Wesley, who has been at work in the hospital in Stanford for a month or more, returned to Lancaster Friday. A report got out to the effect that he would not be back here, but this is without foundation. Dr. Wesley is here now to stay and will continue to have his office at Dr. O'Neal's former office on Lexington street.

Nurses Scarce.
Some difficulty was experienced in finding a trained nurse for Lt. Wherritt last week. There has been so much sickness among the soldiers that nearly all the nurses have been engaged in the hospitals. It looks like more women ought to take up this profession. The pay is good and there is always a demand for first-class nurses.

Rev. Campbell Resigns.
Rev. T. H. Campbell tendered his resignation as pastor of the local Baptist church Thursday night, the same to take effect last of this month. It is to be regretted that Rev. Campbell will not remain here. We have frequently referred to him as a man who "practiced what he preached." His influence had a splendid effect.

Lieut. Wherritt Improving.
A trained nurse, from Louisville, has been secured to wait on Lt. Wherritt. He has improved very much during the last week and is now considered out of danger. Of course he will need careful watching and attention from now on, but this being at hand, his legion of friends are greatly encouraged as to his condition.

Good Show in Reach.
Fields & Hansons minstrels will play in Walton's Opera House, Stanford tomorrow (Saturday) night. This company consists of 38 hot members and the show promises to be first-class. Here's a good opportunity for our folks to see a show, as the drive is pleasant and you can get back soon. Write Mr. Walton and he will save seats.

Nice Dance.
A very swell hop was given at Music Hall Tuesday evening by the young gentlemen in honor of visiting ladies. Those present were Misses Pearl Burnside and Wood, of Stanford, Christine Bradley Frankfort, Mary Miller, Neil Marrs, Altie Marksbury, Allie Anderson, Carrie Curry, Jennie and Bessie Burnside, Julia May Gaines. Among the visiting boys were Lieut. Rowan Saufley and Gen. Jack Rout, Stanford, Lieut. Kennedy, Lexington and others.

Dr. McKee.
Dr. Lapsley McKee preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and also Monday night. There is a strong probability that his services will be engaged by the local church for at least two-thirds of the time. All denominations are fond of Dr. McKee, and the people are always glad when he comes here. Religious matters in Lancaster are not overly serene; just now, and good, old-fashioned, sledgehammer preaching is badly needed.

Joseph's cloaks are beauties.
Wanted, veal calves, H. B. Northcott.

Fresh barrel sorghum at G. S. Gaines. The chain gang is doing good work about town.
The best two horse wagon on the market at G. S. Gaines.

Miss Eugenia Daniap is quite ill of typhoid fever at St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington.
All the latest Novelties in Woolsens for men's wear now in, come and see them. J. C. Hemphill.

To the Grand Lodge.
Either Jacob Joseph or W. B. Mason will represent the local Masonic lodge at the Grand Lodge in Louisville next week.

Removal.
Dr. Hugh M. Grant has taken rooms at Mr. W. G. Anderson's on Danville street. The handsome property of Mrs. Fisher, formerly occupied by Dr. Grant, is advertised for rent elsewhere in THE RECORD.

No Preaching Sunday.
Elder Gowen requests THE RECORD to announce that he has gone to Chattanooga to attend the Annual Convention of the Christian church and will not be here to fill his appointment Sunday.

Back to Work.
John Duncan, who has been confined to his bed for several months, is able to resume work in his barber shop over Bunge's stable. He will be glad to see his old friends and will appreciate a share of the public's patronage.

Back to His Regiment.
Will Dunlap, who has been here on a furlough for some weeks, returned to his regiment, the 6th cavalry, Monday. The regiment is still at Montauk. Will is trying to get an honorable discharge, but there are so many similar applications now on file that his papers have not been reached.

Bell-Batterton.
Miss Martha Batterton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Batterton, of Danville, was married in that city, Wednesday, to Dr. Clarence L. Bell, of Hartford City, Ind. The bride has many acquaintances in Lancaster who extend congratulations. The groom is a brother of Jack Bell, who has visited in Lancaster and Crab Orchard Springs.

Oyster Supper.
The ladies of the Methodist church will give an oyster supper at the Lancaster Hotel, next Tuesday night, Oct. 18th. Supper will begin at 5 p. m. and will consist of oysters, coffee, pickles, breads, and salads. Price of supper 25 cents. The public in general is cordially invited to attend, enjoy an excellent supper and aid a good cause.

Millinery Openings.
The ladies were out en masse Saturday to see the pretty hats and other millinery on display at Noel Sisters and Miss Sallie Tillet's. The stores were tastefully decorated and everything presented a lovely appearance. Many handsome hats were sold while as many more were ordered laid aside. The ladies of Lancaster and Garrard county do not have to go away from home to get what they want, as the local dealers have everything to be found outside the big cities.

Pikes in Town.
The town and county officials are at loggerhead, as to which shall keep up that part of the pikes terminating in town. A similar case has been decided by Judge Saufley, at Danville, that the town had this to do, but the council of Danville will take the case to a higher court. In the meantime the streets in Lancaster will continue to resemble country creek roads and the public made to swear and stand it. The officials should come to some agreement and have the much needed repairs made, then settle the difference after the court has made final decision.

Pretty Drug Store.
Messrs. Lillard & Stout, the bustling Danville druggists, have had their store room converted into one of modern convenience and beauty. A steel ceiling has been put on, a new front made and the old shelving replaced by beautiful, modern cases. The store is now one of the prettiest in the state. Messrs. Lillard & Stout keep in stock everything to be found in a first-class drug store. Their line of books is superb and we doubt if any store outside the cities carries so large a stock to select from. When in Danville call and see them. They will treat you right and appreciate your trade.

Compliment for Rowan.
Rowan Saufley, of Stanford, has been given a commission as second lieutenant in the Lebanon company. His many friends over here rejoice at his luck. Rowan is like his father, Judge Saufley: a mighty clever man.

The Daddier Mill.
I have rented the famous Daddier Mill, near Gilberts Creek, and am prepared to furnish the very best flour. Will make a specialty of custom grinding. Farmers, bring along your wheat and co n. Satisfaction guaranteed.
10-7 JOHN C. POTES.

Happy Jack Back.
J. H. Miller, better known as "Happy Jack," got back to Stanford last week after several years' sojourn in the Falkland Islands. Many Garrard county friends are glad "Happy Jack" is again on Kentucky soil and hope he will come over and let them get one more look at him.

Foot Amputated.
Show Anderson, a well thought of colored man, has been suffering for some time with his leg. Drs. Wesley, Acton and Bush made an examination Monday and found amputation necessary. The operation was successfully performed and Show is improving rapidly.

He Will Keep on Calling.
Randolph Harris has been employed to collect for THE RECORD. As it costs about half the amount of the subscription to have it collected we hope those in arrears will settle with Mr. Harris promptly. He has been instructed to "keep calling" until you pay him. The usual cut-and-dried excuses will not baffle him in the least.

The Havana Limited.
The first American railway to announce train service for the special benefit of travel to the West Indies has been heard from. The Queen & Crescent Route are announcing a fast train known as the "FLORIDA & HAVANA LIMITED." It will go into service from Cincinnati to Tampa, Jacksonville, Miami, Mobile and New Orleans. This exponent of the genuine American idea of getting into the field early will be a complete vestibuled service, with diners, observation cars, wide vestibules, electric headlights, and all the paraphernalia of the modern railroad train. It is chiefly to be marked as being first in the field for the new ter-
