IN AND ABOUT LANCASTER.

Special Edition.
We are working on our special edition to be issued next week. The vast amount of work and worry connected with issuing a paper like we propose to send out has made it necessary to employ extra help and put in extra hours, but the present indications are favorable to it being the best ever sent out from a Lancaster office. The business men are availing themselves of the opportunity of getting their wares before the people and are bringing in their ads. A few refuse to get in the band wagon, preferring the tail end of the procession of progress. As it will be impossible to see everybody, those wanting space had better speak at once. Fifteen hundred extra copies will be printed and sent out. Judge M. D. Hughes has been employed to help, and if the editor misleads you, see him.

No County Court.
We are requested to announce there will be no session of the County Court on December 21st, it being a holiday. The banks also request us to say their doors will be closed on this day and also on Monday, January 21.

Committee Appointed.
The County Court has appointed a committee to place a valuation on the Stanford pike. The court selected Messrs. J. N. Danny and El. Price, and the company Mr. Tommy Robinson. The committee is still at work and will report in a few days.

If any of our readers have a picture of the Lancaster Baptist church, they will please make the fact known by holding up their right hand. We also want a picture of the Graded School and will be under lasting obligations to anyone furnishing it. All please speak at once.

The following marriage licenses were issued this week by county clerk Dancan: La Rue Duerson, Madison, to Miss Jennie May Arnold, of Garrard; E. L. Prewitt, Madison, to Miss Annie Prather, of Garrard; Geo. Garner, Garrard, to Miss Mollie Wilson, of Garrard.

Preacher Engaged.
Rev. J. C. Massey, of Orlando, Florida, has accepted the call to take charge as pastor of the local Baptist church. He will move his family here and services will be held every Sunday instead of twice a month, as has been the previous custom. Rev. Massey will begin his work first of the year.

Ready for Business.
Dolph Rice has moved into the handsome new stable just completed at Danville, and is thoroughly equipped for feeding, hitching and furnishing first-class livery. Swell Landaus for weddings, a specialty. Ask for the Rice Stable when you go to Danville and you will be given the best and your patronage appreciated. it.

Circuit Court Adjourns.
Circuit court adjourned Wednesday. The last few days were given to disposing of a number of civil suits, none of which are of especial interest to the public. Mattie Johnston, who sued W. A. Askins for damages because the latter's mill whistle frightened her horse, was given one cent and costs. A like judgment was given E. Warren against Geo. Marshbanks for failure to carry out a contract about some tobacco. The indictment against Tol Gill for receiving stolen property fled away. Curt McFarland, the negro mute, was indicted last term for detaining a woman, and this was fled away.

The jury this term cost the State $924. The grand jury returned twenty-two indictments, two of which were for perjury and one for cutting. The rest were for misdemeanors.

You can't beat our prices on stoves.

Lost or Stolen.
Setter bitch about six months old, little bare place on head, liver and white spots tipped, named Cubal. A reward will be paid for information that leads to her recovery.

Wanted Badly.
We are exceedingly anxious to get a picture of the old court house, which stood in the center of the square. If any one will bring us one before Saturday at noon we will give them a year's subscription to THE RECORD and be under lasting obligations.

Wm. H. Anderson Dead.
Just as we go to press news is received of the death of Mr. Wm. H. Anderson, at his home near Preachersville. No funeral arrangements have been made at this hour. His son, John L. Anderson, arrived from Washington yesterday.

Good for Bob.
The Danville Advocate says the Mercer County Court has retained Robert Harding, of Boyle, as counsel to assist County Attorney C. A. Hardin in the suit of Mr. Isaac Pearson for $9,333 against Mercer county for his commissions, &c., in holding and delivering the Louisville Southern Railroad bonds.

It is with pleasure that we place in our columns the advertisement of the Bryant & Stratton Business College of Louisville, Ky. We know this to be a thorough and reliable institution and every young man or lady who desires a Business, Short-hand or Telegraph course will do well to address the College for its elegant twenty-fourth annual catalogue.

