BALTIMORE was visited by an $80,000 fire on the 8th inst.

LOUISVILLE has nine National Banks, with a paid in capital stock of $3,551,500.

THAT Lexington weather prophet hit it for once. Yesterday was Thursday, and it rained.

A SIXTY-pound turtle was blown out of the Pearl River, near Georgetown, Miss., during a recent cyclone.

The estimated amount of the pension payment this year is $100,000,000. Nearly one-half the entire expenses of the Government.

Gov. PORTER, of Indiana, Gov. Harrison, of Illinois, and Gov. Foster, of Ohio, all spoke at Acton (Ind.) Camp Meeting, on the 7th inst.

UNDER the new running arrangement on the K. C. and O. Railroads. The freight and passenger traffic that heretofore passed through Lexington, is now given to Winchester and Paris. Lexington is "side-tracked" completely by the new arrangement, and, of course, the Lexingtonians are "kicking" badly on account of it. Whether they have any just cause for doing so, we will not say. It's not our fight, but we will, however, say this much, that they are doing no more than the citizens of any other town would do under the circumstances. "What can't be cured," however, "must be endured."

JOSEPH STOUT was hung at Rockville, Ind., Wednesday last, for the murder of Taylor Dunbar last November. Dunbar was a huckster, and lived at Darlington, Ind. On the day of the killing Stout accompanied him on a trip through the neighboring country. After having gone about four miles into the country, Stout knocked him down while passing through a lonely swamp, and then finished him by firing two loads of shot into his head. Stout was arrested two days afterwards, and was tried and sentenced. Gov. Porter was appealed to for a commutation of the sentence, but refused, and let the law take its course. The killing was for the purpose of robbery, but five dollars was all Stout found on his victim.

Railroad Aid Bonds. The Supreme Court of the United States has added another to the long list of decisions showing their determination to compel towns and counties to pay their honest debts, and not crawl out of them through some technical back door. The town of Amboy, Lee county, Ill., issued in 1872, bonds in payment of subscriptions voted by the town to the stock of the Chicago and Rock River Railroad Company. Subsequently some of the taxpayers obtained from the Circuit Court of Lee county an injunction restraining the levy and collection of taxes to pay principal and interest of said bonds. Certain of the bondholders then brought action in the United States Circuit Court against the town, and obtained judgments. The town clerk concealed himself to avoid the process of the court, and the County Clerk refused to compute and assess taxes to meet the judgment without the certificate of the town clerk, required by law. The bondholders then united in an application to the Circuit Court for a mandamus to the county clerk to comply with their demands, and on the matter being carried by writ of error to the Supreme Court, that court held that all the directions of the various acts of Assembly as to certificates, &c., among the town and county officials was merely directory, and that the amount of debt having been ascertained by the judgment of the Circuit Court, it was enough, and, as these bondholders were not affected by the injunction of the county court, the mandamus must be awarded, and the town officers must levy the tax as directed by the United States Circuit Court.—Exchange.

LITERARY TREASURE.

Alleged Discovery of a Very Ancient Version of the Book of Deuteronomy.

London Cable Letter. A Mr. Shapira, of Jerusalem, a bookseller and dealer in antiquities, has just deposited in the British Museum fifteen slips of black sheepskin leather, on which are written, in characters similar to those on the celebrated Moabite stone, portions of the book of Deuteronomy differing materially from the received version. The date of the slips is the ninth century before Christ, or sixteen centuries older than any authentic manuscript of any part of the Old Testament. Mr. Shapira bought them from an Arab, and he asks for them $5,000,000 from the British Museum. If genuine, the interest and importance of the discovery cannot be overrated, and so far as the variations in the sacred text are concerned, there is promise of one of the greatest that scholars have entered upon. The deologie furnishes a good example for comparison with the received version. I quote Shapira's record: I am God, thy God, which liberated thee from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. Ye shall have no other Gods. Ye shall not make to yourselves any graven image, nor any likeness that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters under the earth. Ye shall not bow down to them, nor serve them. I am God. Your God sanctified. In six days I have made the heaven and the earth and all that there is therein, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore rest thou also; thou and thy cattle, and all that thou hast. I am God; thy God. Honor thy father and thy mother. I am God; thy God. Thou shalt not commit adultery with the wife of thy neighbor. I am God; thy God. Thou shalt not swear by my name falsely, for I visit the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those who take My name in vain. I am God; thy God. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy brother. I am God; thy God. Thou shalt not covet his wife, or his man servant, or his maid servant, or anything that is his. I am God; thy God. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thy heart. I am God; thy God. These ten words God spake. Dr. Ginsburg, the eminent Semitic scholar to whom Mr. Gladstone has just given fifty pounds sterling toward the production of his work on the Masorah, has accepted the above and is busy completing a translation and determining on behalf of the museum the genuineness of the fragments.

Telegraph Primer. Detroit Free Press. What is that Person doing in the Telegraph office? That is the Manager, and he has a right to be there. But why is he removing all those Dispatches from the Hooks? Because there is more business than his Plugs can get away with, and he is preparing to Mail the rest of the Dispatches to their addresses. Is it a sharp trick? Yes, pretty sharp. It enables him to sit down and Telegraph all over the country: "Hooks all clear to Detroit." But won't the People be mad at the delay of their Telegrams? Yes, my Child; but what are they going to Do About it? Who is that man with the White Hat? He is a Commission Merchant, my Child. But see how Mad he is! He is red in the Face. He swears. He beats the Air with his Fists. Has Any Body come the String Game on him? No, my Child. He has just received a Telegram from one of his country customers, saying: "Car a you Nevertheless Yesterday Bushels chagriu Therefore Suddenly." And He Won't Have it That Way? No; he can't Make out Whether the Man has sent him Potatoes or wants to know the price of Oats. Hence his Cuss Words. Hence his Desire to Plug the Plug Operator. Hence his Love for the W. T. U.