Mr. G. M. Patterson, manager of the Lancaster Electric Light Co., has been negotiating with the city of Danville in regard to putting in a plant there. The Lancaster lights are by far the brightest and best burning in any town in this section, so say the people who have seen many. Mr. Patterson understands the business and our neighbor city would be wise in giving his offers preference.

Finey Equipped.
The K. C. has recently placed in service one hundred of the improved and extra large stock cars. They are much longer and better equipped than the old ones, and fill a long felt want of the shippers. Their train leaves here about 3:30 in the afternoon and lands stock at the Cincinnati yards early the next morning. The shippers are greatly pleased with the present facilities. The hauling has been extra heavy this fall.

Arnold-Duerson.
Miss Jennie Mae Arnold, the handsome daughter of Mr. Clay Arnold, and Mr. LaRue Duerson were married at the home of the bride Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Clark, of the Methodist church. The attendants were Miss Minnie Arnold and Mr. Hugh Mason. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for their home near Richmond. THE RECORD extends congratulations.

Competitive Examination.
On Saturday, Dec. 17, at the office of the County Superintendent, an examination will be held for teachers who desire an appointment to the Normal Department at State College. This is a competitive examination and is therefore open to all teachers. Four appointments are to be made and those teachers obtaining the highest average in Arithmetic, U. S. History, English Grammar and Geography will be entitled to the appointment.
Elisa J. Lusk, Co. Supt.

Meeting Closed.
The meeting at the Methodist church closed Tuesday night, Rev. Morrison leaving the night previous. The cold weather must have affected the enthusiasm, as not much was awakened. Several united with the church, however, and some good was accomplished. The trouble is nearly everybody belongs to some church and seem to think this fact alone insures a harp and pair of wings. We believe Sam Jones was right when he said nine-tenths should be turned out and a new deal had all around.

Death of Mrs. Poor.
Mrs. John Will Poor, whose serious illness had been mentioned in previous issues of THE RECORD, died at the home of her husband, Col. John Will Poor, in Lower Garrard, last Thursday morning at an early hour. Mrs. Poor had been ill for a long time, but bore her suffering without ever a murmur. She was a devout christian, and a woman who was ever anxious and ready to help her friends. She will be greatly missed in the community in which she resided. The remains were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery Friday morning. Many Lancaster friends of the family extend great sympathy for the bereaved husband and family.

Dickerson-Sutton.
Miss Lillie Sutton and Mr. Ebb Dickerson were married Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride. The ceremony was said by Rev. Kaykendall, of the Fork church. The wedding was a very quiet affair owing to recent bereavement in the family. Miss Sutton is the bright, attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. Fred

Sutton. Mr. Dickerson is a popular business man and is engaged in a dry goods store in Buckeye. After the ceremony an elegant supper was given to the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom by Mrs. Jno. W. Brown. We extend congratulations to the happy pair and wish them a smooth voyage through life.

Richmond Goes Dry.
A telegram from Richmond says the local option election held there Saturday in the three magisterial districts of Richmond, Union and Elliston, resulted in a victory for the drys by a majority of 121. The Whisky people, it is said, will contest the election, claiming that as Richmond as a fourth class city is independent of the rest of the county. They have already engaged able counsel, and say they will fight to the bitter end. Money and whisky furnished by Louisville and Cincinnati brewers and distillers were freely used in the election, notwithstanding the Christian women and the ministers of the city stayed at the pools all day in the cold, bathtubbing and pleading with the voters.

Suit Brought.
Sunday's Courier-Journal prints the following: "J. M. Higginbotham, administrator of the estate of M. W. Johnson, brought suit yesterday against the New York Life Insurance Company for $51,000. The action is based on policy on the life of Mr. Johnson, issued in July 1895. It is alleged that after receiving the policy Mr. Johnson returned it to the company to have it divided into two or more policies aggregating the same amount. The policy was, it is claimed, 'wrongfully detained by the company, which has since refused to deliver it up.' The administrator states that he wrote to the defendant company on January 29, 1897, announcing Mr. Johnson's death, whereupon the defendant, it is alleged, answered, denying that Mr. Johnson was insured in it. M. W. Johnson was a prominent citizen of Garrard county, who had a very large amount of insurance in various companies at the time of his death. The administrator is here represented by Mr. R. P. Jacobs, of Danville; Wm. McGe Johnson and Harris & Marshall, of this city.

Christmas Celebration.
The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Batson Saturday afternoon at the usual hour. All are requested to be present, as arrangements for the Christmas celebration will be perfected at that time.

Suit to Recover Fees.
Sait has been brought by the Commonwealth against nearly every circuit clerk in the state to recover certain fees which the court of appeals recently decided against them. The outcome of these suits will be watched with much interest. W. B. Mason, ex-clerk in this county, is included in the list. The amount against him is $935. His bondsmen were Benjamin and E. L. Mason.

A Fine Stable.
Dolph Rice has completed his handsome stable at Danville and it is the best equipped we ever saw. A RECORDMAN was shown through the building Tuesday and was surprised to find so expensive and handsome an outfit. A long string of fresh horses, pretty rubber-tire buggies, handsome landaus and many other accommodations are to be had, and Dolph is quite reasonable in his charges. Herbert Price looks after the books and "B" Farris sees that the finishing touches are put onto every rig sent out. We bespeak for Mr. Rice a liberal share of patronage.

Druth Settling In.
Judging from the big victories won by the temperance people in various towns recently, the saloons is fast losing its grip. Somerset, Monticello, Richmond, and, in fact, every other town voting on the question, went dry by large majorities. Ten or fifteen years ago a fellow could get on an occasional jag and keep up his work, but in recent days drinking and business will come no nearer mixing than will oil and water. We do not know whether it is the quality or not, but we do know "from pretty good authority" that a fellow can't keep his tank full of whiskey and do anything else at the same time in these days.

Lawyer Jas. A. Anderson Dead.
James A. Anderson, formerly of this city, died at his boarding house in Louisville last Thursday night, after a brief illness. Mr. Anderson was a citizen of Lancaster for many years and engaged in the practice of law in the partnership with Capt. Wm. Herndon. He enjoyed a fine practice and was considered as able an attorney as any at the local bar. He moved to Louisville about ten years ago and engaged in the tobacco business, giving this up shortly after to accept a position as U. S. gauger. The deceased was an honest man in his dealings and what he said could be relied upon. In the practice of law he never resorted to any under-handed tricks or slyster methods, but made a fair, clean fight for the interest of his clients. He was in his 67th year and a brother of William, Thomas and John Anderson, all well known in this county. His wife died several years ago and is buried at Shelbyville. Mr. Anderson had many friends in Lancaster, who greatly regret his death. The remains arrived on the train Saturday and were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery.

C. D. POWELL.

A "Backwoods Merchant" wishes to advertise again. It has been sometime since my last appearance, but I was too busy to write an ad. By the way, I would like to whisper in our editor's ear about advertising bringing business, but he's a good fellow, so we'll just let him go. In beginning, I wish to say that before this spell is over, I think the blue grass will all be consumed under. However, here is what I have and what I am selling 'em at: Sugar, 17 lbs. 8c; well known 7-12c lb., best prunes, 8-12c; raisins, 10c; citron, 12c; 4 cases soap, 5c; rolled oats, 2c; candy 3c; flour, 50c per sack, 21 5c per 100 lbs.; can peaches, 10c; Lovingbirds Bulk coffee, 12-13c try it, it's a good one; tomatoes 5c per can; corn 2 cans 10c; peas, 2 cans 5c; split peas, for soup, 5c per lb.; cheese 15c; crackers 2 lbs 10c; 12-13c matches 50c; mixed nuts 15c; salmon 10c; best salmon 2 for 25c; good butter 10c; coal oil 9c; best coal oil 12c; Sait, well, I'm out, but ain't for long; good, fresh country sausage, 7-12c; furniture, shingles, &c., in season. All but shingles bought before prices advanced. So come and get high up goods, for low down prices. A new lot of chairs and rockers, just received. Come and get yourself, your wife, your husband or your sweetheart, something to sit on. Coffee same old price, but it ought not to be. I have too many goods, and too many pieces. I can't tell it all, just come and I can show you better than I can tell you. But I must stop, as the editor will get all the profit. Of course those prices are cash. Yours in hope,
R. A. STONE.
